A Cappella Will Leave Friday For Ten-Day Tour
Choir To Visit Five States
2 Concerts Planned For New York City

For ten days, the University A Cappella Choir will tour five states, southwestern Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Tennessee, New York, Texas, Arkansas, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Hampshire, and Pennsylvania.

Beginning Friday, Nov. 12, and ending Monday, Nov. 23, the choir will include two concerts in New York City, two concerts in New York City, and as an appearance in Town Hall.

The concerts, conducted by comptetitive tryouts to go on the tour, are:
1. St. John's University, Nov. 12, 8 p.m., in the Auditorium, New York City. The concert will include the University's Choral Society and the University Oratorio.
2. Roosevelt University, Nov. 13, 8 p.m., in the Auditorium, New York City. The concert will include the University's Choral Society and the University Oratorio.
3. Fordham University, Nov. 14, 8 p.m., in the Auditorium, New York City. The concert will include the University's Choral Society and the University Oratorio.
4. The University of Pennsylvania, Nov. 15, 8 p.m., in the Auditorium, New York City. The concert will include the University's Choral Society and the University Oratorio.

The A Cappella Choir is a part of the University's Music Department and is under the direction of Mr. F. T. Prou, head of the University's music department.

The choir is composed of male and female singers who are selected through a tryout process. The tryouts are open to all male and female students who are enrolled in the University.

The choir will be accompanied by a string orchestra and a woodwind ensemble.

The choir will perform a variety of choral music, including classical, contemporary, and popular pieces. The repertoire includes works by composers such as Beethoven, Mozart, and Bach, as well as songs by contemporary composers.

The choir will perform at a variety of venues, including churches, universities, and community centers. The performances will be free and open to the public.

The choir will conclude its tour on Saturday, Nov. 23, with a performance at the University's Music Department.

John W. Vandercook, news analyst, explorer, and author, will be guest speaker at the A Cappella Choir tour program tomorrow morning, Nov. 25, in the Music Department. His address is "Will The Marshall Plan Work?" No change will be made in the choir's schedule.

Mr. Vandercook comes to Bowling Green as the third member of the University's Guest Speaker Program, preceded by Dr. E. F. Smith, author of "The Unseen World," and Dr. E. F. Smith, author of "The Unseen World," and Mr. E. F. Smith, author of "The Unseen World." The program is sponsored by the University's Student Union and the University's Department of Music.

The choir will also perform at a number of public and private events, including a concert at the University's Music Department, a reception at the University's Alumni Center, and a performance at the University's College of Education.

If It’s Marriage You Want, Join The A Cappella

By Richard RoMch

"Music hath charm* to soothe every woe, to bring back hope to the heart that is broken, to sustain the soul that is overwhelmed and to give the spirit of life as never before. "

— Joseph Conrad

If it’s marriage you want, join the A Cappella. It appears as if an apology is due to the Bowling Green State University Marching Band. The Bee Gee News has failed to give them the publicity that is due to them. A story was turned in about the band, but by some unknown means it failed to show up in the print of the shop and therefore very little publicity has appeared in the Bee Gee News other than a two column byline about the band that appeared in the last week’s paper, and also a picture and story on page one of our content issue.

All students who have attended the football games this season know what an excellent band Bowling Green has this year. The shows that have been put on have been of a high quality and the band has been very commended and it should not be overlooked by the入学 of the students.

I am appealing to whoever ac- cepted the band to be sure that the band plays for the Bee Gee News at every home game this fall. In addition, it would be appreciated if they would give me some pictures and a story about the band for the Bee Gee News.

Why Did The Republicans Lose?

By John Redwood

With the results of the national election coming much debate on campus the IQU column joins the discussion by asking, "What do you believe are the reasons for the surprising Republican defeat?"

Betsy Snith, a freshman from Cuyahoga County, said, "It's my opinion that the Republican party is not ready."

Chairman Bob Hobart, whose residence is in Elyria "If that's so," he added, "was more extreme than Governor Dewey's, therefore many of the people were more familiar with his policies.

