MINUTES
Board of Trustees
Bowling Green State University
February 24, 2012

Notice having been given in accordance with the Board of Trustees Bylaws, the following members met in the Bowen-Thompson Student Union Room 308 at the Bowling Green campus on February 24, 2012: William Primrose III, Chair; Stephen Daley, Stephanie Imhoff, Daniel Keller, David Levey, Col. John Moore, Jr. (Ret), Megan Newlove, Abby Priehs, Debra Ryan, Beau Slater, and Fran Voll.

Also present: Mary Ellen Mazey, President; Patrick Paucken, Secretary to the Board; Rodney Rogers, Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost; Albert Colom, Vice President for Enrollment Management; Sean FitzGerald, Vice President for Legal Affairs and Governmental Relations; Sherideen Stoll, Vice President for Finance and Administration; Tom Hiles, Vice President for University Advancement; Jill Carr, Senior Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students; Greg Christopher, Director of Intercollegiate Athletics; Rebecca Ferguson, Chief Human Resources Officer; Robin Gerrow, Chief Communications Officer; Barbara Waddell, Director of Equity & Diversity and Assistant to the Provost for Personnel and Academic Conduct; media representatives; and a number of observers.

Mr. Primrose called the meeting to order at 1:30 p.m. The Board Secretary called the roll and announced that a quorum was present (nine trustees).

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

President Mary Ellen Mazey introduced Barbara Waddell to the Board in her new role as Director of Equity and Diversity. Dr. Mazey reported that a mid-year Cabinet retreat was held early in January. Collaboration is key across all divisions at BGSU. An Efficiency Task Force has been formed and modeled after Dr. Mazey’s experiences at other universities. The group is chaired by Provost Rodney Rogers and has been asked to complete a report by fall. The visioning process with the City of Bowling Green and BGSU is well underway. Dr. Mazey recognized the participation of Trustee Megan Newlove, Former Trustee Mike Marsh, Mayor Dick Edwards, and Superintendent of Bowling Green Schools, Dr. Amy McVey.

UNIVERSITY ADVANCEMENT REPORT

Vice President Tom Hiles presented updates from University Advancement including preparations for the next comprehensive campaign. Mr. Hiles informed the Board that results are coming in from the demographic study. The Presidential Planning Survey will be out soon to determine where potential donors’ philanthropic interests lie. A feasibility study will take place in May and the campaign cabinet is being assembled. The Leadership Circle Gala is planned for April 20 the Stroh Center to recognize significant donors.

The Board Secretary conducted a roll call vote with the following results: Voting “yes” – Mr. Daley, Ms. Imhoff, Mr. Keller, Mr. Levey, Col. Moore, Ms. Newlove, Mr. Primrose, Ms. Ryan, and Mr. Voll. The motion was approved with nine affirmative votes.
Approval of Honorary Degree: Maestra Marin Alsop

No. 20-2012  Mr. Voll moved and Mr. Daley seconded that:

WHEREAS, Maestra Marin Alsop attended Yale University and earned her master’s degree from The Juilliard School; and

WHEREAS, Maestra Alsop’s conducting career was launched in 1989, when she was a prize-winner at the Leopold Stokowski International Conducting Competition; and in the same year, was the first woman to be awarded the Koussevitzky Conducting Prize from the Tanglewood Music Center, where she was a pupil of Leonard Bernstein; and

WHEREAS, Maestra Alsop is a regular guest conductor with orchestras all over the world, and has been music director of California’s Cabrillo Festival of Contemporary Music since 1992; and

WHEREAS, Maestra Alsop currently serves a Music Director of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, a position she has held since 2007; and

WHEREAS, since taking up her position in Baltimore, Maestra Alsop has spearheaded educational initiatives that reach more than 60,000 children, including a program called “OrchKids”, which provides music education, instruments, and mentorship to Baltimore’s neediest young people; and

WHEREAS, Maestra Alsop’s extensive discography includes hundreds of performances and recordings of major classical works, including those by living composers, making Maestra Alsop instrumental in bringing the music of our time to the standard repertoire; and

