Summer Enrollment Decreases; Grad School Shows Increase

Enrollment for the summer session has reached the mark of 1,250 students enrolled in the College of the Graduate School of the University. The totals fall slightly short of last year's record-breaking enrollment of 1,284.

The upperclassman has dropped about a per cent since last summer. There are 467 veterans as compared to 769 last year and 596 in the summer of 1948.

Summer Hours Arranged For Campus Services

Summer hours for various campus services were announced today by their directors.

Opening hours for the Nest will be from 9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, with Saturday hours from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon the hours will be from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The University Book Store has announced that the store may be obtained from 8 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. and 1:45 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, with Saturday morning hours from 8 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

Hospital hours are Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday hours will be from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. No regular hours will be held on Sunday. Emergencies will be handled at anytime. When calling the hospital for excuses or information phone 3281.

Auto, Parking Rules Announced

Parking spaces on campus streets will not be held for summer, but all cars must be registered at the office of the dean of students, Arch B. Cooklin, dean of students, said today.

A decal will be required to be displayed on each car on campus, he said.

Make an out-of-town trip, a woman student must obtain a permit in the office of the dean of students.

While the recent modification of the parking permit will go into practice until September, last year's rules "limiting the use of an automobile to veterans only" remain in effect.

Summer Rehearsals; Concert Is Planned

The fifth annual Summer Chorus was organized last week under the direction of Dr. James Paul Kennedy. Rehearsals will be held on Monday and Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Prachie Building.

Although the first turn-out was sparse, Dr. Kennedy expressed the hope that the chorus would have approximately 100 members. He said that the group needed several accompanying pianists.

Membership is open to all summer school students, their wives or husbands, a n.d town residents. No past choral experience is necessary and anyone desiring to join should contact Dr. Kennedy in the Recital Hall.

Members of A Cappella Choir who are all seniors have had weekly rehearsals all afternoon and are expected to rehearse twice weekly. They will also use their individual learning scores for next semester's choir work.

The activities of the Chorus will culminate later in the summer
First Blind Veteran
Graduated In June

By FRED TODD

Robert C. Oberhouse, 26-year-old blind veteran, graduated June 6 from the College of Liberal Arts to become the first algist student to receive a degree from this university.

A sociology major, Mr. Oberhouse was given all tests and exams orally and was furnished a person by the government to read him his lessons. He had attended college winter and summer since September, 1946.

He was elected chairman of the Blinded Veterans Ass'n, Ohio branch, last July. Mr. Oberhouse's interest in this organization has led him to run for office on the National Board of Directors.

Formed in 1944, the BVA is made up of approximately 1500 blind veterans. It's purpose is to educate and assist handicapped veterans in finding a useful and satisfactory place in society. It is also conscripted with the education of blind children.

Mr. Oberhouse is looking forward to the state meeting of the BVA in Hamilton, July 15-16, when possible legislation affecting the organization and its purposes will be discussed. An outing for members is also anticipated.

He has altered previous plans to go to Baltimore; instead he intends to spend the summer mainly on BVA work. His vacation, thus far, has included "some fishing, but not much fish," and more time at home with his 4-month-old son and wife, Luella.

Mr. Oberhouse "enjoyed his college career and received the fullest co-operation from the University faculty." He would like to find a position with some state, or private, rehabilitation or welfare agency. If I do, however, Dr. Clausen may rest assured that it is through no fault of his.

Just Talk

By ROGER D. BONHAM

At the June Commencement a fundamental thought was left with me that I temporarily forgot was reaffirmed for me. Strangely enough, the truth came not through the speech but the speaker.

Around 1 o'clock, when the vio-lent-black thunderhead which had been gathering all day began to de-luge spirits and Commencement guests, I found myself lounging in the Next over a cup of coffee. In a short time, the visiting dignitaries began to assemble.

Mr. Jones, head of the News Bureau, introduced Dr. Bernard C. Clausen, the after-noon's speaker, whom I recognized from his photo.

The man presented a rather aus-tere appearance. Dr. Clausen, I noted, wore cracked, high-laced shoes. His suit was wrinkled over his tall, spare frame; both buttons of his double-breasted suit were firmly buttoned.

A pair of eye-glasses propped high on the bridge of his nose might have insured this man a picture on the front of "How to Win Friends and Influence People." But unlike Carnegie, his long, waving hair gave him a po-tential air. The man's manner was nervous and abrupt.

Sitting, rather than speaking, with his mouth full of "spare time" press (like a sparrow among a flock of pelicans), this man of the highest order presented the man to whom I listened. It was a man of the highest order whom I welcomed the introduc-tion of the speaker.

But as the man's personality began to show through, I found myself pulling my bony frame erect and listening. At first, of course, the preacher did seem a little stuf-fed. His rendering of "How to Win Friends and Influence People" had been temporarily forgotten.

Very likely I will soon again fall into my old and unfortunate habit of making snap judgments of people. If I do, however, Dr. Clausen may rest assured that it is through no fault of his.

Because of the last-minute change in scheduling the Fourth of July holiday, week-end social events will be canceled. The Friday and Saturday orchestra dances will be canceled.

Friday and Saturday movies, "The Lady Vanishes," and "The Lady Vanishes," will be shown as a double feature Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Main Auditorium.

Phyllis Vergin, social committee chairman, announced that a tentative schedule of social events for the summer has been arranged.

At least one orchestra dance has been scheduled for each week of the summer term. Orchestras will be brought in from Toledo and the surrounding area. Several street dances are scheduled, but the exact dates have not been selected.

It is anticipated that a Farewell Formal will be held on Aug. 1. The dance was a great success last year and plans are being laid to make the dance possible again this summer.

Some of the better movies scheduled are: "Destry Rides Again," with James Stewart, to be shown on Friday, July 7; "The Tech- new fantasy, "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves," which will be featured on Friday, July 1; and "Last Days of Pompeii," on Saturday, July 15.
