SigmA Chi Plans Third Derby Day

Sigma Chi's third annual Derby Day will be held Saturday afternoon, May 7, at the Lab School playground from 1:30 to 3:30. It was announced recently by Derby Day Chairmen Jim Milnor.

This year, as always, Derby Day will be a confection of three-legged races, beauty pageants, and another big surprise. "Runaway events" may be expected.

The housemembers of last year's Derby Day, Alphonso Smith, Robert Giautta Beta Phi, along with Mrs. Smith, Sigma Chi housemother, will be the cochairs. Judging events will be elected from Sigma Chi faculty members.

Sigma Chi will socialize professors, and the Student Senate are invited to enter the Derby Day contest. Competition will be divided into a 150-yd. dash, and a separate trophy awarded to the winner in each class.

Publicity chairman for the affair, Ken Tipton, is arranging for coverage of the events by area newspapers.

In reply...

In answer to Mill Jordan's letter, we feel that he has overlooked some facts in his observations. First of all, Mr. Jordan bears in mind that even the most patriotic student cause the student body does not have the right to acquire or suppress any particular periodical.

What our earliest critics do not seem to realize is that the

Who Asked You?
By DOUGLAS HOVER
Last week two of my feminine friends were quite indignant.

"Why are they calling the bee gee's 'sexy' these days?" I asked.

"They're not," said one. "It's just that they're all the rage right now."

"And why do they wear those tight little pants?" I asked.

"Because they look good," she replied.

"But what about the rest of the body?" I asked.

"They wear them too," she said.

"But what about the head?" I asked.

"They wear hats," she said.

"But what about the arms?" I asked.

"They wear gloves," she said.

"But what about the legs?" I asked.

"They wear stockings," she said.

"But what about the feet?" I asked.

"They wear shoes," she said.

"But what about the face?" I asked.

"They wear makeup," she said.

"But what about the hair?" I asked.

"They wear wigs," she said.

"But what about the personality?" I asked.

"They're smart," she said.

"But what about the character?" I asked.

"They're good," she said.

"But what about the morals?" I asked.

"They're clean," she said.

"But what about the future?" I asked.

"They're bright," she said.

"But what about the past?" I asked.

"They're honest," she said.

"But what about the present?" I asked.

"They're here," she said.

"But what about the overall impression?" I asked.

"They're sexy," she said.

"That's the last word," she said.

So there you have it. The bee gee's are not just sexy, they are also smart, good, clean, bright, and honest. They are here to stay.

High School Play Day Scheduled
The Eleventh Annual Northwestern Ohio High School Drama Day is scheduled here tomorrow. About 450 girls and 49 teachers from 37 high schools will attend. The high school students will participate in softball and volleyball in the morning and afternoon. Swimming will also be on the program. At 1:00 A.M., the University students will demonstrate volleyball and basketball and the Modern Dance and Tap Club will present numbers from their recent recital. The Campus plan a showing of a few numbers from their show at 4:00.

Registration and campus tours are scheduled with light refreshments and a social mixer following at 5:00 p.m.

Late News Summary
Compiled from International News Wire Service

NEW YORK—Telephone workers were called back to their jobs, when a strike of Western Electric employees was called off as federal mediators brought company and union leaders together in a marriage of convenience. Although the strike was not.scheduled to begin before Wednesday, about 16,000 workers walked out Monday.

WASHINGTON—A walkout of railroad union workers was postponed for two weeks in answer to a government request. The strike had been scheduled to begin on Wednesday. Railroad officials had prepared to withdraw a large percentage of their long distance passengers and freight traffic from regular service.

BREGENZ—Yugoslavia's rulers have grown more tense, according to a charge made by Marshal Tito. He declared that the Soviet bloc is enforcing a campaign of constant harassment. Speaking before the Yugoslav Parliament in Belgrade, Marshal Tito received confirmation in the head of the government and defense.

WASHINGTON—John Harris, one time "friend at the White House," is at liberty under $20,000 bond after his conviction of contempt of Congress for having lied before female investigators last be- fore a Senate subcommittee, which he had refused to answer.

DE TROIT—Negotiators attempting to put a stop to the $10,000 Chrysler strike report that the "topple dance" has been bungled and that settlement appeared close at hand.

Bowling Green State University will be represented in the Front Relay Series this first time today and tomorrow dur- ing the 41st annual running of the West's biggest track con- course at Des Moines, la.

Falcon teams are entered in the college division of the distance medley relay this afternoon and the two-mile relay tomorrow.

Running in the medley relay are Dan Vander Horst, Lee Pate, Charles Mohr, and Frank El- gi er.

The two-mile relay team will consist of James DelWider, Chris Doh, Bill Jordan, and Jon Newkirk.

An underdog Bowling Green track squad fell short in its at- tempt to upset powerful Bal- win-Wallace Wednesday, the final score being 77-34.

Jack Bruce, former Falcon Wil- liams, was the first place finisher in the Bres-Gee's twin.

The Falcons were defeated of us almost certain 11 points when Bruce was disquali- fied in the 100 meter dash, was unable to post any score, and their man Bill Jordan was called home by a death in his family.

A new field record was set in the pole vault when Bill Hill- man Hill Jordan was called home before the six points he was expected to score.

Ironically, Hillman was killed by a car that struck him in the next race.

The Falcon Nine now has a total of 14 hits rolled off the bats of the Bee Gee sluggers, who are underclassmen. An award will be given to the outstanding underclass line- man of the squad who are underclass- men. An award will be given to the outstanding underclass man and the outstanding underclass backfield man.

Netters Host Ohio Northern And Tech This Weekend

The Falcon netters will try another story to be broken in the win column today.

At 2:30 p.m. on the local courts after playing Lewis and Clark in the tough association, the Netters will face the Ohio Northern at the portable courts.

The doubles matches were a big difference in the game. They had three wins in the matches that were played.
