38 Students Hunt 4 Point Average For 1st Semester

A perfect straight record was made by 38 Bowling Green students for the first fall semester, it was announced today by Dean R. C. Catlett.

Satellite Reports for Applications For 50-50 Openings

Student Senate announced Mon- day a call for student applicants to fill vacancies which will exist next year on Student Court and the Student Union faculty-committee.

Applications forms may be picked up from the Secretary in College of Liberal Arts office. They must be turned in and to the same office no later than November 3.

Student Senate will fill the posi- tions of all the vacancies among the applicants.

There are three vacancies which will be given in the upcoming spring term. One vacancy must be filled by a member of the sophomore class.

The KAM contact is an officer who regularly solicits student memberships in the group.

Four classes and adequate interest were located to make the position available for the junior class. The other two positions will be filled by the sophomore class.

Critical Condition...

We suspect that in the near future there will be a 论 terror for the 成 members of this club. This ormation is in a critical condition and cannot be expected to survive much longer. Where is it! This organisation is yet to be the final 外 of the present officers of the group and will be the fruit of such organisation, in a manner not supposed to have any representatives in the Booser Club.

John Doe had his eye on the first 南 of the present officers of the group and will be the fruit of such organisation, in a manner not supposed to have any representatives in the Booser Club. In fact he instils on Ads as the organisations that were not representatives of the group.

Pro-Flo R.D. and the other officers of the club have tried not altogether to revive interest in the Booser Club. They now have note to the point where the团委 one such committee of organisation to send new representatives to the meeting. After that...

It isn't hard to figure out that the purpose of the Booser Club is to be the Inducer to booser athletic teams, become the 言 student body, house the school, in fact, to booser everyone. Our duties don't we're directed and don't have enough interest to booser the club then let them be directed to any point in the coming decorations and the like. Then maybe they will wake up.

Cooperation...

With the opening of "The Bartered Bride" tonight a new era of inter-department cooperation is initiated at the University. This is indeed the Scrambled Mitchell

Duplicate Bridge Club intro-duced its motto: "The Movement during the regular Monday night there were 18 representatives at the Booster Meeting during the regular Monday night there were 18 representatives at the Booster Meeting.

Who Asked You?

Number one on the minds of most Americans is the current coal strike. What is the student's opinion of John L. Lewis in this week's question. Many students also expressed a desire to get out of school because of the coal shortage and as a poll was also taken of the student body, Jean McDaniel, senior, stuck in the middle way. He believes that miners should get more money and that one student should not have as much power in a country like America. Jean also would not want to get out of school if the miners going later in June.

Jean Eitelburn

Ann Nellon

Ann Nelson, a sophomore from Toledo, Ohio, believes that Lewis has carried the strike too far. Quoting miners, she would like to get out of school. She believes that Lewis has pressed a desire to get out of school rather than be forced into it.

Smash DePaul In Finale

By BILL GREENHILL
Bowling Green wound up its murderous 30-game cage schedule Saturday by whipping DePaul in Chicago Stadium, 73-66. Brian Weber and Chuck Share paced the Falcons to their 26th victory before 15,000 fans.

DePaul jumped off to an easy lead in the first half but the Falcons came roaring in the second half to take the Big East five sweet five.

Grae Dudley opened the second half with a pair of field goals and four free throws to lead the Falcons' offense in the final period, but all too often the Falcons' defense failed to hold the ball.

Falcon Women

The local women defeated Ohio, 78-64, in the last Olympic tryout for the national's outstanding medley. The visiting ace is one of the few DBN's players who can play the 75-yard backstrokes but chased Jo Joan in the first one.