WHEREAS, among Maestra Alsop’s many honors are a MacArthur Fellowship for exceptional creative work, Gramophone’s “Artist of the Year” award, The Royal Philharmonic Society’s Conductor’s Award, and Classical Brit Award for Best Female Artist; and

WHEREAS, in 2008, Maestra Alsop was inducted into the American Academy of Arts and Sciences; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on December 6, 2011, the BGSU Faculty Senate approved the awarding of the honorary degree to Maestra Marin Alsop;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees, in recognition of Maestra Marin Alsop’s contributions to art, music, and culture, confer upon Maestra Alsop an honorary Doctor of Musical Arts degree.

No. 21-2012  Mr. Voll moved and Col. Moore seconded that:

WHEREAS, Dr. Bernice R. Sandler earned a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from Brooklyn College, a master of arts degree in clinical and school psychology from the College of the City of New York, and a doctor of education degree in counseling and personnel services from the University of Maryland; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Sandler currently serves as a Senior Scholar at the Women’s Research and Education Institute in Washington, DC, where she consults with institutions and others about achieving equity for women; and

WHEREAS, known as the “Godmother of Title IX”, Dr. Sandler has for decades worked tirelessly on behalf of gender equity in education; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Sandler has given over 2500 presentations, has written over 100 articles, and is well known for her expertise in women’s educational equity, sexual harassment, the chilly classroom climate, and the knowledge of policies, programs, and strategies concerning women on campus; and
WHEREAS, from 1971 to 1991, Dr. Sandler served as Executive Associate and Director of the Project on the Status and Education of Women at the Association of American Colleges and Universities; and

WHEREAS, according to the words of one of Dr. Sandler’s nominators, “through her tenacious research that involved both finding information about relevant policy and compiling data on women’s experiences in higher education, Dr. Sandler became a key player in what would become Title IX”; and

WHEREAS, since 2005, Dr. Sandler has visited Bowling Green State University several times; speaking to numerous student and faculty groups; serving as keynote speaker for a 2005 symposium entitled, “Women and Sport: Before, During, and After Title IX; participating in a conference about women in STEM disciplines; and granting an interview for a documentary about Elizabeth Boyer, a BGSU alumna who also worked to get Title IX through Congress; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on December 6, 2011, the BGSU Faculty Senate approved the awarding of the honorary degree to Dr. Sandler;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees, in recognition of Dr. Bernice Sandler’s contributions to gender equity in education; women and sport; and her leadership and service to students, staff, and faculty at Bowling Green State University and throughout elementary, secondary, and post-secondary education, confer upon Dr. Sandler an honorary Doctor of Education and Human Development.

WHEREAS, Dr. Timothy Fuerst joined the Bowling Green State University faculty in 1993 as an assistant professor of Economics; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Fuerst earned tenure and promotion to associate professor in 1996 and promotion to professor in 2002; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Fuerst earned a bachelor’s degree in economics and finance from Ohio Northern University and a master’s degree and a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, at BGSU, Dr. Fuerst’s research is concerned with constructing theoretical models of the business cycle, particularly the role of financial matters, models of the monetary transmission mechanism, and optimal monetary policy; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Fuerst has published dozens of articles and books on monetary policy in the field’s leading journals; and

WHEREAS, according to “Research Papers in Economics”, Dr. Fuerst’s research productivity lands him in the top 4% of economists; and

WHEREAS, his papers are on the reading lists of Ph.D. macroeconomics courses across the country; and

WHEREAS, while at BGSU, Dr. Fuerst has developed and maintained a strong research relationship with the Cleveland Federal Reserve Bank, where he currently serves as Senior Economic Advisor; and

WHEREAS, the nomination of Dr. Timothy Fuerst as a Distinguished Research Professor has been supported and endorsed by his department chair, dean, the Committee of Distinguished Research Professors, the Council of Deans, and Provost Rodney Rogers.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees approves the naming of Dr. Timothy Fuerst as a Distinguished Research Professor.

