4-4-1988

Monitor Newsletter April 04, 1988

Bowling Green State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/monitor

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/monitor/915

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the University Publications at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Monitor by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.
Orientation discusses PERS, social security

At all University employees are the functions of the Federal Employees Retirement System (PERS) are included to explain the program, and how the plans work. All will be from the Social Security administration April 17.

Contact the officer of the Personnel Office for more information.

CSC prepares to conduct scholarship drive

Clarrified Staff Council's Scholarship Committee will be conducting a fundraiser during the month of April in order to aid in the Scholarship Fund.

Contact Annmarie Kruppa at 313 Library Building.

Insurance available

The Alliance Indemnity Insurance Company, an employer who is interested in purchasing liability protection. The purchase insurance in September can take advantage of the office. The plan is $47.50 for coverage from March 10 to May 31.

Contact Dorothy Halpren at 313 Library Building.

Monday, March 28

East Green Room, 3 p.m., Tapestry of the Imagination; Sponsored by the English Department, the lecture features a conversation between Richard Bausch and Mark Zavala. Masters in the Mix, 7:30 p.m., Public Lecture by George J. Williams, Department of Romance Languages.

WBGU-TV Program, "Art: Fact, fiction, and fantasy with music from Barenboim, 5:30 and 11 p.m.

CSC Volunteers: "313 Library Building."

Tuesday, March 29

Gish Hall, 7:30 p.m., "The Great British Musical Theatre" by Larry Marcum, Director of Music Theatre, Bowling Green State University.

Wednesday, March 30

Spiegel, "Classical Aspects of Film Theatre Transportation," to Dr. Mary McDonald of West Liberty University, "The Life Sciences." Sponsored by biological sciences.

Thursday, March 31

Faculty/staff meetings

The following faculty meetings are available:

Business Education: Assistant professor of business education.

Science: Instructor of computer science.

English: Instructor of English.

New Student Orientation: Assistant professor of international student services.

Social Work: Instructor of social work.

Wednesday, March 30

CSC Volunteers: "313 Library Building."
News flash: Friends banquet to feature Edna Buchanan

A Judy Press award-winning reporter will be the speaker at the annual spring banquet of the Friends of the University Bookstore on April 11. Edna Buchanan, known nationally for coverage of the dinner to be held at the Ahrens Banquet Center at 6 p.m. on April 11, will present the Judy Press Award for general reporting. Buchanan will talk about writing and working professionally.

In her memoir, The Great Zee's Famous Stories, Buchanan, who has written for the Miami Herald and other newspapers, tells of her ancestry and her wealth of experiences. She has lived in Oklahoma and Texas and has covered news in more than 30 states. The banquet will feature a silent auction and a drawing for a diamond necklace. Tickets are $30 for Friends and $40 for non-Friends. For information, call 372-2851.

Buchanan captures newspaper readers with memorable opening lines to her stories, and her moving stories have captured the hearts of readers.

International renowned French Canadian author Madeleine Mathieu will do a reading April 7. The event is sponsored by the Friends of the University Libraries and will be held in the fourth annual spring presentation from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Maritime Museum at Haven, Miaml. The event is free.

Mathieu will read from her latest novel, "The Last Gasp," which was published in 1976. Mathieu has been a French author for 20 years and has written many novels and short stories. She was born in France and has lived in a number of countries.

The event is free and open to the public.

Faculty/staff recognitions

Donald W. Wilson, economics; and Stephen K. White, environmental science, have been appointed to the editorial board for the Journal of Agricultural and Rural Economics.

Marjory Shostak, music composition, will be the guest soloist at the University Community Choral Society's spring concert April 23 at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Department of Music.

The event is free and open to the public.

Faculty/staff presentations

Mark Kelly, social work, will give a presentation on "Diversity in the Social Work Profession" at the University of Texas at Austin on April 15.

Faculty/staff grants

James R. Gilmour, social work, received a grant from the American Psychological Association to support a project on "AIDS and HIV: The Family's Experience." The grant will be used to support research on the impact of AIDS on families.

Michael Moore, architecture, has been awarded a grant from the American Institute for Architectural Research to support a project on "The Architecture of the American West." The grant will be used to support research on the architecture of the American West.

Faculty/staff recognitions

Donald W. Wilson, economics; and Stephen K. White, environmental science, have been appointed to the editorial board for the Journal of Agricultural and Rural Economics.

Marjory Shostak, music composition, will be the guest soloist at the University Community Choral Society's spring concert April 23 at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Department of Music.

