Kilgore Takes Third Place In Cincinnati

Frank Kilgore, star of the Falcons, is being named as one of the three players in the Well in the Administration Building, 6:30, at 7 p.m. with the doors opening at 6.

Although the Falcons may have captured the first major test of the season last Saturday, they were swamped by the University of Detroit, 114-42.

This winter he will compete in a series of invitational meets and tournaments.

While pacing the Falcon frosh, Kilgore received a trophy for his efforts in leading the Falcon frosh. He has been chosen as an All-American by the Associated Press, indicating the high rating that is given to him by the coaching fraternity. The Falcon frosh has averaged more than 70 points per game and has been named as an All-American by the Associated Press. He has also been named as an All-American by the Associated Press.