The Board Secretary conducted a roll call vote with the following results: Voting “yes” – Mr. Daley, Ms. Imhoff,
Mr. Keller, Mr. Levey, Col. Moore, Ms. Newlove, Mr. Primrose, Ms. Ryan, and Mr. Voll. The motion was approved with nine affirmative votes.

Approval of Degree Name Change: Bachelor of Science in Engineering Technology

No. 23-2012 Mr. Voll moved and Mr. Daley seconded that:

approval be given to the proposed name change for the Bachelor of Science in Technology with a major in Engineering Technology to a Bachelor of Science in Engineering Technology.

All signified in affirmative. Motion carried.

Establishment of a Classification System for BGSU Classified Staff

No. 24-2012 Mr. Voll moved and Col. Moore seconded that:

WHEREAS, Ohio law authorizes the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees to do all things necessary for the successful and continuous operation of the University, including empowering the Board to carry out all matters of governance involving the officers and employees of the university; and

WHEREAS, Bowling Green State University has relied upon the State of Ohio Classification system pertaining to classified employees contained in Ohio Administrative Code in classifying its own Classified Staff employees; and

WHEREAS, state law permits the Board to establish a classification system for the Classified Staff employees at Bowling Green State University separate and apart from the State of Ohio classification system contained in the current Ohio Administrative Code; and

WHEREAS, the Board wishes to exercise the authority granted it under state law to establish a classification system for the Classified Staff employees;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees, pursuant to its statutory authority, delegates to the President, the authority to take such actions as the President deems necessary to establish a job classification system for the University’s classified employees including, if necessary, establishing an interim classification system. The President may in her discretion sub-delegate this authority to University officers to accomplish the purposes of this Resolution.

All signified in affirmative. Motion carried.

Approval of 2012 Blue Water Satellite Licensing Agreement

No. 25-2012 Mr. Voll moved and Ms. Ryan seconded that:

WHEREAS, Blue Water Satellite, Inc (BWSI) is a for-profit Bowling Green State University start-up company established in 2007 for the commercialization of technologies created and developed by Bowling Green State University Professor of Geology, Robert K. Vincent, and his associates and students; and

WHEREAS, in September 2008, BWSI acquired an exclusive, worldwide license to make, use, and sell proprietary Bowling Green State University technology; and

WHEREAS, on the advice of Bowling Green State University’s Patent Advisory Committee, it is recommended that Bowling Green State University execute a new exclusive license with BWSI; and

WHEREAS, the multiple technologies associated with the proposed exclusive license may be described as “Methods and systems for detecting copper, phosphorus and sulfur in soil; for mapping total phosphate and total sulfate in lakes, streams, and oceans; and for determining evapotranspiration; all from multispectral reflected sunlight using satellite remote sensing”; and

WHEREAS, the new license will allow BWSI to expand its market coverage into new areas of commercial interest, which include agricultural and environmental monitoring; and

WHEREAS, the new technologies being licensed are a reflection of the market needs and interests discovered by BWSI and a testimony to the inventiveness of Dr. Vincent and his Bowling Green State University colleagues, whose research led to the creation and development of the new technologies;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees hereby authorizes the Vice President for Research and Economic Development to negotiate and execute the exclusive license with Blue Water Satellite, Inc.

The Board Secretary conducted a roll call vote with the following results: Voting “yes” – Mr. Daley, Ms. Imhoff, Mr. Keller, Mr. Levey, Col. Moore, Ms. Newlove, Mr. Primrose, Ms. Ryan, and Mr. Voll. The motion was approved with nine affirmative votes.

Mr. Voll reported that there were several information items presented including the review of Academic Affairs’ strategic imperatives and a report on the activities from the division of Student Affairs.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS/FACILITIES COMMITTEE

Mr. Levey reported that the Financial Affairs/Facilities Committee had met that morning and considered several action and information items.

