Approval of Honorary Degree – Dr. Howard Aldrich

No. 14-2016

WHEREAS, Dr. Howard Aldrich earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from Bowling Green State University in 1965;

WHEREAS, Dr. Aldrich earned a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Michigan in 1969;

WHEREAS, Dr. Aldrich began his academic career at Cornell University and is currently the Kenan Professor of Sociology at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill;

WHEREAS, at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, Dr. Aldrich serves as the director of the undergraduate and honors programs in Sociology;

WHEREAS, Dr. Aldrich’s research spans economic sociology, inequality, occupations and work, entrepreneurship, and evolutionary theory, including cross-national variation in entrepreneurship and variation in social networks;

WHEREAS, Dr. Aldrich has published nearly 200 articles and book chapters in the field’s top journals, including the American Journal of Sociology, American Sociological Review, and Social Forces;

WHEREAS, Dr. Aldrich has published seven books, some of which have been translated into Russian, Japanese, and Farsi;

WHEREAS, in 2000, Dr. Aldrich received the Best Book Award from the American Sociological Association Section on Organizations and the George R. Terry Award from the Academy of Management for the best management book published in 1999;

WHEREAS, Dr. Aldrich has successfully garnered research support through grants from the National Institutes of Health, National Science Foundation, and the Ford Foundation;
WHEREAS, according to Google Scholar, Dr. Aldrich’s work has been cited over 40,000 times;

WHEREAS, also an accomplished teacher, Dr. Aldrich has won awards from student groups and professional associations recognizing him for his undergraduate teaching;

WHEREAS, Dr. Aldrich received a Career Achievement Award from the Organization and Management Theory Division of the Academy of Management in 2000; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 3, 2015, the Bowling Green State University Faculty Senate Executive Committee approved the awarding of the honorary degree to Dr. Aldrich.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees, in recognition of Dr. Howard Aldrich’s nearly 50 years of contributions to research and teaching in sociology, confer upon Dr. Aldrich an honorary Doctor of Social Science degree.

Approval of Master of Science in Forensic Science

No. 15-2016

WHEREAS, at its meeting on May 3, 2013, the Bowling Green State University (BGSU) Board of Trustees authorized the President and the Vice President for Finance and Administration to negotiate agreements with the Ohio Attorney General for the construction of a Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) forensic science laboratory and investigation facility on the Bowling Green campus;

WHEREAS, the Ohio Attorney General’s Office and the Ohio BCI have indicated a need and desire to have forensic science training in Ohio;

WHEREAS, a survey of current BGSU students and BCI staff revealed a strong interest in a graduate program in forensic science;

WHEREAS, the Graduate College, the Department of Human Services (Criminal Justice Program) in the College of Health and Human Services, and the Departments of Chemistry and Biological Sciences in the College of Arts and Sciences at Bowling Green State University propose to institute a new degree program leading to a Master of Science in Forensic Science (MSFS);

WHEREAS, the rationale for this proposal is derived from contemporary and complementary issues of high levels of crime, advances in scientific methods for uncovering evidence and identifying criminal offenders;

WHEREAS, the MSFS will focus on forensic science with three major areas of specialization: Forensic Biology (FB), Forensic Chemistry (FC) and Forensic Investigations (FI) (Criminal Justice);

WHEREAS, one target group for prospective students for the MSFS includes personnel within the forensic science field who are required to develop new skills and increase professional knowledge in forensic examination and investigation, and for preparing individuals to lead crime laboratories or investigative organizations;

WHEREAS, another target population includes current undergraduate students who wish to pursue graduate study in forensic science;

WHEREAS, Graduates of the MSFS will be prepared to assume positions in both government agencies and private organizations dealing with forensic evidence;

WHEREAS, the MSFS will be administered in the office of the Graduate College and will have access to the office staff of the Graduate College and the Ohio Attorney General’s Center for the Future of Forensic Science; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 3, 2015, the Bowling Green State University Faculty Senate approved the proposal for the Master of Science in Forensic Science program.
NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees approves the proposed Master of Science in Forensic Science program.

