What's the most accurate sign of spring? Is it the first daffodils blooming? The first croney of sunburns, what else? If you doubt my word just look around—what about that blinding white sun that will soon be in your shoes? A complexion like peaches and cream you say. Ah, yes, and again, it appears more like lobster than anything else.

Dues for the club are $5 per semester. The fall series will be "A History of Motion Pictures from 1896 to the present," the winter series "Great Western Outlaws," and the spring series "The Greatest Literary Characters." Students are encouraged to join and support this organization.

SUNSET SERENADE

Lost Wednesday's twilight concert by the University Concert Band found to be quite enjoyable by those who attended it, even though it did get rather chilly and those without blankets to sit on may have found the grass a bit damp.

With a little publicity and student support, this annual spring series of outdoor concerts could conceivably become a regular tradition, the lack of which is often lamented in these parts.

Another concert is scheduled for tomorrow evening at 7 on the lawn beside the PA Beta, and the last one will be held Wednesday, May 16, at the same time, same place.

By: CHUCK ALBURY

Michigan Normal, one of the best college track teams in this or any other section of the country, romped up with top honors in the first running of the Bee Gee Relays here Saturday. Coach George Marshall’s Harrows swept to victory in eight of the twelve Class A relay events, breaking two track records along the way and establishing inaugural marks in the two that will be high targets for future teams to aim at.

Even though the weather was quite chilly after the latter’s TD.

Bayless got by Frank Kilgore in the second leg of the 60 yards. The time was 6.9, almost six seconds off the 880 yd. record.
