1-18-1950

Bee Gee News January 18, 1950

Bowling Green State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/bg-news

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/bg-news/919

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Publications at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in BG News (Student Newspaper) by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.
Orchestra Presents Program Sunday

The Indianapolis Symphony, directed by Fabien Sevitzky, will give a program Sunday evening at 8:15.

This orchestra, fourth in a regularly scheduled eight-program series, was founded during the fall of 1944 for the purpose of entertaining unemployed musicians.

In 1947, the Symphony's first director, Mr. Sevitzky, was a guest conductor. The direction of the orchestra was as highly praised that the entire musical world was assured a promising career on a professional basis, with Sevitzky as permanent conductor. The Indianapolis Symphony series has become a major orchestra, giving concerts all over the country.

Tickets may be bought at the Biggins Music Shoppe, Centre Drug Store, or the University Ticket Office.

Young Scholar Gives Student Perfect Squash

You never know how a conversation at the Biggins Music Shoppe can lead to a BGSU (elementary school) student student "practicing his best girl!"quired a mere smile with the theme: "Per- fect Squash.""If he is in the hall- room? "What?" he asked thinking he had been caught and pressed to know.

"To the hall-room," she repeated, "don't you know?" He kept up and walked to the Ad Club.

Bee Ge Opera Dancers Selected

Selection of dancers for the chorus of "The Barber of Seville" has been completed by Mrs. John Friedlander, who is in charge of choreography. The Bee Gees have completed the selection of all the leads.

The dancers are Patricia Carden, Kay Kreasler, Patricia McKeigan, J. Ann Miller, Brenda Morris, Bev Wasko, Bonnita Naughton, Barbara Vent, Elaine Wigle, Ed Banta, Pat onstage and others.

Plans Underway For Faculty Show

A surprise ending will be in store for the audience when "Oily Adams," the second annual faculty show is presented on Feb. 9, 10 and 11 in the Administration building.

The script for the show was written by David Davis and Dr. B. Lynn Hitehones. Music was written by Dr. Hitehones.

First rehearsed was Friday, Feb. 4, the earrings depicting both Ross Beno of the art dept., Mrs. Lee J. Hadlin of the journalism dept., Mrs. Davis, the author of the chorus, was Miss Terry Jackson, Miss Janet Barbor, and Raymond Voger—all of the speech dept., Mrs. James Wright, Jim Linklarber, Miss Jesse Brode, and Howard Kane of the business administration dept.

There will be a dancing chorus, an orchestra, and a simple chorus. Miss Jade Brode is director and Miss Mary Anthony is the chorister director. The pit orchestra will be made up of members of the music dept. Hatty Shackel of the art dept. is designing the sets.

Fighting Falcons Get Bird

At the end of the season, the Student Senate will choose the new "man sized" mascot with the goal of introducing it March 7.

Freddy Falcon, the mysterious bird, is pictured flapping his wings on the cover of the April issue of the Howling Green.

Assembly Scheduled Friday For OKD Tap Day Ceremony

Managing Editor of Toledo Blade To Speak Here

Paul A. Schrader, managing editor of the Toledo Blade, will speak at the dinner meeting of the North western Ohio Newspaper Association which is meeting here next Thursday, Feb. 9. Mr. Schrader, hailing originally from Europe, will use for his topic, the "European Newspaper."

The association, made up of weekly newspapers, will hold for the first time a newspaper show in the Blade lobby. The show will consist of a display of all newspapers entered by members for judging. A demonstration of newspaper photography, together with roundtable discussions by the judging panel. The judges for the display are members of the journalism faculty.

Sorority Will Occupy Former Urschel Home

Sigma Rho Tau sorority will occupy the Urschel home next fall. It was announced today by Frank E. Frost. The sorority will vacate their house on Niles St. at that time.

The Urschel home is one of two buildings promised to the Urschel family to be vacated by them in the house while the rest of the Urschels in Florida.

In Frost's statement that the new men's dorm to be occupied by Sigma Rho Tau sorority will be ready for occupancy Feb. 1.