Jack Oberman, a sophomore from Columbus, believed the reason for the defeat was that the workers didn't get out and vote, while many of the laboring class did. She also said, "So many people were more familiar with Governor Dewey's policies than with those of the people who were more familiar with his policies.

State Attorney General's ruling that students could vote here if enrolled here since Nov. 14. In answer to a certain letter to the editor of last week, may I say that the point which was that I was not qualified to make any criticism of the play is invalid. I was asked to make comments on the play by Miss Pais Macer, the director. Speaking of Pat Mann, her latest release gives her a ticket to local radio and Pat was thrilled to learn that she is the winning ticket. The prize was a brand new automobile. The main purpose of intramural athletics is to assure every student the right to participate in competitive sports. This is not for the purpose of selecting superior students, but for the development of leadership ability and team spirit. Our athletic teams should likewise advance in stature and influence. This is no longer a small Ohio college. It is a growing, competitive university of between four and five thousand students. Our athletic teams should likewise advance in stature and influence.

TIME TO IMPROVE THE SATE
It is now time to begin scheduling the games for next year. While it is not advisable to attempt to book any of the nation's top teams, it is often desirable to try to get games with big name schools whose football teams are not in the top rungs of present.

The lack of seating here still makes it difficult to guarantee schools enough money to induce them to play here. The total solution, of course, lies in the erection of a stadium on the north side of the gridiron. When and if this is going to be done is beyond a deep, dark secret.

In the meantime, it certainly should be possible to drop such teams as Pitt, Miami, Harvey, and Monmouth from the schedule and pick up just a few newcomers of more renown.

NEED IN RULES CHANGE
The intramural athletic program instituted last year and adopted by the students was not a failure, but it was not a success. The program was poorly attended by the students, as it had been in the fall of 1947.

Sincere, Dugges, West Virginia, Boston University, Mon- quetta, Fordham, and Pinhouse are just a few of many possibili- ties. We might also profitably encounter a Southern Conference opponent.

The intramural athletic program instituted last year and adopted by the students was not a failure, but it was not a success. The program was poorly attended by the students, as it had been in the fall of 1947.

Sincere, Dugges, West Virginia, Boston University, Mon- quetta, Fordham, and Pinhouse are just a few of many possibili- ties. We might also profitably encounter a Southern Conference opponent.

The lack of seating here still makes it difficult to guarantee schools enough money to induce them to play here. The total solution, of course, lies in the erection of a stadium on the north side of the gridiron. When and if this is going to be done is beyond a deep, dark secret.

In the meantime, it certainly should be possible to drop such teams as Pitt, Miami, Harvey, and Monmouth from the schedule and pick up just a few newcomers of more renown.

Bowling Green scored a touchdown at the end of the first quarter and put the ball on the Bee Gee 3 yard line. First play fullback Dan Kratzer plunged for four yards and Dan randomized for 11 more. Two yard plunge by Danery Little was a bright star for the Falcons in the first quarter - the Falcons were up 7-0 with only 35 seconds gone.

Woodland and Schmidt got five yards on two plays before Min- nick throw the ball to Bob Schrucker and it was good for five yards. At the 14-0 mark, the Bee Gee fumble as he circled right end. Count it. Bee Gee on the Golden Flashes' 14-0 with 11:34 still to play in the first period.

Bill Norasingh converted and it was Schnelker who stepped over the goal line to Hob Little and Wilbur Russell with just 44 seconds left on the first half clock. The score was 14-0 to Kent State with only 11:34 still to play in the second quarter. Minnick intercepted Tuttlu's pass on double stripe for the second score. Kent started action from its 20 yard line. Kent's homecoming was sweet, but other sights combined to make the afternoon a memorable one last Saturday: a Kent football victory over the Bee Gee Ohio rating.

Vern Dunham who made a diving runback. The Falcons led 7-0 with only 35 seconds gone. Bee Gee on the Golden Flashes' 14-0 with 11:34 still to play in the first period.