Approval of Kreischer Electrical, Data, and Fire Protection Upgrade Projects

No. 26-2012 Mr. Levey moved and Ms. Imhoff seconded that:

WHEREAS, Series 2010 Bond proceeds in the amount of $2,014,890 have been identified for the upgrades and renovations to Kreischer Quadrangle as part of the overall Residence Life and Dining Services Master Plan, and Bowling Green Campus Master Plan; and

WHEREAS, the renovation includes emergency and egress lighting upgrades, door access controls and security cameras, fire detection devices; and

WHEREAS, the project also includes wired and wireless internet upgrades; and

WHEREAS, the design, bidding, and construction will follow all applicable state laws and regulations;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees hereby authorizes the Vice President for Finance and Administration to proceed with the Kreischer Electrical, Data, and Fire Protection Upgrade Projects as described above.

The Board Secretary conducted a roll call vote with the following results: Voting “yes” – Mr. Daley, Ms. Imhoff, Mr. Keller, Mr. Levey, Col. Moore, Ms. Newlove, Mr. Primrose, Ms. Ryan, and Mr. Voll. The motion was approved with nine affirmative votes.

Approval of Residence Hall Master Plan – Phase III McDonald Residence Hall Renovation

No. 27-2012 Mr. Levey moved and Mr. Voll seconded that:

WHEREAS, the Series 2010 Bond issue provided funds in the amount of $9,300,000 for the upgrades and renovations to McDonald Hall as part of the overall Residence Life and Dining Services Master Plan, and Bowling Green Campus Master Plan; and

WHEREAS, the first two phases of renovation have been performed and provide the necessary background work to enable Phase III to proceed; and

WHEREAS, Phase III will dramatically transform McDonald Hall by addressing electrical, IT/wireless, fire system, elevator and windows; it will provide significantly improved restrooms, lounge space, computer room and kitchen; it will also include a redesigned entrance and courtyard; and

WHEREAS, the design, bidding, and construction will follow all applicable state laws and regulations;
NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees hereby

Approval to Renew Participation in the Local Administration Competency Certification Program for Capital
Facilities Projects

No. 28-2012 Mr. Levey moved and Ms. Newlove seconded that:

WHEREAS, the 126th Ohio General Assembly enacted H.B. 16 establishing a Local Administration Competency Certification Program (the “Program”) for the benefit of certain state-assisted institutions of higher education, including state universities; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 3345.51 of the Ohio Revised Code (“R.C.”), the Program authorizes such institutions to administer state-funded construction, reconstruction, improvement, renovation, enlargement, or alteration of a public improvement under its jurisdiction without the supervision, control, or approval of the Ohio Department of Administrative Services; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to R.C. 123.17 the Ohio State Architect’s Office (the “SAO Program”) may award local administration competency certifications to institutions of higher education and such certifications are required for participation in the Program; and

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that it is in the best interest of the University to administer its own capital facilities projects in accordance with the requirements of both R.C. 3345.51 and R.C. 123.17 (the Program and the SAO Program hereinafter may be collectively or individually referred to as the “Local Administration Program”); and

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that the University has adequate controls and sufficient personnel with the knowledge, skills, training, and professional certifications to satisfactorily participate in and manage the Local Administration Program in accordance with the requirements of the law;

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED, that among other authorities, the President or the Vice President for Finance and Administration is hereby delegated the authority to provide written notice to the Ohio Board of Regents, pursuant to R.C. 3345.51 (A)(2), to convey the Board’s request to administer one or more specific capital facilities projects (as the President or Vice President for Finance and Administration may deem appropriate) within sixty days after the effective date of the section of an Act initially making an appropriation for the relevant project; and

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED THAT, pursuant to the requirement set forth in R.C. 3345.51(A)(3), the University hereby states its intention to comply with R.C. 153.13 and the guidelines established pursuant to R.C. 153.16 and all laws that govern the selection of consultants, preparation and approval of contract documents, receipt of bids, and award of contracts with respect to each project subject to the requirements of the Local Administration Program; and