Sophomore Notice

Musical Night class will meet at 7 tonight in 103A to complete plans for the class party to be held Friday night in the Next."

"Monitor's Starts Student Section

The Christian Science Monitor will begin January 16, the first issue of the Monitor, which will be published weekly, will provide young people with an opportunity to read in a periodical on a professional basis.

The Monitor desires feature articles that would interest high school or college students and younger workers. Such as the jobs and people who seek them will be selected by the student papers that the entire student body or college opinions on current movies, the trend of television, the place of young voters and future voters in the political world, hobbies, sports, unusual vacation experiences, the interesting ideas, and decorating ideas.

Also included in the list is any topic that particularly interests the paper's contributor. There are also deadlines for the snail mail to the Group will be paid 10 cents per story.

The first 20 submissions will be accepted and paid for.

The follows plan will be completed next semester.

The Monitor's first issue will be mailed out to all the freshmen of all colleges and universities.

Students Fined For Violations

Larry Klinker pleaded not guilty to the charge of the parking in the parking area of the Ad Club.

He was fined $1 on the charge of smoking in the Ad Club in the administration building.

The new "man sized" mascot with the goal of introducing it March 7.

Freddy Falcon, the mysterious bird, is pictured flapping his wings on the cover of the April issue of the Howling Green.

Fighting Falcons Get Bird

At the end of the season, the Student Senate will choose the new "man sized" mascot with the goal of introducing it March 7.

Freddy Falcon, the mysterious bird, is pictured flapping his wings on the cover of the April issue of the Howling Green.

Assembly Scheduled Friday For OKD Tap Day Ceremony

Managing Editor of Toledo Blade To Speak Here

Paul A. Schrader, managing editor of the Toledo Blade, will speak at the dinner meeting of the North western Ohio Newspaper Association which is meeting here next Thursday, Feb. 9. Mr. Schrader, hailing originally from Europe, will use for his topic, the "European Newspaper."

The association, made up of weekly newspapers, will hold for the first time a newspaper show in the Blade lobby. The show will consist of a display of all newspapers entered by members for judging. A demonstration of newspaper photography, together with roundtable discussions by the judging panel. The judges for the display are members of the journalism faculty.

Sorority Will Occupy Former Urschel Home

Sigma Rho Tau sorority will occupy the Urschel home next fall. It was announced today by Frank E. Frost. The sorority will vacate their house on Niles St. at that time.

The Urschel home is one of two buildings promised to the Urschel family to be vacated by them in the house while the rest of the Urschels in Florida.

In Frost's statement that the new men's dorm to be occupied by Sigma Rho Tau sorority will be ready for occupancy Feb. 1.

Sophomore Notice

Musical Night class will meet at 7 tonight in 103A to complete plans for the class party to be held Friday night in the Next."

"Monitor's Starts Student Section

The Christian Science Monitor will begin January 16, the first issue of the Monitor, which will be published weekly, will provide young people with an opportunity to read in a periodical on a professional basis.

The Monitor desires feature articles that would interest high school or college students and younger workers. Such as the jobs and people who seek them will be selected by the student papers that the entire student body or college opinions on current movies, the trend of television, the place of young voters and future voters in the political world, hobbies, sports, unusual vacation experiences, the interesting ideas, and decorating ideas.

Also included in the list is any topic that particularly interests the paper's contributor. There are also deadlines for the snail mail to the Group will be paid 10 cents per story.

The first 20 submissions will be accepted and paid for.

The follows plan will be completed next semester.

The Monitor's first issue will be mailed out to all the freshmen of all colleges and universities.

Students Fined For Violations

Larry Klinker pleaded not guilty to the charge of the parking in the parking area of the Ad Club.

He was fined $1 on the charge of smoking in the Ad Club in the administration building.

The new "man sized" mascot with the goal of introducing it March 7.

Freddy Falcon, the mysterious bird, is pictured flapping his wings on the cover of the April issue of the Howling Green.

Fighting Falcons Get Bird

At the end of the season, the Student Senate will choose the new "man sized" mascot with the goal of introducing it March 7.