Approval of Bachelor of Science in Allied Health

No. 16-2016

WHEREAS, the Bachelor of Science in Allied Health is a completion program for graduates of associate degrees in various allied health disciplines where there is generally no discipline-specific bachelor’s degree available;

WHEREAS, examples of such associate degrees include physical therapy assistant, health information technician, dental hygiene, medical sonography technology, occupational therapy assistant, and medical assistant;

WHEREAS, the proposed allied health degree completion program builds on prior learning and provides students with knowledge and skills needed to advance in their chosen field;

WHEREAS, program-level learning outcomes for the Bachelor of Science in Allied Health include

(1) Demonstration of written and oral communication skills required for effective healthcare practice;
(2) Demonstration of an understanding of the impacts of health disparities (e.g., addictions, poverty, mental health parity);
(3) Application of knowledge and principles of effective management in allied healthcare settings;
(4) Demonstration of the ability to conduct quantitative, qualitative, or mixed-method research involving data collection and analysis;

WHEREAS, the proposed degree program provides a convenient, flexible way for students and working professionals to earn a bachelor’s degree;

WHEREAS, a primary goal of the proposed degree program is to provide a more seamless pathway for students who have completed their associate degrees in allied health disciplines to earn their Bachelor of Science degree;

WHEREAS, individuals with associate degrees in accredited allied health programs with the appropriate prerequisites will be able to transfer to BGSU and complete the Bachelor of Science in Allied Health in as little as one year;

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 3, 2015, the Bowling Green State University Faculty Senate approved the proposal for the Bachelor of Science in Allied Health program.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees approves the proposed Bachelor of Science in Allied Health program.

Approval of the Falcon Learning Your-Way (FLY Program) Learning Community and Fee

No. 19-2015

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees considers the establishment of new learning and themed communities from time to time; and

WHEREAS, the Board considers the establishment and revision of the associated learning or themed community fee from time to time; and

WHEREAS, BGSU has earned a national reputation for providing exceptional first year experiences; and

WHEREAS, BGSU desires to create a new learning community called the FLY Program focused on providing individualized, academic support programs for students with learning differences and attention challenges; and

WHEREAS, the FLY Program will also provide academic coaches to assist students with time management skills, study strategies and mentoring; and

WHEREAS, BGSU recognizes that additional costs will be associated with delivering individualized academic support to a student choosing to enroll in this proposed learning community;
NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees approves establishment of the FLY Program Learning Community and approves establishment of a learning community fee of $2,500 per semester effective for the fall 2016 semester.

Ms. Morrison moved and Mr. Daley seconded that the above two action items from the Financial Affairs/Facility Committee be approved. The Board Secretary conducted a roll call vote with the following results: Voting “yes” – Mr. Daley, Mr. Keller, Mr. Levey, Ms. Morrison, Ms. Newlove, and Mr. Voll. The motion was approved with six affirmative votes.

Ms. Morrison reported that Ms. Sheri Stoll gave presentations on five informational items including an Affordability and Efficiency Update; the University Investment Schedule through September 30, 2015; Capital Projects Status Report through October 31, 2015; E & G Expenditure Report through September 30, 2015; and Senate Bill 6 Ratios – FY 2015 Composite Scores.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

Mr. Bailey reported that the only action item before the committee was the approval of minutes from the September 17, 2015, meeting. Discussion items on the agenda included a presentation on third-party vendor risk, a presentation of WBGU Financial Statements, a summary of fraud hotline statistics, a report on current audit findings, a correction action update, and an Audit Committee training topic.

DEVELOPMENT AND INVESTMENT COMMITTEE

Mr. Keller reported that the only action item before the committee was the approval of minutes from the September 17, 2015, meeting. Discussion items on the agenda included a review of market performance and October 31, 2015 investment schedule and a development and campaign update from Vice President Shea McGrew.

PRESIDENTIAL COMPENSATION

Mr. Levey stated that at the September meeting, the Board announced that it was conducting an evaluation of President Mazey, through a relationship we have with the Association of Governing Boards. Many members of the University community had an opportunity to meet with the consultant, Dr. Terry MacTaggart, as part of the review. This week the Board met with Dr. MacTaggart to discuss the review. The following resolution regarding the evaluation and compensation of President Mary Ellen Mazey was then presented.

