Bee Gee News

Local Chi Theta's Initiated Into Theta Chi

Dance Club Gives Concert April 15, 16

Ugly Man Wins Distinction

For the first time in Bowling Green history, the ugly man is being selected to attend the initiation, along with the Kings and "Dreadful Men" of the past. An Ugly Man Contest is being staged today.

Several fraternity and men's dorms have placed a picture of their Ugly Man contestant in the hall in front of the auditorium where more can be dropped in a box below the picture to vote for the candidates.

The event closes to be presented by the University Red Cross fund which has a quota of $100.

Molly Omega, the national sorority, is sponsoring the contest which will run until 4 today. A person may vote as many times as he pleases as a measure of friendship. All votes can be had. 10 cents for ten votes. The contest will close at noon on April 15.

Shuck Announces New Courses

Two new courses, Curriculum and Course Planning and Instructional Aids, have been added to the industrial arts department, announced Dr. Emerson Shuck, head of the department. The additional two courses bring the department nearer a graduate major in industrial education.

Shuck stated that all students now in graduate work at Bowling Green are required to take this examination unless a record of earlier examinations are available.

Graduate Examination Will Be Given Here

Kappa Tau Delta Gamma Win Monday

Play Tickets Go On Sale Today

Tickets for Prof. Frederick G. Walsh's "Yield of the Fountain" will be on sale at the top of the Well today beginning at 12:15 p.m.

Kappa Tau won over Sigma Chi and Delta Gamma triumphs were North Doms in Monday's Phi Kappa Delta debate tournament.

Date, time, and place of the final contests will be announced next week. Attendance is open to the entire campus.

Three judges participated in the final contest and five will judge the finals.

Debate topics competing for Kappa Tau's trophy are under the title of "Resolved: That the Human Species Should be Rejected from the Gaiety Theater."

Admission will be 40 cents and free for students.

Conklin Lists Summer Rooms

Campus accommodations for summer school have been arranged, according to Arch B. Conklin, dean of students.

Williams and Shattuck Halls have been designated as residence dormitories for the summer term. Kibb Hall will not be used.

In addition, the first floor of the Administration Building will be occupied by student offices.

East and West Halls are to be reconditioned this summer and therefore will not be used until fall.

Platoons Leaders Class Opening

Major Harold A. Eisele, USMC, is conducting interviews and gathering information for the formation of Platoons in the Platoon Leaders Class Opening.

Admission to the concert is free for both students and the general public.

Bee Gee News

Local Chi Theta's Initiated Into Theta Chi

Dance Club Gives Concert April 15, 16

Ugly Man Wins Distinction

For the first time in Bowling Green history, the ugly man is being selected to attend the initiation, along with the Kings and "Dreadful Men" of the past. An Ugly Man Contest is being staged today.

Several fraternity and men's dorms have placed a picture of their Ugly Man contestant in the hall in front of the auditorium where more can be dropped in a box below the picture to vote for the candidates.

The event closes to be presented by the University Red Cross fund which has a quota of $100.

Molly Omega, the national sorority, is sponsoring the contest which will run until 4 today. A person may vote as many times as he pleases as a measure of friendship. All votes can be had. 10 cents for ten votes. The contest will close at noon on April 15.

Shuck Announces New Courses

Two new courses, Curriculum and Course Planning and Instructional Aids, have been added to the industrial arts department, announced Dr. Emerson Shuck, head of the department. The additional two courses bring the department nearer a graduate major in industrial education.

Shuck stated that all students now in graduate work at Bowling Green are required to take this examination unless a record of earlier examinations are available.

Graduate Examination Will Be Given Here

Kappa Tau Delta Gamma Win Monday

Play Tickets Go On Sale Today

Tickets for Prof. Frederick G. Walsh's "Yield of the Fountain" will be on sale at the top of the Well today beginning at 12:15 p.m.

Kappa Tau won over Sigma Chi and Delta Gamma triumphs were North Doms in Monday's Phi Kappa Delta debate tournament.