The event is free and open to the public.

Faculty/staff presentations

Mark Kelly, social work, will give a presentation on "Diversity in the Social Work Profession" at the University of Texas at Austin on April 15.

Faculty/staff grants

James R. Gilmour, social work, received a grant from the American Psychological Association to support a project on "AIDS and HIV: The Family's Experience." The grant will be used to support research on the impact of AIDS on families.

Michael Moore, architecture, has been awarded a grant from the American Institute for Architectural Research to support a project on "The Architecture of the American West." The grant will be used to support research on the architecture of the American West.

Faculty/staff recognitions

Donald W. Wilson, economics; and Stephen K. White, environmental science, have been appointed to the editorial board for the Journal of Agricultural and Rural Economics.

Marjory Shostak, music composition, will be the guest soloist at the University Community Choral Society's spring concert April 23 at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Department of Music.

The event is free and open to the public.

Faculty/staff presentations

Mark Kelly, social work, will give a presentation on "Diversity in the Social Work Profession" at the University of Texas at Austin on April 15.
News flash: Friends banquet to feature Edna Buchanan

A Pulitzer Prize winning reporter will be the speaker at the annual spring banquet of the Friends of the University Library on April 15. Pat Schroeder, a native of Lima and U.S. Representative for Colorado, will attend.

Pat Schroeder, now a congresswoman, was a six-term mayor of Springfield, Colorado, a position she held from 1972 and has been elected to six terms. Schroeder, who was chosen for her congressional delegation, as well as the first woman to serve in the House, has served in the House leadership as a Democrat, who since 1979.

Pioneers of oral history movement to speak April 7

The Northwest Oral History Association (NWPHA) is proud to announce a presentation by the Northwest Oral History Association (NWPHA) on April 7. The conference will also feature a presentation by the National Oral History Association (NOHA).

Buchanan captures newspaper readers with memorable opening lines in her stories about the region. The book is a collection of her best writing that has been featured in various newspapers and magazines.

Buchanan is a long-time resident of Bowling Green, where she worked as a reporter for The Oregonian. Her column appearing in The Oregonian, which focuses on local and agricultural issues, has been featured on various radio and television programs.

Faculty/staff recognitions

Donald W. Wilcox, owner of the University Press of Florida, has been appointed to the editorial board of the Journal of American History for the 2022-23 academic year.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, professor of history at the University of South Florida, has been appointed to the editorial board of the Journal of American History for the 2022-23 academic year.

Thomas J. Hoving, Ph.D., is a professor of history at the University of South Florida. His book, "The Power of Place," was featured in the Journal of American History on January 16.

Faculty/staff presentations

Steven Russell, special educator, presented to faculty and staff on "The Power of Place." The presentation was held on campus at the University of South Florida.

Mark Kelly, special educator, presented to faculty and staff on "The Power of Place." The presentation was held on campus at the University of South Florida.

Andrew M. Glass, mathematics and statistics professor at the University of South Florida, presented "The Power of Place." The presentation was held on campus at the University of South Florida.

Charles W. Mathes, mathematics and statistics professor, presented "The Power of Place." The presentation was held on campus at the University of South Florida.

Faculty/staff grants

Vanya Carter, psychology professor, presented "The Power of Place." The presentation was held on campus at the University of South Florida.

Michael Rogers, psychology professor, presented "The Power of Place." The presentation was held on campus at the University of South Florida.

Faculty/staff grants

Vanya Carter, psychology professor, presented "The Power of Place." The presentation was held on campus at the University of South Florida.

Michael Rogers, psychology professor, presented "The Power of Place." The presentation was held on campus at the University of South Florida.

Departments should review guidelines

All academic departments are being asked to review their curriculum guidelines for possible corrections. This is part of an ongoing review process to ensure that the guidelines are up-to-date and accurate.

The guidelines are intended to provide a framework for faculty and administrators to ensure that students are prepared for the workforce.

The guidelines are intended to provide a framework for faculty and administrators to ensure that students are prepared for the workforce.

The guidelines are intended to provide a framework for faculty and administrators to ensure that students are prepared for the workforce.

 travels the country promoting her book and speaking in various venues.

The Madrid Troupe to perform in Lima at the University Union on April 7. The Madrid Troupe is a professional theater company based in Lima.

The Madrid Troupe to perform in Lima at the University Union on April 7. The Madrid Troupe is a professional theater company based in Lima.

The Madrid Troupe to perform in Lima at the University Union on April 7. The Madrid Troupe is a professional theater company based in Lima.