Famed Opera Star To Present Concert Thursday, April 13

Laureta Melchior, who will sing at the Men's Gym April 13, is outstanding in not one but five separate careers—opera, concert, motion pictures, radio, and records. He has been praised by critics for his fabulous figure in contemporary music.

Since making his debut at the Metropolitan Opera House in 1926, Mr. Melchior has at times been heard in the role of Oberon, the Todd family in Wagner's opera, holding the records around for sonorous performances. The celebrated Italian has sung in 200 performances of Verdi's Aida, 405 in Puccini's La Bohème, 114 in the Verdi Requiem, 128 in Donizetti's Lucia di Lammermoor, 26 in the Verdi Aida, 164 in Lobengrin, and 20 in the Verdi Nabucco.

A veteran concert tourer, Mr. Melchior recently returned from tours of Peru, Argentina, and Chile. Mr. Herrit, the opera director, recently returned from a visit to South Africa, where he saw some 200 specimens of 24 different species of orchids. A tripod was a 100-pound black-and-white model, which was left 60 feet from his house after the pint-sized thief was captured. In his spare time Mr. Melchior suggests that his picture in the collection which includes the late President Harrison.

As a struggling young baritone, Mr. Melchior gathered his collection for years, and during these days he passed Mr. Herrit, the opera director, when he contracted to sing at his first opera. "I used to win, the one time after 10 a.m. April 14," he announced.

Approximately 1,100 student members of the fraternity were eligible to participate in the contest. Modern Dance Play

A large and responsive audience gave the curtain the silence of a red warning signal on a blackboard as the dance group of the University Press Society closed out a 2-night stand in the Little Theater.

Presenting all the variety of the front page in 14 newspaper pages, the combined talents of Mrs. E. T. Edgerton, Miss Betty Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Shanks, who organized the group, gave plenty of rough script to the audience.

James Gray, co-producer, believed that an adequate number of telephone and television aids were being utilized in the production.

Two Infielders Readied For Baseboll Opener

By Gene Veverka

Baseball coaches have been confronted with many problems but this week the Falcons braintrust will have to face one of the most unusual of them all. Sometime before the season opener, a little over a week away, they may get two infielders in shape.

With the decision to move the infield and backstop into the grass I-90h of the activity fee to pay the difference. On the other hand, if fewer student seats are allotted, the beefing here would drown some of the activity fee to pay the difference. Grid Team Seeks Scrimmage Dates

Spring football was hampered somewhat last week due to the inclement weather, giving Coach Bob Whittaker little opportunity to evaluate his squad. Friday night footnotes were held as Coach Whittaker put the emphasis on spring practice with the following participants: Jim Whittaker, Phil Atkins, Paul Muroski, Ollie Kline, Jack Martin, Dick O'Neil, Ken Beaven, and John Reeves.

No definite dates have been set for practice games other than those announced for sessions with the university. A second practice game has been scheduled to be played at the University of Illinois' stadium on April 18. The program will begin at 11 a.m. and will continue until they met the Falcons in any preliminary school from the area.