Date, time, and place of the final contests will be announced next week. Attendance is open to the entire campus.

Three judges participated in the final contest and five will judge the finals.

Debate topics competing for Kappa Tau's trophy are under the title of "Resolved: That the Human Species Should be Rejected from the Gaiety Theater."

Admission will be 40 cents and free for students.

Conklin Lists Summer Rooms

Campus accommodations for summer school have been arranged, according to Arch B. Conklin, dean of students.

Williams and Shattuck Halls have been designated as residence dormitories for the summer term. Kibb Hall will not be used.

In addition, the first floor of the Administration Building will be occupied by student offices.

East and West Halls are to be reconditioned this summer and therefore will not be used until fall.

Platoons Leaders Class Opening

Major Harold A. Eisele, USMC, is conducting interviews and gathering information for the formation of Platoons in the Platoon Leaders Class Opening.

Admission to the concert is free for both students and the general public.

Bee Gee News

Local Chi Theta's Initiated Into Theta Chi

Dance Club Gives Concert April 15, 16

Ugly Man Wins Distinction

For the first time in Bowling Green history, the ugly man is being selected to attend the initiation, along with the Kings and "Dreadful Men" of the past. An Ugly Man Contest is being staged today.

Several fraternity and men's dorms have placed a picture of their Ugly Man contestant in the hall in front of the auditorium where more can be dropped in a box below the picture to vote for the candidates.

The event closes to be presented by the University Red Cross fund which has a quota of $100.

Molly Omega, the national sorority, is sponsoring the contest which will run until 4 today. A person may vote as many times as he pleases as a measure of friendship. All votes can be had. 10 cents for ten votes. The contest will close at noon on April 15.

Shuck Announces New Courses

Two new courses, Curriculum and Course Planning and Instructional Aids, have been added to the industrial arts department, announced Dr. Emerson Shuck, head of the department. The additional two courses bring the department nearer a graduate major in industrial education.

Shuck stated that all students now in graduate work at Bowling Green are required to take this examination unless a record of earlier examinations are available.

Graduate Examination Will Be Given Here

Kappa Tau Delta Gamma Win Monday

Play Tickets Go On Sale Today

Tickets for Prof. Frederick G. Walsh's "Yield of the Fountain" will be on sale at the top of the Well today beginning at 12:15 p.m.

Kappa Tau won over Sigma Chi and Delta Gamma triumphs were North Doms in Monday's Phi Kappa Delta debate tournament.

Date, time, and place of the final contests will be announced next week. Attendance is open to the entire campus.

Three judges participated in the final contest and five will judge the finals.

Debate topics competing for Kappa Tau's trophy are under the title of "Resolved: That the Human Species Should be Rejected from the Gaiety Theater."

Admission will be 40 cents and free for students.

Conklin Lists Summer Rooms

Campus accommodations for summer school have been arranged, according to Arch B. Conklin, dean of students.

Williams and Shattuck Halls have been designated as residence dormitories for the summer term. Kibb Hall will not be used.

In addition, the first floor of the Administration Building will be occupied by student offices.

East and West Halls are to be reconditioned this summer and therefore will not be used until fall.

Platoons Leaders Class Opening

Major Harold A. Eisele, USMC, is conducting interviews and gathering information for the formation of Platoons in the Platoon Leaders Class Opening.

Admission to the concert is free for both students and the general public.
May it be primary day. If you say "So what?" or shrug your shoulders in reference to this event, you are failing to accept your duties as an American citizen and have no right to complain about those who are putting up for the November election.

With the world waiting to learn the results of the Italian election, we should realize that ballots can decide a "cold war" as effectively as ballots can decide a "hot" one. Whether we realize it or not we are fighting a battle within our own national boundaries overlapped by international movements which seek to destroy democracy, the "peace at any price" boys.

You may be sure that these elements will turn up in full force at the polls on April 6 and again in November. But, if they succeed in unseating candidates at the primaries who share their views, November will be too late to stop them.

