Dr. Prout Says Students Losing Public's Confidence
by BOB SMITH
Many of the students on the various state university campuses in Ohio are losing in a great downfall of public confidence in what is going on in these institutions, says Fred J. Prout, before Student Senate meeting Monday night.

This lack of confidence is developing into a feeling of anti-statism in the state legislature toward the state universities which is becoming a decided hindrance to those in the institutions in obtaining the funds that are necessary for the operation of the present semester, the President said.

At the last session of the state legislature funds were cut 2 per cent for the schools receiving state assistance so that the students are cut for a threatened 10 per cent reduction for the state universities.

Senate Enlarges Car Committee
by JOHN OYER
Senator appointed four students to committee Monday night. Ralph Varn to work on the Car Committee in conjunction with Dr. Frank J. Prout, to supply Dean Arch Comlin, Mrs. Josie Jurr and the other two student members.

Senators Den Thomsen, Ralph Varn and Bill Bishop were all signed to the determination of complaints about the intramural situation. The action will be under Sanders Cooper, director of Physical Education.

The addition of Dr. Prout and Varn to the car committee to the result of student members' request to Senate.

They felt that closer cooperation might be achieved because the President and the vice-president were students already in the administration to now receive the confidence of the taxpayers.

"The days for rash and hasty approach for our state universities is probably over," he said. "therefore, we must get from now on.

Students must keep in mind the question of "What can we do to maintain what we have got for the present trend of what is going to happen."

"Juniors and seniors have the problem but it is not the only one."

Local Pi Theta Group Receives D.U. Charter by CHUCK GABRIEL
Formal installation of Pi Theta Group as a charter member of Delta Upsilon was held in the Nest Saturday, Nov. 26. For-seven active members of the local Pi Theta received the gold DU international fraternity pin during the ritual conducted Saturday morning.

At 6:30 Saturday the new DU's held their installation banquet at the Commons for members and guests, one representative from each fraternity on campus, and a distinguished guest.

Four major speakers for the evening were introduced by the toastmaster, Willis Street, Headmaster, M. U. W. A. Valley Day School. They were Dr. Frank J. Prout, representing the University; Edward K. Murphy, president of the local chapter of Delta Upsilon; Homer G. Nicholas, national president of Delta Upsilon; and George A. Baldwin, patent attorney.

It is hard for us to believe that the townpeople of Bowling Green are narrow-minded enough to actually not patronize a bowling alley. If there were to be an hour left out for them we would have had them cut out. This is one of the reasons Marvin Movig, our bowler of the Bowling Green bowling team, gave the other day despite interviews. Movement toward this end last week when asked why local boosters would not cut green, he carried the field. "Well, the other two teams. It was just something so that we can use standings and see which sound logical but the reason, no, it is not, as we believe that the reason can be reasoning.\\n
In a way, the BGSU has proven that bowling Green is like this. We believe that they are American citizens thinking in a democratic way and actually believing that all men are created equal. If they are not, then we hope that they will realize that they may be suffering from the obstacle in the road to better understanding between all men.

Let's be Thankful .

Thousands of people in this country are not going to enjoy Thanksgiving this year. The reason for this is that these thousands will not have enough to eat. This is a true story so fantastic to some readers because they have never known what it is like to be hungry or not to be able to enjoy themselves on this traditional day of the full table.

This year's issue of Look magazine tells the story of the dependable improvements in the life of the boy who lived in a one-story frame building, the size of most modern homes, built by his father and his mother. It is the life of most of the people who do not have freedom from want.

My final quarrel with the Division is that the government is supposed to thrive, this entire idea appears preposterous.

In my opinion a great injustice is being forced upon the non-fraternity men who comprise approximately one-half of the new students. It is my concern that what is being done to the fraternity men is not being done to the non-fraternity men. I am referring to the situation in which the new students are being initiated to the Sigma and the Beta Sigma and the Beta Sigma and the Alpha Xi Delta. The two IMW men's dorms that were thought that at last the discriminating effort to create interest in the fraternity was over. But it has not yet been too late. We look forward to new leaders who are different than preceding ones, it being forced upon the non-fraternity men, it being forced upon the non-fraternity men, it being forced upon the non-fraternity men.

East is East and Mid-West Mid-West and it's time the twin met.
You can't just take an easterner, or him down Ohio and say, "With this move the East and Mid-West have been brought together." Individuals are not representative of the areas, and any sort of department location; Madison and Pittsburgh, the industrial heart of the United States. B-BAGU's arts department is now under the control of the same artistic wiz. It calls for the uniting of two academic institutions; Brown University in the little heart of Puri- tanism, and BGSU could give to the north hero, and BGSU could give to the Mid-West would be one. They, together, could be called exotics of this exotic midwestern area.

SAMPLE BUILDING

Under Construction

The University's Central Physical Plant dormitory, first of its kind in the state of Ohio, is now under construction north of Johnston hospital at an estimated cost of $5,000,000. This building is expected to be completed in February and will house the 120 students and a supervisor.

The purpose of the Clinic is to pro- vide children's physical retests, rec- ontructions for entering public grade schools. They are now living in a city.

Emphasising that many con- tractions may be expected and eventually may follow industr)'s work policy for production and difficulties, Professor Davies considered the pension bandwagon and find out whether a pension will be needed by employees. His sugges- tion is that the board's sugges- tion is that a firm simply could not afford the same type of plan may find themselves without the means to provide long-term benefits. Professor Davies states that no pension plan without thorough study of all of its ramifications.

One might prefer such a frame to be sure that a pension program plan cannot go to jump on the pension bandwagon and feel that in periods of decline wages lowered and unemployment most appeared to agree on possible coverage. The board's suggestion is that a pension program which does not amount to compulsory saving - stone to labor-management negotiation.

New Union Plans Not Available
Statutes of the plans for the Bowing Green Student Union are not available at this time. The minutes submitted the first draft of the plans last week but the plans will have to be revised because they covered too large an area. It is planned that the Union be built in three units. Each unit will be built separately and the next unit added to it. In this way the Union construction can start in the near future instead of waiting until the entire amount of money is available.

SEVENTEEN SENIORS played their final football season for the Orange and Brown last Saturday. Ten of the starting 11 positions were filled by men who will be absent when the victory column is counted next fall.

Heading the impressive list is Capt. Jack Woodland, who will be remembered as one of the greatest yardage spotters in BG annals. The line will be hit heavily by graduation, Edn Brothers, Bob Morgan, Dan Kowal, Ernie Raber, Pete Schmidt, Paul Moey, Jim Smithy, and Paul Lees, who will be remembered as one of the greatest kick-off specialists of BG history.
