Notice having been given in accordance with the Board of Trustees Bylaws, the following members met in the President’s Suite, Room 310 of the Bowen-Thompson Student Union on the Bowling Green campus, for an Executive Session: Daniel Keller, Chair; Stephen Daley, Marilyn Eislele, Drew Forhan, Linda Forte, Ava Harter, Betty Montgomery, Bruce Nyberg, David O’Brien, Geoffrey Radbill, and Richard Ross.

Mr. Keller called the meeting to order at 3:02 p.m. A quorum was noted. Mr. Keller made a motion – pursuant to the provisions of the Ohio Open Meetings Act, Ohio Revised Code section 121.22 – to enter into executive session to discuss matters concerning collective bargaining, employment, and evaluation of public employees. Ross seconded. Roll call was taken and the motion was approved.

At the conclusion of the executive session, Mr. Keller reconvened the meeting and announced that the Board met in executive session, at which no action was taken. Roll call was taken.

Session adjourned at 5:45 p.m.

The Board Secretary conducted a roll call vote with the following results: Voting “yes” – Mr. Daley, Ms. Eisele, Mr. Forhan, Ms. Harter, Mr. Keller, Ms. Montgomery, Mr. O’Brien, and Dr. Ross. The motion was approved with eight affirmative votes.

Approval of Distinguished Research Professor – Dr. Albert W. Dzur

No. 27-2019

Ms. Eisele moved and Ms. Montgomery seconded that:

WHEREAS, Dr. Albert W. Dzur earned a bachelor’s degree in political science from the University of California, Santa Barbara, in 1988; a master of arts in political science in 1993 and a Ph.D. in political science in 1997, each from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill;

WHEREAS, Dr. Dzur joined the faculty at Bowling Green State University (BGSU) in 2002 as an assistant professor of political science;

WHEREAS, Dr. Dzur was promoted to associate professor in 2006 and to professor in 2012;

WHEREAS, since 2009, Dr. Dzur has held a joint appointment in the Departments of Philosophy and Political Science;

WHEREAS, Dr. Dzur is a political philosopher whose work addresses deliberative (or participatory) democracy, a strategy for bringing together both experts and ordinary citizens to develop public policy;

WHEREAS, his application of participatory democracy is evident across multiple domains, such as criminal justice, bioethics, and health care, and in numerous national contexts (e.g., the United States, Europe, and Australia);

WHEREAS, according to external reviewer, Professor Simone Chambers at the University of California-Irvine, Dr. Dzur is “one of the top three political philosophers working on democratic participation in the USA today;”

WHEREAS, nominators and external reviewers alike praise Dr. Dzur’s publication record, which includes three books published by university presses in the past three years, two additional books, and 30 journal articles and book chapters that appear in leading political science and philosophy outlets;

WHEREAS, external reviewer, Peter Levine, of Tufts University, notes Dr. Dzur as “one of the most significant political theorists working today;”

WHEREAS, in 2017, he received the Brown Democracy Medal from Penn State’s McCourtney Institute for Democracy;

WHEREAS, in 2018, the Ohio House of Representatives awarded him a research commendation for his contributions to democratic theory and practice;

WHEREAS, signaling the wide reach of his scholarship to an international audience, Dr. Dzur has held visiting scholar positions at the University of Edinburgh in Scotland and the University of Canberra in Australia;