We can talk democracy while we are blue in the face, but not until we live democracy, will we impress the other peoples of the world.

As we students, have the greatest obligation of all, we know what the world situation is and the dangers of it. Our generation also has the most to lose if we fail to exercise our rights now. If we lose the war of words, we will have to fight the war of weapons.

Ask yourself now, isn't it easier to write for an absentee ballot than to face the possibility of shouldering a gun?

Don't waste your education...

Public tension mounts and the rising tide of course points momentum on the United States and Brazil to become acquainted in international relations and the reprinting for positions of communists and democracy.

After a long battle, we got out of it the synopsis of the Universal Military Training or the draft. And here the non-veteran college student, along with other young men becomes ill at ease. His knows, sooner or later he will be affected and consequently, even now before Congress and the President have taken definite action, he becomes hot and unconcerned about the continuance of his college career. He assumes that next fall he will be marching along dusty Georgia roads or sleeping on Alabama red clay. Typical of youth he becomes too young to escape and assumes a devil-may-care attitude. Therein lies his mistake.

Now, if ever, he must play a waiting game. He must plan more than to continue his college career. Right, ill-timed decisions now are not the answer.

The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. He must look beyond selective service and the immediate possibility of the draft. Now is the time for sound thinking for our consideration.

Greatest consideration should be given to college. Too many veterans who were in college before the last war and who adopted this same "what does it matter" attitude have discovered upon return that their college work previous to induction was no more than loose pages of unconnected lecture notes; undistinguishable. Playing the waiting game by remaining in school is a mistake. The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. Now, if ever, he must play a waiting game. He must plan more than to continue his college career. Right, ill-timed decisions now are not the answer.

The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. He must look beyond selective service and the immediate possibility of the draft. Now is the time for sound thinking for our consideration.

Greatest consideration should be given to college. Too many veterans who were in college before the last war and who adopted this same "what does it matter" attitude have discovered upon return that their college work previous to induction was no more than loose pages of unconnected lecture notes; undistinguishable. Playing the waiting game by remaining in school is a mistake. The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. Now, if ever, he must play a waiting game. He must plan more than to continue his college career. Right, ill-timed decisions now are not the answer.

The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. He must look beyond selective service and the immediate possibility of the draft. Now is the time for sound thinking for our consideration.

Greatest consideration should be given to college. Too many veterans who were in college before the last war and who adopted this same "what does it matter" attitude have discovered upon return that their college work previous to induction was no more than loose pages of unconnected lecture notes; undistinguishable. Playing the waiting game by remaining in school is a mistake. The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. Now, if ever, he must plan more than to continue his college career. Right, ill-timed decisions now are not the answer.

The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. He must look beyond selective service and the immediate possibility of the draft. Now is the time for sound thinking for our consideration.

Greatest consideration should be given to college. Too many veterans who were in college before the last war and who adopted this same "what does it matter" attitude have discovered upon return that their college work previous to induction was no more than loose pages of unconnected lecture notes; undistinguishable. Playing the waiting game by remaining in school is a mistake. The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. Now, if ever, he must plan more than to continue his college career. Right, ill-timed decisions now are not the answer.

The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. He must look beyond selective service and the immediate possibility of the draft. Now is the time for sound thinking for our consideration.

Greatest consideration should be given to college. Too many veterans who were in college before the last war and who adopted this same "what does it matter" attitude have discovered upon return that their college work previous to induction was no more than loose pages of unconnected lecture notes; undistinguishable. Playing the waiting game by remaining in school is a mistake. The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. Now, if ever, he must plan more than to continue his college career. Right, ill-timed decisions now are not the answer.

The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. He must look beyond selective service and the immediate possibility of the draft. Now is the time for sound thinking for our consideration.

Greatest consideration should be given to college. Too many veterans who were in college before the last war and who adopted this same "what does it matter" attitude have discovered upon return that their college work previous to induction was no more than loose pages of unconnected lecture notes; undistinguishable. Playing the waiting game by remaining in school is a mistake. The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. Now, if ever, he must plan more than to continue his college career. Right, ill-timed decisions now are not the answer.

