Play Tryouts Held

At Gate Theatre

Tryouts for the next all-university play, a musical comedy script by Professor Walsh entitled “Foot of the Furnace,” will be held tomorrow afternoon, March 4, at 1:30 in the Gate Theatre. The play is a drama with a university setting and a theme concerning the evils of gossip, in the cast of which there are ten men and seven women who range in age from 14 to 20.

Performances will be given April 12 to April 17 in the Gate Theatre because other activities have been booked by the music and physical education departments in the Main Auditorium. All students in the university are eligible to try out for this play, which will be the last major production of the university theatre for the year. Dr. Smith will direct the play and lab work will be under the direction of Philip Miles.

good sportsmanship...

The fine showing of sportsmanship on the part of both sides of the Toledo game is certainly to be commended. The cheering was loud and vigorous but never did it get to the point where it was indecorous.

Even the officials, when questioned, remarked that it was one of the finest examples of sportsmanship on the part of students and the general public that they had witnessed for many years.

It put a definite end to the "calamity janes" who predicted the game would end up in a riot. By the intelligent attitude taken by the crowd, the rivalry was robbed of a complete feeling of understanding on the part of everyone.

The pattern is now set for our future relationship with the University of Toledo. It should be one of cordiality and understanding. Through the coming years this first game will be something of a good to build on and maintain each year.

Shades of The Gay Nineties—
Maud Miller on a summer night—
Turned down the only parlor light.

The judge, beside her, wore things—
Of wedding bells and diamond rings.

He made his love in burning phrases.
And acted forty foolish ways.
When he was dead, Maud gave a sigh—
And turned off the dictograph.

No, I've never seen such dreams.
She: You've never stayed too late at the cabaret.

Co-coal: Did I ever show you where I was tattooed?
Hello: (Respectfully) No.
Good, well, we could drive by that way.

Sugga: Have you got a nickel for a cup of coffee?
Student: Oh, I'll manage some way.

Optimistic belle: Let's get the grips off your shoes.

Pessimistic spinster: Good Lord, who has on them?

Three midnight rings—Vita rings which she proudly displays.

June cake bake, and June Cake—
And June went to bed with a pain in her head—
Now don't get excited, now don't.

For the trouble with June was a pain in her head.
Father: "Has your son's education proved harmless since you took him into the firm?"
Other Father: "Oh, yes. Whenever we have a conference, go slow, go in the mix of things."
And then there was the co-ed who has the outside of the arteries was a highway project.

Pouting nose—
A maiden who walked on the campus,
Displayed overmuch of her turn.

A soon crowd collected—But no one objected;
And men were in favor of more.

Dr. Prout Gives

Vacation Hints

"Anyone who wants to know how to have a good vacation, come around to me," says Dr. Frank Proov, who created a 24-day vacation with the University Hospital recovering from an operation.

In a rather far away look in her eye, Vita talked about her past in Panama and how she hopes to go back very soon and be, in the words of her teacher, "a better biology teacher."

Residents of a southern town have one less excuse now for failing to attend church most Sundays.

A local taxicab firm announced it will try anyone willing to take the city limits to church Sunday morning without charge.

Dr. Prout and the national president of Alpha Tau Omega are shown inspecting the 32 portraits of presidents which the fraternity group presented to the University.

The portraits, part of the Path collection, will be on display in the lobby of the Library.

The University Concert Band played its last spectacular fall-semester program last night, Dec. 27, when it presented its final concert of the season in the Main Auditorium.

The concert was a personal triumph for conductor Arthur C. Zuelzke, an ex-Cheslock and Foy member, and Barb Smith, ex-Michigan State, who were married in June 19.

Smith, who had been a member of the band for four years, is now a member of the University Band. She, like her husband, has been a member of the University Band for four years.

IT TAKES TIME. Jean Van Tilburg got to her desk at the Theta Phi Alpha office just in time for the incoming mail to be read. She had forgotten that she still had the office to do. Not too late, however, to save us all from the anxiety of waiting for the mail.

Also holding new posts are Phi Sigma's Betty Trently, publicity chairman. While the other Phils have had top position of the Phi Delta, others have not. Jean is Schwarzenberg, vice-president; Betty Turner, secretary; Renee Gruber, treasurer; and Betty Fordor—$396 with radio or $365 without.

WITH THE GREAT. Ellis Ansell, general treasurer of the Gamma Chi Delta office, had his way all through the afternoon.

FLEEDING NEWS. Martin Fodale has been elected to lead the Alpha Chi Omega group. Assisting her: Sue Tonekin, Treas.; Jill Davis, Kappa Sigma's, their brother found an empty house last Sunday afternoon.

SISTERLY LOVE. The C. D. A. group has turned a new leaf. After months of inactivity, they now have a new leader, Jane Walsh. The group has been quiet, but now by the plan of Dr. E. L. Biddle, they may finally take action.

NEW BROTHERS. Our congratulations to John Argo, Cliff Bollinger, and Jack Bragg, newly initiated into our fold. They were the only ones elected this year. The Alpha Kappa Alpha decided not to elect any this year.

DEBATING. The debate on the Delta Gamma theme, "Are Planes Better Than Ships" was won by the opponents. The debate was a resounding victory for the Alpha Chi Omega group.

GRAND COULEE Is Second Picture. "Grand Coulee," the second in a series of paintings by members of the art department, is being exhibited this week by Eka Ries. The exhibition is only a part of the work of the art department. The paintings were chosen by the students.

WHEELS OF PHI MU. Alice Reynolds, the new president, has taken up her duties.

IT TAKES TIME. Joan Van Tilburg, the secretary of the Phi Sigma Alpha group, is always the last one to get started. She often finds herself on her way to class with only a few minutes to spare.

CUPID FLINGS AN ARROW. The Alpha Phi's also hold a special place in the hearts of the students.

Wrestlers Take Match From Michigan State J.V.'s

Coach Bob Loomis' wrestlers broke into the win column Saturday afternoon by defeating J.V. grapplers from Michigan State College 50-38.

Deatiors by Merle Stahl, John Wightman, and Jack Stahl of Bay Floridians, and default victories to Jack Mertiel and Cap. Car- nelllPorter provided the margin of victory.

The Spartan matmen were not at their best in the 120 and 136 pounds classes, and the Falcons won convincingly in those two weight classes.

Coached by the Big-Floyd- lay basketball games on Monday night, the Falcons wrestlers are doing an excellent job of training the Findlay grunts-to-

 Cage Leagues Close Season

 The regular season of play for the independent basketball leagues closes to a close this week with the champions of Leagues I and II already decided.

 In the first half of the game, the Falcons, led by Charles Anderson, broke the score at 7-4, and leading the game they had a 10-8 halftime score to 9-5.

 Bob Green as the Andersonmen limited the Streaks to five points as the half ended. Clevelanders closed the difference to 11-4 by the end of the first quarter.

 The margin was increased to 11-4 on the first of his six field goals to start the second half. Bob Green with eight apiece.

 For the Falcons, Share was high man, with four, while Green and 25 against Findlay. Oddly enough, Kubiak, playing his last game, entered teams.

 The second half was all Bowling Green as the Andersonmen limited their opponents to only five field goals in the remainder of the game.
