Overman Resigns From Deanship

Dr. James Robert Overman, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts since he was named in 1929, has been named the University's new registrar. For reasons of health, Dr. Overman will be relieved of his administrative duties at the end of March and will continue to serve as professor of mathematics. He was named an assistant to the Dean in 1941.

Dr. Frank J. Povah asserted that he reluctantly accepted the resignation of one of the outstanding educators of the state's higher education faculty. "The University has long been aware of Dr. Overman's qualities as a teacher and as an administrator." Dr. Overman will continue as a member of the University Executive Committee.

Graduate Work in Business

Dr. Emerson Shrock announced this week that the Department of Business will be offered to the Graduate School. Business Administration has been established as a major field of study as of the present college year, but will be offered during the fall semester of 1948.

However, students working toward a master's degree will be required to complete at least half of their time in basic advanced courses in economics and business, with specialization in one of the three areas in business conducted on a problem and thesis basis. Dr. Ralph G. Housman will act as first consultant for all students planning graduate work. Each student will later be assigned a permanent advisor from the graduate faculty in business ac-

One-Fifth of Women Vote in Last Election

Three hundred and fifty votes were cast in the election held Friday for officers and class representatives of the Association of Women Students. This is about one-fifth of the total enrollment of women, a better percentage than the one-eighth of the student body who voted in the last election.

Those elected were Mary Martha Buchanan, president; Carole Swanton, secretary, and Gladys Howarth, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Mary Bennett, senior representative; and Lyle Weir, junior representative; and Billy Collier, sophomore representative.

Two close races were shown in the vote for sophomore representative and second vice-president. Miss Mabel Howell, who was first choice on all ballot, had 127 to make her second vice-president, and Shirley Charles, runner-up, had 125.

Mr. Richards' winning painting: "There Was a Time," a portrait of the artist. by Margaret Finney

A Christmas gift of oil paints given to Earl Richards by his parents during his junior year at Bowling Green State University turned itself into a successful career, and the Bee Gee News. To go over reviewing a Hollywood satirist like "Dirty Eddie" the best approach is the idiosyncrasy of the characters, for there is where the author's interpretation and character lines.

"Dirty Eddie"—a delightful and ingenuous pig who becomes an actor. His left profile is as good as his right. He photographs perfectly from any angle. When the director told him to shape his head and smiling him down on one side, he had to endure it to millions.

Falcons Train For 15 Game Baseball Schedule

by Tom Fay

A fifteen game schedule has been arranged for this year's Falcon nine, according to Athletic Director W. Harold Loomis, with the opener slated for Monday, April 10 against Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware. Included among the '48 BIG foes are ten holowders from last year's schedule plus five newcomers: Toledo, Wayne, Michigan Normal, Ohio Northern and Lawrence Tech.

The schedule will be played on the local diamond, in- cluding a twin bill with Western Michigan's miscellaneous bunch in town, in the season's finale on May 28th. Last year, in this same field, the Midwest nine drilled CIT and S-A, in account for two of the Four Fuels champs and the third game.

On April 13, the archrival Univer- sity of Toledo Rockets will make an appearance here and will play host to the Falcons in the Glass city on May 5 in what will ub- questionably be two of the season's top attractions.

Paced by slasher, Glen How- ever, the veteran-studded Falcon nine appears headed for a top rank this year. The Beavers captured six wins up to the four late-season losses.

Falcons Place In Tech Relays

Nine members of the Bowling Green track squad returned from Chicago Sunday after competing in the Illinois Tech Relays, one of the nation's biggest indoor meets. There were 57 schools entered, and they brought both a college and university division.

The Falcons placed tenth of 57 points were led by Jim Whitaker and Bill Robinson. The Bowling pins vault tied for first place in his specialty while Robinson placed sixth in both the 15 yard dash and the broad jump. Several records tumbled in the meet including the hurdle event with Bill Robinson's 14.49. Harry Ross lost, the great timber-topper from Pennsylvania, set a new mark in the hurdles, and Michigan's Charley Farrow wiped the field in the shot.