The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. He must look beyond selective service and the immediate possibility of the draft. Now is the time for sound thinking for our consideration.

Greatest consideration should be given to college. Too many veterans who were in college before the last war and who adopted this same "what does it matter" attitude have discovered upon return that their college work previous to induction was no more than loose pages of unconnected lecture notes; undistinguishable. Playing the waiting game by remaining in school is a mistake. The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. Now, if ever, he must plan more than to continue his college career. Right, ill-timed decisions now are not the answer.

The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. He must look beyond selective service and the immediate possibility of the draft. Now is the time for sound thinking for our consideration.

Greatest consideration should be given to college. Too many veterans who were in college before the last war and who adopted this same "what does it matter" attitude have discovered upon return that their college work previous to induction was no more than loose pages of unconnected lecture notes; undistinguishable. Playing the waiting game by remaining in school is a mistake. The non-veteran must take a long term view of the situation. Now, if ever, he must plan more than to continue his college career. Right, ill-timed decisions now are not the answer.
VENUS: and Letter to Editor

by Dave Massel

FOUNDER'S DAY. Sigma Phi
Two sophomore celebrated Founders' Day but worked.

A formal dinner and program honoring fraternity and sorority was held at the Woman's Club Friday evening.

After the traditional "Starlight" dinner Saturday night, their dates attended service in the homes of the sorority.

At THEIR BEST. The seniors of Phi Mu sorority are at their best this week because of the presence of their district president Mrs. Howard A. Rollins who is on her annual tour of inspection to Phi Mu chapters throughout the state of Ohio. After leaving here, she will go to Baldwin-Wallace College.

RULING THE ROOST. Kay Wagner is the new president of the Phi Mu sorority. She is a sophomore from Ashtabula.

KE GRAND OLD OPERA. An old-fashioned barn dance was held at the campus of the college Saturday night. Dozens of local students and local farmers attended. The couples picked up their dates in barn wagon and, of course, every- one was dressed up.

LEADING FLEGMENTS. Harriet Rotherham was recently elected president of the Pi Kappa Alpha pledge class. She is a sophomore from Cleveland.

OPEN HOUSE. Entertainers were found throughout the campus last weekend as the Alpha Chi Omega's had the Sigma Alpha Epilson's at their first annual Saturday and the Pi Kappa Alpha's at their second last Sunday.

PHI DELTA PI. Dr. L. C. Pfister held his farewell barn dance at the Sigma Alpha Epilson Hall in Grand Park Friday evening.

Funk was the party a success, was held for Miss Dorothy Gil- bert, Cleveland, ex BeeGee coed, was held for Miss Dorothy Gil- bert, was Miss Dorothy Gilbert's elaborate farewell party to civilian life. Mr. Mauldin was present.

Glory Grod

Glory Grod

and Letter to Editor

by Dave Massel

DAVY CODDINGTON. An old-fashioned barn dance was held at the college Saturday night. Dozens of local students and local farmers attended. The couples picked up their dates in barn wagon and, of course, every- one was dressed up.

LEADING FLEGMENTS. Harriet Rotherham was recently elected president of the Pi Kappa Alpha pledge class. She is a sophomore from Cleveland.

OPEN HOUSE. Entertainers were found throughout the campus last weekend as the Alpha Chi Omega's had the Sigma Alpha Epilson's at their first annual Saturday and the Pi Kappa Alpha's at their second last Sunday.

PHI DELTA PI. Dr. L. C. Pfister held his farewell barn dance at the Sigma Alpha Epilson Hall in Grand Park Friday evening.

Funk was the party a success, was held for Miss Dorothy Gil- bert, Cleveland, ex BeeGee coed, was held for Miss Dorothy Gil- bert, was Miss Dorothy Gilbert's elaborate farewell party to civilian life. Mr. Mauldin was present.