Freddy Falcon, the mysterious bird, is pictured flapping his wings on the cover of the April issue of the Howling Green.

Assembly Scheduled Friday For OKD Tap Day Ceremony

Managing Editor of Toledo Blade To Speak Here

Paul A. Schrader, managing editor of the Toledo Blade, will speak at the dinner meeting of the North western Ohio Newspaper Association which is meeting here next Thursday, Feb. 9. Mr. Schrader, hailing originally from Europe, will use for his topic, the "European Newspaper."

The association, made up of weekly newspapers, will hold for the first time a newspaper show in the Blade lobby. The show will consist of a display of all newspapers entered by members for judging. A demonstration of newspaper photography, together with roundtable discussions by the judging panel. The judges for the display are members of the journalism faculty.

Sorority Will Occupy Former Urschel Home

Sigma Rho Tau sorority will occupy the Urschel home next fall. It was announced today by Frank E. Frost. The sorority will vacate their house on Niles St. at that time.

The Urschel home is one of two buildings promised to the Urschel family to be vacated by them in the house while the rest of the Urschels in Florida.

In Frost's statement that the new men's dorm to be occupied by Sigma Rho Tau sorority will be ready for occupancy Feb. 1.

Sophomore Notice

Musical Night class will meet at 7 tonight in 103A to complete plans for the class party to be held Friday night in the Next."

"Monitor's Starts Student Section

The Christian Science Monitor will begin January 16, the first issue of the Monitor, which will be published weekly, will provide young people with an opportunity to read in a periodical on a professional basis.

The Monitor desires feature articles that would interest high school or college students and younger workers. Such as the jobs and people who seek them will be selected by the student papers that the entire student body or college opinions on current movies, the trend of television, the place of young voters and future voters in the political world, hobbies, sports, unusual vacation experiences, the interesting ideas, and decorating ideas.

Also included in the list is any topic that particularly interests the paper's contributor. There are also deadlines for the snail mail to the Group will be paid 10 cents per story.

The first 20 submissions will be accepted and paid for.

The follows plan will be completed next semester.

The Monitor's first issue will be mailed out to all the freshmen of all colleges and universities.

Students Fined For Violations

Larry Klinker pleaded not guilty to the charge of the parking in the parking area of the Ad Club.

He was fined $1 on the charge of smoking in the Ad Club in the administration building.

The new "man sized" mascot with the goal of introducing it March 7.

Freddy Falcon, the mysterious bird, is pictured flapping his wings on the cover of the April issue of the Howling Green.

Fighting Falcons Get Bird

At the end of the season, the Student Senate will choose the new "man sized" mascot with the goal of introducing it March 7.

Freddy Falcon, the mysterious bird, is pictured flapping his wings on the cover of the April issue of the Howling Green.
Let's Face It...

In this issue of the paper appears a letter from Maurice Rees- enoting that the morning newspaper is failing to get him the same excitement, interest, and enthusiasm as it once did. This is not a new phenomenon; it has been occurring for some time now. We shall not attempt to decide whether Mr. Rosenthal is right or wrong in his views but present one aspect of this issue.

The trustees of this university along with administrative officials decided last year that women were not to ride on the bus this year except for special occasions. The rules were put into effect last fall and have been in force ever since. This is the first year these rules have been in effect, and although some may say that the students have been reacting negatively to this change, we should not condemn them for it entirely.

We have a situation with which we must learn to live and by being more patient, we may be able to change the way things are. The changes we see in our lives can be considered as an experiment, and we should not be surprised if we do not get what we want. The changes in the rules are a reflection of our society, and we should not be surprised if they are not always positive. If we can learn to adapt to these changes, we may find positive outcomes.

We must have positive action to better our recreation facilities, but we also need negative action to change our society. What we mean by positive action is the Campus Headliners band at the Armory each weekend and sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. We hope those who have been affected by this change are not surprised if they do not get what they want.

A committee was appointed by Student Senate to investigate siêucil, and it is reported that the new group on Nov. 2. This led to the joy of the Campus Headliners and we believe this group will thrive.