Presidential Evaluation and Compensation

No. 20-2015

WHEREAS, Dr. Mary Ellen Mazey became President of Bowling Green State University on July 1, 2011;

WHEREAS, in 2011, the University and Dr. Mazey entered into a Deferred Compensation Plan and Agreement which was amended in 2014; and

WHEREAS, all meritorious staff at Bowling Green State University received a two percent raise for 2015-2016, effective September 1, 2015; and

WHEREAS, the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees wishes to recognize President Mazey’s fine performance as President during the 2014-2015 fiscal and academic year.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees approves a two percent increase to base salary, effective September 1, 2015;

NOW, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that, pursuant to Section 3(b) of the Deferred Compensation Plan and Agreement between the Board and President Mazey, there shall be a one-time, additional credit made to Dr. Mazey’s deferred compensation account in the amount of Fifty Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($50,000.00).
Mr. Levey moved and Ms. Morrison seconded that the above item be approved. The Board Secretary conducted a roll call vote with the following results: Voting “yes” – Mr. Daley, Mr. Keller, Mr. Levey, Ms. Morrison, Ms. Newlove, and Mr. Voll. The motion was approved with six affirmative votes.

REPORTS - CONSTITUENT REPRESENTATIVES

BGSU Firelands, Tom Tucker

Mr. Tucker provided an update to the Board on the 50th Anniversary of BGSU Firelands that took place in November. Some of the many activities included a Women in Science event, a formal ceremony, and a ribbon cutting. He thanked the original founders and thanked the Board of Trustees for their continued commitment to BGSU Firelands. Several events are being planned including a ribbon cutting and a community celebration.

Administrative Staff Council Representative, Jeremy Joseph

Mr. Joseph informed the Board of several recent Administrative Staff Council activities including a survey to constituents on the Tobacco Free Policy, joint brown bag sessions with Classified Staff Council, a presentation by Mr. Levey at the December meeting. Mr. Joseph thanked Human Resources for their work on the roll-out of the benefits enrollment.

Classified Staff Council Representative, Janet Garber

Ms. Garber reported that Classified Staff Council sent a survey to constituents on the proposed Tobacco Free Policy and the results were even on both sides of the issue. Ms. Garber also thanked Mr. Levey for his visit to Classified Staff Council.

Faculty Representative, Dr. Allen Rogel

Dr. Rogel thanked Mr. Levey and Ms. Newlove for attending a recent meeting. He said that the Adjunct Faculty Committee is now seated. Faculty Senate supported the proposed Tobacco Free Policy by a close margin. Dr. Rogel closed by noting examples of faculty involvement in retention including the BGSU 1910 course, mentorship, and the many program specific organizations within academic disciplines.

Graduate Student Representative, Maryam Kamran

Ms. Kamran reported that Graduate Student Senate is working on programming to better serve graduate students. A recent example is an open house at the Falcon Health Center. Ms. Kamran also notified the Board of International Education Week, mentorship guidelines, and the upcoming Interfaith Breakfast to take place on March 18, 2016.

Undergraduate Student Representative, Victor Senn

Mr. Senn informed the Board of the work of three Undergraduate Student Government leaders including the Director of Campus and Governmental Relations, Director of Outreach and the Director of Safety. Future initiatives include working and benchmarking with other universities, active shooter training, and additional outreach on the Falcon Creed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. Levey made a few brief announcements before the Board’s adjournment. He announced that the next meeting will be held on February 19, 2016. He reminded attendees that the annual Arts Extravaganza is taking place this weekend and that tonight our Falcons are playing in the MAC Championship game in Detroit.

Mr. Levey continued the tradition of “passing of the gavel” to give Trustees the opportunity to highlight accomplishments and efforts of programs and individuals at Bowling Green State University.

ADJOURNMENT

At 2:26 p.m. Ms. Morrison moved and Mr. Kelly seconded that the meeting be adjourned.