Glc windy

and Letter to Editor

by Dave Massel

DAVY CODDINGTON. An old-fashioned barn dance was held at the college Saturday night. Dozens of local students and local farmers attended. The couples picked up their dates in barn wagon and, of course, every- one was dressed up.

LEADING FLEGMENTS. Harriet Rotherham was recently elected president of the Pi Kappa Alpha pledge class. She is a sophomore from Cleveland.

OPEN HOUSE. Entertainers were found throughout the campus last weekend as the Alpha Chi Omega's had the Sigma Alpha Epilson's at their first annual Saturday and the Pi Kappa Alpha's at their second last Sunday.

PHI DELTA PI. Dr. L. C. Pfister held his farewell barn dance at the Sigma Alpha Epilson Hall in Grand Park Friday evening.

Funk was the party a success, was held for Miss Dorothy Gil- bert, Cleveland, ex BeeGee coed, was held for Miss Dorothy Gil- bert, was Miss Dorothy Gilbert's elaborate farewell party to civilian life. Mr. Mauldin was present.
What's New With Campus Clubs?

BETA PI THETA
April 14 has been chosen as the date for Beta Pi Theta's annual open party for minors and majors in French. A program and refreshments are being planned for the party to be held in Studio Xi, FA Bldg. at 7 p.m.

COMMONS CLUB
The Commons Club recently elected 14 men as pledges. They are: John Beuloger, Don Halkin, Wade Chadwick, Bill Kipp, and Larson, Otto Law, Harold Martin, Ed Hagen, John Sunday, Walter Schinnow, Dean Sinemar, Don Waddele, Keith Walker, Harry Youngling.

COMITE MEDIUS
Miss Elizabeth Eckerle, intakes supervisor at the Toledo Red Cross, will discuss functions of the Red Cross at the Comite Cosmos meeting tonight. The Club will meet at 7:30 in 1931.

FTA
Mrs. Vernon Walters, of Columbus, state director of elementary education, will address members of Future Teachers of America at an important meeting of that organization Monday, April 12. Preliminary meetings will begin at 7 p.m. in the Rec Hall.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS
Industrial Arts Club will meet Thursday at 7:30 in N.1.1. Each room of the Industrial Arts Bldg. W. D. Dickerson, a representative of the Carbonubber Co., will give an illustrated talk on making abrasive products.

NEWMAN CLUB
There will be a Communion breakfast meeting of members of the Newman Club and guests, Thursday, April 11, in the parish hall. The break¬fast will be served by the altar servers of the church. Members of the club under the direction of Bob Fancher. Students may sign up on Thursday and Friday afternoon in the Well. Last Friday night members of the club attended an "April Fools" party in the Rec Hall from 9 to 12.

PHI ALPHA CHI
Due to Spring vacation, the meet¬ings of Phi Alpha Chi, accounting honor society, originally scheduled for the second and third Wednesdays, will be held instead the first and third Wednesdays of this month. Tonight at 7, officers will be nominated. Members will meet in 1931.

PRE-ENGINEERS
Pre-Engineers Club will meet to¬morrow night at 7 to discuss Mr. Crampton, a patent attorney from Toledo, who will explain patent rights, trademarks, and licensing in both most frequently used countries.

Anyone interested is invited to attend meeting.

PRESS CLUB
"Magazine Magic," a film made by the Curtis Publication Company, will be shown at the Press Club social meeting tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the Alpha Xi Delta lounge.

SCF
Miss Katherine Hayduz, Bowling Green High School history teacher, spoke on "A New Light On An Old Book" at the Student Christian Fellowship meeting last Sunday in the Rec Hall.

Miss Hayduz discussed some of the old traditional ideas of the Bible and some modern corrections.

There was a discussion period following her talk.

Reverend Harold Cavn of Bowling Green, a returned missionary from Nigeria, British West Africa, will speak to the Worship and Mission Study Group at SCF Wednesday at 7 p.m. in 1931.

Rev. Cavn is on furlough after 12 years service with the Mission Board in Africa. He will tell of his experiences in the mission field.