Some modifications have been made in the car rules this year and we believe those who are responsible in the future will not be surprised if they do not get what they want.

This is not a personal attack on Mr. Rosenthal because he is not alone in his thinking but we hope that we have shown to this point that positive action is what is needed in all situations. Unless we have some constructive thinking and positive action we are hurt no one but ourselves.

Chair Gets Prominence...

Success of an athletic team, particularly of a basketball team, depends upon the quality of its coaching. The coaching attracts interest in the sport, can readily boost a university into national prominence.

Evidence of this fact certainly has been apparent in Bowling Green State University. The basketball team has been successful in recent years.

We do our best to Dr. Paul Kennedy and his group of assistant coaches who have returned to Bowling Green to take over the reins. The team, which has been consistent in its performance, is expected to continue to perform well and good; those who don't—

On the editorial board,...
forms of fascination

The Delta Gamma's were really back at the party they had with the Kappa Sigma's on Jan. 13. Two guests were eaten, oreos, and served potato chips in glasses with coke in soup bowls. All of the furniture was turned around and a roulette wheel was presented for entertainment.

An informal house party was held at the Epsilon Gamma Delta house Saturday evening. Jan. 1, the "Steele Ball" was the theme of the party. The Sigma Phi Eta's had a "Shipwreck Party" with the Sigma Nu's on Dec. 8. A hula was done "on name." They also entertained the Sigma's for their traditional hula night, honoring the Tu's national day.

The Fine Arts Ball was really hounding this weekend, with two Fraternity closed dances; the Tau Eta Chi's held one on Saturday night in honor of their graduating seniors, while the Sigma Pi's held one for their active chapter members on Sunday morning. After "publication" the two active chapters entertained the old actives at the Sigma Pi Dinner Club in Toledo with a banquet. Sam Ashton of Canton, O., was awarded the pin for being outstanding pledge of the class. Others included were: Forest Baker, Charles Caud, Rod Grubner, Carla Czert, Doni Glory, Jim Flinnith, Dick Hay, Norm Hiroko, Al Jay, Pete Jones, Larry Keeney, Larry Kinzer, Bill Koster, Jerry Lantz, John McIntire, Joe Marnett, John Saye, Lou Schubert, Don Sundeberg, John Stinner, George Tancre, Bill Waskiewicz, and Lofar Wood.

Guests: The SIGMA PHI ETA TAU's held an encore shower for their homecoming Mrs. E. Love, immediately following their home party on Dec. 28. Mrs. Love is their new sponsor. A pin was given in honor of Paton Stephens, District Governor of Delta Phi Epsilon on Tuesday, Jan. 16. Mrs. Stephens made her annual visit to their chapter last week.

CONVENTION TIME: Alton Fisher and Alan Cohen were delegates to the 9th National Convention of the American Contract Bridge League, heiped organize a similar club at the University of Colorado a few years ago. He came to Bowling Green last September as instructor in Geology.

Gala: Heidelberg is well known on campus as a teacher of contract bridge. They will answer any questions and accept reservations for the meeting this Friday night. Mrs. Heidelberg — 12561, Mr. Cohen — 8844.

Banquet Scheduled For Pre-Med Students

The 2nd annual All-Ohio Pre-medical Conference and Banquet will be held Sunday, Feb. 15, in Columbus, O. All pre-medical students and faculty are invited to attend.

Camels for Mildness!

Batteries, Tires and Accessories

Get your anti-freeze here
Zeron and Zexol, the best that money can buy . . .

Call Arlen Lebeau, your automotive expert with Service on Pat Harris Morning.

Monty's Beauty Salon
131 W Wooster
Phone 5611

Barbara Tomey

PERMANENTS...
Complete
Machine . . . . . $2.00 up
Machineless . . . . . $5.00 up
Cold Waves . . . . . $3.00 up
Superior . . . . . $10.00 up
Remote Control . . . . . $6.00 up
Shampoo and Set . . . . . $5.00 up

FOR THAT SNACK
INSIST ON
Boiled Peanuts
Bar-B-Que Chicken
Potato Chips

Arlrich Service
Phone 5601
435 East Wooster St.

