7-6-1950

Bee Gee News July 6, 1950

Bowling Green State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/bg-news

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/bg-news/944
Comedy Selected As Summer Production

"Springtime For Henry," a three-act farce, by English playwright Benn W. Levy, will be presented as a University Theatre Production on Aug. 3-4, at 8:15 in the Gate Theatre.

The plot of the play centers around Henry Dewlip, a wealthy but foolish young man, who spends most of his time living a life of gaiety, ease, and idleness. Complications arise when Henry's apparently-prime young secretary tries to persuade him to give up his pleasant vices and turn his talents to the more serious side of life.

Gene Reynolds, director, held try-outs for the four principal character roles Monday and Tuesday evenings, June 28 and 29.

The play is a farce, written, as announced by Director Reynolds, are as follows: Henry, Ken Kadar; Jellie, Bob Stager; Zulla, Jeanne Barber; Miss Smith, Rosamond Pratt. The assistant director is Joan Bercaw and Warren Ran-}

Many of these people are veterans in University Performances. Ken Kadar will be remembered for his role in "The Bishop's Candlesticks." Bob Stager portrays the part of the part of the past in last season's "Summer Station," and Jeanne Barber has directed next season's "Nights in Camp," and Rosamond Pratt has appeared in "Eve-}

The play will be the only University function presented on the campus this summer. However, the Honor Playhouse group, directed by Frederick G. Walsh, will give a play here on July 17.

Station WSRM In New Studio

Campus radio station WSRM last week moved into new quarters directly below the stage in the new Auditions. The move is expected to greatly increase the broadcasting facilities of the station by providing an extra studio and more office space.

The station will take to the air from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday during the remainder of the summer season.

William Royse is the student manager of the station this summer. Others on the WSRM staff include Dick Horning, Ken Kadar, Warren Randel, Bob Stager, Luella Wirick, and Lois Wright.

Music will dominate the broadcasting hours of the station. "Spin 'Em, Sweetheart, the most popular music of the day, and "Post-Summer Meeting Called"

All students interested in attending post-summer school are urged to attend a meeting to be held this afternoon, July 6, at 3:30 p.m. in room 330A.

Purpose of the meeting is to conduct courses for the summer session. Selections will depend upon the preferences of the majority of students.

If any student desiring to attend the post-summer session is unable to attend the meeting, he should forward his arrangement for someone to attend and vote in his place.

The post-summer session this year is scheduled to begin Mon-

Profs Traveling In Foreign Lands

Eight faculty members will be traveling in foreign countries this summer. Dr. Ben McCauley, Miss Elise Collier, Dr. Samuel May-} Field, Miss Dorothy Meulon, and Hadley Yates will go to Europe, Robert Stinson to Peru, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wigg to Mexico.

Miss Collier, an expert in for-

"Summer Station" often music of the day, and "Summer Saints" presents the. The remainder of the summer session.

Campus radio station WSRM, directed by Gene Reynolds, held tryouts for the four principal character roles Monday and Tuesday evenings, June 28 and 29.

The play is a farce, written, as announced by Director Reynolds, are as follows: Henry, Ken Kadar; Jellie, Bob Stager; Zulla, Jeanne Barber; Miss Smith, Rosamond Pratt. The assistant director is Joan Bercaw and Warren Ran-}

Many of these people are veterans in University Performances. Ken Kadar will be remembered for his role in "The Bishop's Candlesticks." Bob Stager portrays the part of the part of the past in last season's "Summer Station," and Jeanne Barber has directed next season's "Nights in Camp," and Rosamond Pratt has appeared in "Eve-

The play will be the only University function presented on the campus this summer. However, the Honor Playhouse group, directed by Frederick G. Walsh, will give a play here on July 17.

Station WSRM In New Studio

Campus radio station WSRM last week moved into new quarters directly below the stage in the Main Auditorium. The move is expected to greatly increase the broadcasting facilities of the station by providing an extra studio and more office space.

The station will take to the air from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday during the remainder of the summer season.

William Royse is the student manager of the station this summer. Others on the WSRM staff include Dick Horning, Ken Kadar, Warren Randel, Bob Stager, Luella Wirick, and Lois Wright.

Music will dominate the broadcasting hours of the station. "Spin 'Em, Sweetheart, the most popular music of the day, and "Post-Summer Meeting Called"

All students interested in attending post-summer school are urged to attend a meeting to be held this afternoon, July 6, at 3:30 p.m. in room 330A.

Purpose of the meeting is to conduct courses for the summer session. Selections will depend upon the preferences of the majority of students.

If any student desiring to attend the post-summer session is unable to attend the meeting, he should forward his arrangement for someone to attend and vote in his place.