In the top picture Barbara Hohensee and her escort step at the wishing wall at the Commons Club dance, while Ruth Haraad and Roger Warner and Thelma Nevin and Joe Quint Jr. glide by. In the bottom picture Bill Steiner's orchestra plays for the Sigma Phi Beta Starlight Street dance, and Ben Davies and his date are shown in the inset.

KLEVER'S
Jewelry Store
New—
College Jewelry Key Chains Bracelets Keys Pins Year Guards 121 N. Main St.

Rappaport's
BOOKS
A visit to our Book Department will be a surprise. Latest in Fiction Reprints. MODERN LITERARY JUVENILES We can get any book that is printed. "Come in mid look around. You are always welcome.

"Tip-off Dance"
Heads Weekend
Sigma Alpha Epilson's "Tip-off Dance" will highlight this weekend's social activities on campus. The dance will be held Saturday night in the Men's Gym from 9 to 12.

The Combined Choral Group will present a concert Friday evening in the Auditorium. The program will be announced.

Two parties are also scheduled, "Chaslin" and "The Tawo West Will," on Friday and Saturday nights respectively. They will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. in the PA Auditorium.

Painting Exhibition
Open Until April 16
A studio Guild Exhibition of Lecia Scharfman's paintings will be displayed in the Art Bldg. From April 5 to April 16.

Included in the exhibition are the following pictures: Country House, Woman in Black Hat, Man, Ngarl, Boat Wharf, White Flow¬er, Man on Horse, Man in Boat, Horse in Mountains, Nude, Woman and Apple, Girl in Woods, Girl by Window, Still Life (apples and pitcher), House in Woods, Large Boat, and Small Boat.

Try our delicious fresh strawberry sundae deluxe 20c.

ISALYS
For Sale 1950 Plymouth with four door hard top. One owner car. Excellent condition. Contact: N.309 Women's College Office.

All-Campus Chariot Race
May 22
When you think about the coming Spring Socials remember:
TUXEDOES FOR HIRE COMPLETE SERVICE RUSSELLS'
Clothing and Cleaning
405 Broadway
Toledo MAIn 0880

PEDDLER
PUSHERS
by Uhllman's
Beach and boardwalk...town and country...clad your feet in the casual, nimble Peddle Pushers. In green and white.

ULHMAN'S SHOE STORE
128 NORTH MAIN STREET

"What's a little tap like twenty years if I can help keep the Dent's Chewing Gum, can't I?"

"When you have guests or are in a mood for the best in Food—

come to the U CLUB for Sunday Dinner"

Remember our Private Dining Room when planning your Spring Parties or Banquets. It is available by reservation...phone 4482.
The Falcons' track future looks very bright these days with the return of returning from last year is once again as a team to participate in this year's meet.

The return of for whom Coach Whitaker can mold a strong team around. Among these men are Long Zimmerman, and Samski who returned the both the 100 and 220 yd. dashes. The quarter mile points to Elmer Brenton, Sauer, Menotta, and Long as returnees.

We are the only lettermen back for the 440 and Bob Petri, the only one returning for the one mile and two mile run. Captain Bob Conroy, who was outstanding in the hurdle department for the Falcons last year, is back along with Ray Whiller.

The add department for the Falcons fill these are six men that are really starting. Paul Sackett is the only survivor to handle the defense. Jim Whitaker, who holds the record for the pole vault here, are the only lettermen back. John Medal returns to lead in the broad jump event while Humphing, King, and Weber return in the weight.

Many new prospects have been captured by the Falcons as and to phone this season. Mac has shown excellent ability in the hurdles and John Chisholm has been outstanding in the high jump.

Although the men out for the team have had very little practice to date, they have worked very hard. They all expect to be competitive very quickly. The first outdoor meet is scheduled for April 15 with Central Michigan.

The team has practice in two indoor meets this year. They ran in the NCAA meet at Michigan State, March 6, and in the Illinois Relays in Chicago, March 13.