Boothworts Ball Tops Pre-Final Weekend

"Bookworm Ball," sponsored by the Alpha Gamma Delta, will feature an array of poetry, books, globes, and bookworms Saturday night in the Women's Gym from 9 to 12. Music is presented by Verne Walters and his orchestra.

Anne Applegate is chairman of the date's and Loretta Karwina holds the decoration committee.

The Promenade's Square Dance Club has scheduled an all-campus square dance in the Women's Gym for Friday night. Loretta Karwina will be presided over in the Theatre. All guests are invited to attend this meeting.

Mr. Coach, who is a member of the American Contract Bridge League, helped organize a similar club at the University of Colorado a few years ago. He came to Bowling Green last September as instructor in Geology.

Gala: Heidelberg is well known on campus as a teacher of contract bridge. They will answer any questions and accept reservations for the meeting this Friday night. Mrs. Heidelberg — 12561, Mr. Cohen — 8844.

Barry, Cames for Mildness!

"My cigarette? Cames, of course!"

An attack of laryngitis forced Mr. Hume to cancel theooten event here last Thursday. A tentative replacement date has been set for early March.

The program will feature the following which interpretations have brought fame to the traveling troubador.

"I'm not a smoker, but I am a reader!"
tanks faced rugged opponent Saturday In Entertaining MSC Wrestlers See Action With Brown

Grapplers Split Pair Of Matches

By JERRY HENDERSON

Bowling Green's freshmen will attempt to remain on the winning side of the scoreboard this week as they meet two rough opponents in Toledo University, 8 p.m., Jan. 6, at the TD Fieldhouse, and Baldwin Wallace, at the BG Gym, at 6 p.m., Saturday.

Six weeks ago, the Falcons fell to Baldwin-Wallace, except that Bowling Green lost less than two years by a score of 20-0. Toledo, however, has already used the Falcons wrestlers this year, and were victorious, 11-13.

This meet should prove very interesting, along the Orange and Brown will be out for revenge.

Last week found the Bowling Green team beaten by Ohio State's powerful aggregation, 28-6. The meet was closer than the score indicates, however, for several of the Falcons were edged out by slim margins. Jack Narringer, Bowling Green's heavyweight was beaten by Whitney of Ohio State, 7-6. Dave Stoll of Bowling Green was edged 6-3. John Plus of Bowling Green and senior 8-1, and Dick Logan of Bowling Green was beaten by Joyce through, Big Ten champ, 6-0.

The Falcons overview triumphed Friday, 25-12. Bowling Green's poorest event except a forfeit when the Falcons were overweight. Logan wrestled his opponent and pinned him, although the points still went to Findlay.

Intramural Scores

BG won both dual meets last week. George Hoogerhyde is ineligible, Heftier all figured heavily in the BG triumph. The trio won the 200-yard medley relay and added points in individual events. Kenyon took the 150-yard back stroke, Heffner captured the 200-yard free style, and Lohan tied for first with Labulme of Kenyon in the 200-yard breast stroke.

Coach Charles McCaffrey brings a well-balanced crew to the pool, however, many individual standings will be noted. The top four in each event will qualify for state championships.

Although it is believed that the Spartans are the odd-on favor to win Big Ten swimming, the Coopermen are expected to give them a good tussle, the list of divers and breast stroking events.

George Hoogerhyde is ineligible, Heftier all figured heavily in the BG triumph. The trio won the 200-yard medley relay and added points in individual events. Kenyon took the 150-yard back stroke, Heffner captured the 200-yard free style, and Lohan tied for first with Labulme of Kenyon in the 200-yard breast stroke.

Coach Charles McCaffrey brings a well-balanced crew to the pool, however, many individual standings will be noted. The top four in each event will qualify for state championships.

Although it is believed that the Spartans are the odd-on favor to win Big Ten swimming, the Coopermen are expected to give them a good tussle, the list of divers and breast stroking events.