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED THAT, pursuant to the requirement set forth in R.C. 123.17 (D)(6), and to the extent permitted by the Ohio State Constitution, the University agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the State and the Ohio Department of Administrative Services for any claim of injury, loss, or damage that results from the University’s administration of a capital facilities project subject to the requirements of the Local Administration Program; and

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED THAT, pursuant to the requirement set forth in R.C. 123.17 (D)(5), the University represents to the Ohio State Architect’s Office that the University will conduct biennial audits of the University’s administration of capital facilities projects in accordance R.C. 3345.51(C), for such period of time as the University may be participating in the Local Administration Program; and

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED THAT, pursuant to the requirement set forth in R.C. 123.17 (D)(2), the Board hereby provides its assurance to the Ohio State Architect’s Office that the University will select new employees to participate in the Local Administration Program as necessary to compensate for employee turnover; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board authorizes and directs the President or the Vice President for Finance and Administration to take such actions as may be necessary and appropriate to secure the University’s certification for and successful participation in the Local Administration Program.

REPORTS - CONSTITUENT REPRESENTATIVES

Firelands College Board Representative, Kathie Mueller

Ms. Mueller provided the Board with an update from Firelands. Newly approved degrees include an Associate’s Degree in Medical Sonography and a Bachelor’s Degree in Social Work. With these additions, Firelands now offers nine bachelor’s degrees. Ms. Mueller also thanked the Board for extending the opportunity for a Firelands connection to BGSU Honors Program.

Administrative Staff Council Representative, Sherri Orwick Ogden

Ms. Ogden reported that Administrative Staff Council is 30 years old. The annual Administrative Staff Council Reception and Awards Ceremony will take place on Thursday, April 12. Awards will be given to recognize great performance. Upcoming initiatives and events include a Cocoon Shelter fundraiser, job satisfaction survey and elections for the upcoming year.

Classified Staff Council Representative, Karen Schwab

Ms. Schwab updated the Board on several items. Classified Staff Council supports the Board action to approve the development of the new classification system for employees. Ms. Schwab noted that a counter proposal was submitted to Human Resources, but it was not accepted. Ms. Schwab thanked Dr. Mazey for meeting regularly with the Salary Compensation Committee. The Salary Compensation Committee requested more up-to-date job classifications be used in the next classified staff five-year survey so the results of the survey would more closely relate to current tasks being performed by staff in similar positions. Additional topics included a revised performance evaluation system, a call for volunteers for the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service Challenge.

Faculty Representative, Dr. John Folkins

Dr. Folkins informed the Board that former Senate Secretary, Dr. Terry Herman, left BGSU in late December and introduced Dr. Elizabeth Wood who is the newly elected Senate Secretary. The Fiscal Affairs Advisory Committee was recently formed has already met four times. The Senate Executive Committee and the Senate Committee on Committees have begun a review of all 22 University Standing Committees to evaluate if they are meeting regularly and fulfilling their responsibilities. Dr. Folkins cited examples of Senate working jointly with the Administration on campus wide initiatives including the evaluation of general education, the retention task force, the upcoming reaccreditation from the Higher Learning Commission, and the strategic plan for graduate education.

Graduate Student Representative, David Sleasman

Mr. Sleasman distributed a handout that provided the Board with an overview of Graduate Student Senate. Mr.
Sleasman reported that GSS is currently in its 45th year. Abby Priehs, Graduate Student Trustee was thanked for her service to graduate students. Other events noted were Graduate Student Development Day and the Shanklin Awards.

Undergraduate Student Representative, Rob Orians

Mr. Orians reported to the Board on behalf of Emily Ancinec. Undergraduate Student Government is currently working on green initiatives, preparing for elections and with Provost Rogers on policy review

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. Primrose made a few brief announcements before the Board adjourned. Mr. Primrose continued the tradition of “passing of the gavel” to give Trustees the opportunity to highlight accomplishments and efforts of programs and individuals at Bowling Green State University

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 2:46 p.m.