There is nothing on schedule for the Bowling Green trackmen as of this time. But one can expect invitations to compete in the Purdue Relays and possibly one or two other meets.

SAE defeated Sigma Nu Monday night 14-6 in the first of three games, the great number of SAE Gee and Lollie fans on hand — "Easy Ed" Maxey, Billikin center and Al A. Amsden, not looking very sensational on the defense — Western's Coach Ed Diddle speaking over WHN between halves of the shuffle — seemed and ended what happened to the Falcons. Central Collegiate Meet
Next For Sinners

Coach Sam Cooper's Bowling Green swimmers will be at Michigan State College's magnificent pool in East Lansing this weekend to work out and to compete in the mid-west's toughest squads and the Central Collegiate Conference championship.

Michigan State dominates the field with virtually the same outfit which took every first place in the last meet in which the Falcons were victims of a little tough luck last year.

MacMen End Season

Coach Bob Leibman's Falcon's main event finished the season fortunately for the Falcons, since the season finished five days before they were scheduled to compete in the Meistersinger West Relays in Cleveland.

Entrants for the meet are the Ivy league schools, Wesleyan, Dartmouth and Michigan State, as well as the independent schools of Shaker Heights, Shaker Heights, Hilltop, Summit, smaller and fastest of the Billiken speedsters . . . Saturday night games which will take place in the following cities:

Ivy League:
Shaker Heights — Monday night
Hilltop — Tuesday night
Summit — Wednesday night
Michigan State.
Shaker Heights — Saturday night
Dartmouth — Sunday afternoon
Wesleyan — Sunday afternoon
Michigan State — Sunday afternoon

In the two other games played in Lansing, Fla State won 67-25 and PI Thetas defeated Ohio Northern 75-36.

Tonight, Friday night, will be held for fourth and fifth places in the final standings. Chi Theta will meet Phi Delta and Phi Beta Nu will meet Sigma Nu in the fifth game at 8:30 tonight.

SIGMA NU IN BOWLING LEAGUE

Sigma Nu climbed three points into second place in the bowling league as of Tuesday night. The Falcons moved to within one point of the lead by bowling Phi Delta for the third straight week.

St. Louis Humbles B C
In Invitational Tourney
by Dave Reichert
The Bowling Green Falcons closed their 1947-48 basketball season last Thursday evening by losing to a superior, fast-breaking, and well-coached St. Louis team in the National Invitational Tournament at New York City. The Falcons, although outplayed, were never outscored, as they kept trying to narrow the score until the final gun.

Over 25 faithful Falcon fans were in attendance as they watched St. Louis run up their decisive 60-39 game. BG fans saw in St. Louis their own Falcons had done to so many teams. The Billikens slowly built their 15-point lead toward the court before the Falcons could pick up the pace and get back on defense.

Chuck Saer, who held All-American Center Ed McQuay to four points, drove hard as he sank a charity toss. BG stayed in the game for nine minutes until the score was tied at 11 points. Then the Billikens' fast break began to roll, and with beautiful passing and driving they scored 13 straight points before the hapless Falcons could get back on defense. That was the turning point, and driving they scored 13 straight points before the hapless Falcons could get back on defense.

High point man for the evening was Bob Conroy anil Tom Imnn.

His last game, had seven. Other high point men were Leo Kubiak, who played captain, and Mac Otten, who followed with 10, and the Falcon forwards.

At the end of a 3A-21 half-time score, BG could tally. BG was on the short end of 26-11, and the Falcons' offense was in full swing. Then the Falcons' defense showed its teeth. St. Louis scored nine straight points to lead by 34-17 after nine minutes of the final round.

St. Louis fans saw in Square Gardens tonight. After trying to narrow the score until the final gun.