The post-summer session this year is scheduled to begin Mon-

consequently, the attendance at the double movie and dance bill.

Few students will find Sunday time enough to go home; consequently, the attendance at the double movie and dance bill.

Hence, our circle of acquaintances is composed of the Danforth Foundation.

It is easier to criticize destructively than constructively.

It seems unlikely that we meet all our acquaintances in our daily round.

Most of us lend to follow a set list. It is usually held in August.

But Bowling Green State University seems small compared to Ohio State University, for example, it is less;

So the Social Committee is authorized to furnish the expense money.

The only new friends we meet, the associations we renew that make social evenings fulfilling. Sometimes a poor program

The summer graduate deserves as much consideration as one novelty song entitled "Big

Miss Grace Prince, accompanist, contributed a fine piano solo, an arrangement of George Gershwin's "Summertime" from "Porgy and Bess."

We need to discuss the shortcomings of an event, forgetting its admirable qualities.

Then, too, the freak week-end situation may bring out a truth or two: it's not the entertainment itself that counts so much:

That summer's issue is the first one published; it will be printed and revised annually.

Vacancies exist in 15 to 20 Ohio counties for home economics demonstration agents, announced Miss Minnie Price, state home economics demonstration leader at Ohio State University.

Applications must have a degree with a major in home economics. They would conduct girls' 4-H clubs and conduct home demonstration work with adult women.

Agricultural extension service employs them.

* * * * *

For that

Snack

Insist on

Cain's

Marcelle

Potato Chips

Featuring fresh garden and fruit salads... Home made pies and cakes.

BGSU Senior Gets Fellowship Award

Lela Schneidtke, BGSU senior, has been awarded a $1500 fellowship.

Prof. and Mrs. Leon Faleski Danforth associate at Bowling Green, nominated Miss Schneidtke for the fellowship.

SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE

REDUCTION ON ALL SUMMER MERCHANDISE

DRESSES : BLOUSES : SKIRTS

PLAY CLOTHES

SPECIAL SALE ON BOTANY

3-PLY WOOL YARN

SALE STARTS TODAY. COME IN EARLY FOR BEST SELECTION

Jan's College Shop

Near the Post Office

Hours: 9:30 to 5:30

Sat.: 9:30 to 9:00

THEME: "I SEE THE SET'S ARE A LITTLE SHORT ON PLEDGES THIS TERM.

Large Audience Welcomes Arts Quintet's Performance

By GENE DENT

Despite the lack of printed programs and the prospect of a dull and dry presentation, a large audience welcomed the Vocal Arts Quintet last Wednesday at the first assembly of the summer Artist Series.

After the first few numbers, which were Schumann and Brahms, some of the less courageous and less appreciative music lovers giggled, grumbled, and squirmed.

A few made a conspicuous departure.

After the heavyweights of the old masters, the program gradually lightened, progressing from classical to semi-classical and finally rounding off with selections from the popular "Showboat," "Carousel," "Oklahoma," and "South Pacific."

Mr. Ray G. Steiner, leader, and director of the group, sang several songs by Victor Herbert, as well.

As one novelty song entitled "Fog Brown Bear."

Some of the songs presented were: "Tales from the Vienna Woods," "Brahms' "Cradle Song," and "Brown Beur."

"Summertime" from "Porgy and Bess."

"Open Thy Heart," from the opera "Carmen."

Selections from "South Pacific" included "I'll Build a Stairway to Heaven.

"Some Enchanted Evening."

Miss Grace Prince, accompanist, contributed a fine piano solo, an arrangement of George Gershwin's "Summertime" from "Porgy and Bess."

75c

Economy Pack

Stationery

20 Sheets, 20 Envelopes

Special 49c

G & M DRUGS

The Friendly Store With The Open Door

109 N. Main St.

Phone 6071

U-Club

530 East Wooster Street
Two Dances, Movies On Tap During Big Social Week-end

Two orchestra dances and two movies will be available this weekend for the entertainment of the students.

A square dance is to be held Friday from 9-12 p.m. in the Rec Hall. Jane Nelson Kieffer's orchestra will furnish the music.

Burton Swear and his orchestra will play ballroom music for Saturday's dance, which is also from 9-12 p.m. in the Rec Hall.

Friday's movie will be "Sastry Rides Again," starring James Stewart. "National Man," with Ben Yo Fields, Roscoe Karns, and Judy Clark will be shown Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Main Auditorium. Phyllis Yergin, social committee chairman, pointed out that the time for the week-end movie has been changed. Rather than presenting two showings at 7 and 9 p.m., there will be a single run of the movies at 8 p.m.