George Hoogerhyde is ineligible, Heftier all figured heavily in the BG triumph. The trio won the 200-yard medley relay and added points in individual events. Kenyon took the 150-yard back stroke, Heffner captured the 200-yard free style, and Lohan tied for first with Labulme of Kenyon in the 200-yard breast stroke.

Coach Charles McCaffrey brings a well-balanced crew to the pool, however, many individual standings will be noted. The top four in each event will qualify for state championships.

Although it is believed that the Spartans are the odd-on favor to win Big Ten swimming, the Coopermen are expected to give them a good tussle, the list of divers and breast stroking events.

George Hoogerhyde is ineligible, Heftier all figured heavily in the BG triumph. The trio won the 200-yard medley relay and added points in individual events. Kenyon took the 150-yard back stroke, Heffner captured the 200-yard free style, and Lohan tied for first with Labulme of Kenyon in the 200-yard breast stroke.

Coach Charles McCaffrey brings a well-balanced crew to the pool, however, many individual standings will be noted. The top four in each event will qualify for state championships.
Flyers Land Here
For Tuesday Tilt

Dayton's Record: 15 Wins, 1 Loss

By BOB STEWART
University of Dayton Flyers, with a record of 15 victories against only 1 defeat, are still working on the edge of the Top Ten. The Flyers' only defeat came at the hands of the Loyola of Chicago Ramblers.

The Flyers, big 6-7 center, will be well supported by Chuck Greipp, Dick Campbell, and Leland Norris as the U. D. attempts to calm the court's national prominence by downing De Pauw. Two years ago the Flyers were hard-pressed to defeat the Flyers by a slim 3-point margin on the Big Floor

The team, which is building for the future, is composed of 11 sophomores and 34 members who will spend trouble for all their competition in the next few years.

Dayton faces its first NCAA tournament battle on Thursday against Ohio State in the finals of the Potomac Valley Conference. The Big Four of Virginia, Dayton, Cincinnati, and Toledo are invited to compete with the West Virginia Mountaineers.

Dayton's Record: 16 victories, 15 losses

Flyers Land Here
For Tuesday Tilt

Dayton Tickets
Student and faculty tickets for Dayton games will be on sale tomorrow from 9:00-11:00 A.M. and 1-5 P.M. at the athletic ticket office. Students are reminded they MUST buy their tickets by 5 p.m. of the day of the game.

Shave And Beck
Sink High Places

Two Bowling Green rugers are making national attention in the college basketball scene, as are most of the nation's top basketball players. The team has a high ranking in the National Collegiate Athletic Association, and its games are often game Day and sellout games.

The team's high ranking comes in the hands of a dynamic center, who is averaging over 20 points per game. His total rank is ninth in the country.

The team's success was noted by three old stars, who are also the coaches in the series.

Another 15 fouls were charged to the Falcons, who were winning their fifth straight game on the home floor and the seventh against Ohio U's Bobcats.

In the second half, the Falcons held off a determined Ohio U. team that has been scoring consistently for the last half, putting in 18 points and keeping their enthusiasm for the fight at boiling point. This was the aggressiveness to score an upset, or at least come close, that the visitors from Athens picked up speed in the last half, putting in 41 points and keeping their enthusiasm for the win at boiling point. This was the aggressiveness to score an upset, or at least come close, that the Falcons held off for the rest of the game.

The visitor's from Athens picked up speed in the last half, putting in 41 points and keeping their enthusiasm for the win at boiling point. This was the aggressiveness to score an upset, or at least come close, that the Falcons held off for the rest of the game.

The visitor's from Athens picked up speed in the last half, putting in 41 points and keeping their enthusiasm for the win at boiling point. This was the aggressiveness to score an upset, or at least come close, that the Falcons held off for the rest of the game.

The visitor's from Athens picked up speed in the last half, putting in 41 points and keeping their enthusiasm for the win at boiling point. This was the aggressiveness to score an upset, or at least come close, that the Falcons held off for the rest of the game.