Two BG Wrestlers Win Honors

Ray Flowers and John Kretchman, of the Bowling Green wrestling squad, each captured an NCAA title at the Junior AAU wrestling meet held in Cleveland last week.

Flower participated in the 159 class and Kretchman in the 153 lb. division.

Sheper Competes in AAU Meet

Harry Sheper, freshman from Bowling Green, competed in the 200 yard, free style at the National AAU swimming meet held at the University of Chicago last weekend.

Sheper, who was a member of the freshman swimming team this year, was an All American High school selection at Canton McKinley High School.

The veteran-predominated Falcons will be seeking to better their 1947 record of six wins out of ten. First home game of the season will be April 24 against Wright State which will be held on the University of Virginia nine, by a hop-
Roy Lee is appointed baseball assistant

Roy Lee, a Bowling Green University junior with eight years professional baseball experience, was appointed assistant coach of the Falcon baseball team by Athletic Director Harold Anderson.

Lee was an all-city first baseman for the Toledo De Vills in 1939 while a member of the Milwaukee Brewers minor league. He began immediately when the Boston Red Sox sent him to their farm club in the Middle Atlantic League. He was converted to a pitcher in 1940 when he pitched three games at the close of the 1945 season.

Bicycle News

SAE Wins Cheerleading

SAE were the inter-fraternity cheerleading tournament by amassing 127 points, barely nosing out Sigma Chi who scored 126. Sigma Chi placed third with 130 marbles and the ATO's grabbed fourth place by setting a 115 total. Individual scoring honors went to Ross Sawaker of SAE and Joe Pickleson of the Beta Theta. They both scored 25 points apiece for their respective aggregations.

Bicycles For Rent—Sales and Repairing

BOOK'S BIKE SHOP

123 West Court St. Phone 9516

OPEN EVENINGS and SUNDAYS

Standard of value in automatic heating equipment, Iron Fireman luminous flame heating will provide an abundance of care-free, dependable warmth.

Wood County Hardware

246-247 N. Main

Sports In Shorts

by Kathy Arnold

Election time is here. All members of the Women's Athletic Association should vote in the North Gym of the Women's Building tonight at 7.

Only members attending this meeting may vote for the officers. It is your duty as club members to come out and vote.

Bowling Tournament

An intramural Bowling Tournament is scheduled for this Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 7 at the bowling alley. Teams must be ready to bowl promptly at 3:30.

WAA Banquet

The 21st anniversary banquet of the Women's Athletic Association will be April 21 at the Nest.

Invitations have been sent to all members. Don't forget to mark your regions to Fis Powers at William Hall.

Physical Education Club

Results of the recent election of the Physical Education Club show Jeret Williamson as president. Other officers are Lillian Rosemarie, vice-president; and Jackie Gelb, secretary-treasurer. Good luck in your coming year.

Basketball Service Club

An all-star basketball team was chosen in the Monday-Wednesday league which met at 10.

Choice according to their playing ability are Barbara Ward, Luella Ramalli, Ross Lakey, Carmen Lawlor, Janie Haymes, Carol Letz, Audrey Brown, and Jean Rudolph.

Softball Scoops

Sign up on the softball sheets in the dorms or sorority houses if you want to play softball. April 13 is the deadline for signing up.

Games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 4.

Starting April 19

Bowling Club

The Bowling Club completed its season last Friday afternoon.

Awards will be presented to the winning teams and players at the WAA banquet.

Volleyball Tournament

In first place in the Monday-Wednesday and Tuesday-Thursday league is William Hall. They have had an undefeated season thus far and are playing hard to win the gold cup. Congratulations for your perfect record.

Volleyball Service Club

Chosen as the all-star volleyball team from the Monday-Wednesday class are 10 are James McDaniel, Lois Ryder, Carol Walsdorf, Nancy Wadler, Mary Jo Boden, Carolyn Campbell, Loretta Schwarzschild, Mary Konicki, and Marian Lang.

Drama Club

The best of luck to the Drama Club in their coming concert which is scheduled for April 15 and 16.