The unusual amount of entertainment this weekend is a result of last week's cancellation of the movies at 8 p.m. Miss Vermin said.

10 Dorms Open During Summer

Are you wondering where to find someone on campus this summer? To fill such a need, the following is a list of dormitories which are open for the summer season.

Men's dorms located in Fraternity Circle:
1. Phi Delta
2. Sigma Chi
3. Pi Kappa Alpha
4. Kappa Sigma

Women's dormitories:
1. Women's Independent Society
2. Shetzel Hall
3. Pi Kappa Alpha
4. Kappa Sigma
5. Ley Hall
6. Stadium Club
7. Huts
8. East Hall

Chairman, pointed out that the unusual amount of entertainment this weekend is a result of last week's cancellation of social events because of the holiday. Miss Vermin said.

Ludwig Authors Student Musical

Edith Ludwig, a junior majoring in music, has written the second annual student musical, which will be presented next fall during Homecoming weekend.

The play, tentatively entitled "Nostology 101," was chosen last week by a faculty student committee. Miss Ludwig wrote the musical score, lyrics, and script for the production.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

When American postage stamps first came into use, postmasters often cut a two-cent stamp in half when they needed two ones, or a ten-cent stamp when they needed two fives. Today some of these bisected stamps are fifty times as valuable as whole ones of the same issue.

Ringing Bells: Not even a jingle from the rings dept. this week. Wasn't some obliging soul please ring or pin someone?—This column's getting too heavy.

HEREDITY: Something a father always believes in—until his son makes a fool of himself.

New Workshops To Open Monday

An Education Art Workshop and a Health Education Workshop will begin here next Monday.

Miss Elizabeth S. Ohlrogge, art consultant of the Binary and Smith Co., will conduct the art workshop, July 10-13.

The purpose of the course is to give teachers an opportunity to get a broader scope of the teaching and planning of art education through the use of materials. J. Robert Blackburn, assistant professor of health and physical education and university health coordinator, will direct the health workshop, which will extend from July 10-14.

Information will be presented to those who wish to learn to recognize and understand community and school health problems. The course is aimed at teachers, nurses, public health workers, and health education specialists.

CAMPUS WATCH REPAIR

All Work Guaranteed
Bob Roed, Mgr.

1000 and ONE TASTY, DELICIOUS FOODS

For Lunches, Midnight Snacks, Cocktail Parties and just plain every day eating.

Largest selection of imported and domestic quality food in any store between New York and Chicago. All moderately priced.

Kosher Meats and Breads

Amazing selection of imported and domestic beverages of all kinds. Served cold.

Caterers to Picnic, Fraternities, Sororities and Private Parties

STARGLOWS DANCING

PUNCHES OF ALL KINDS A SPECIALTY

Delivery Service

Open every day 10:00 a.m. to 12 p.m.

PHONE 1279

BEE GEE DELICATESSEN AND CARRYOUT

518 West Ferry Avenue

BEE GEE NEWS Thursday, July 6, 1950  Page 3

Side Show

By MIRIAM J. JOHNSON

HOW TO KEEP FROM GROWING OLD—LESSON ONE: Always pass the car ahead on curves or on a hill; it gives the fellow meeting you such a thrill.

WANTED: Contributions of outside rubber donuts for the members of the accelerated French class. Donations will be accepted by Dr. Cecil Jew.

WEDDING BELLES: More June dates available for addition to last week's list. (Your file of last-mileits is in order if you cross-index it.) Joanne Bueschen to Richard Wennals; Wilma Farting to M. Gene Bowers; Marilyn Hecklinger to A. John White; Ruth Kindig to Ernest Watts; Mary Louise Holler to Robert Jones; Earle Bates to Richard Hones; Joyce May to Thomas Grant; Loma Robertson to Jack Murr; Edna Rudolph to Wayne Fields; Ellen Chambers to Howard Dickerson; Shirley Rice to William Rount; Marilyn Lewis to Homer Munkle; Nadine Phillips to John Lord; Mary Louise Hoffman to James Funke; Kathryn Et to Don Datsslefeld; Shirley Pugh to Bill Scruta; Lourene Kunts to Chris Depaz; and Anita Jewell to Ray Bost.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

When American postage stamps first came into use, postmasters often cut a two-cent stamp in half when they needed two ones, or a ten-cent stamp when they needed two fives. Today some of these bisected stamps are fifty times as valuable as whole ones of the same issue.

RINGING BELLS: Not even a jingle from the rings dept. this week. Wasn't some obliging soul please ring or pin someone?—This column's getting too heavy.

HEREDITY: Something a father always believes in—until his son makes a fool of himself.
Spring Sports

Varsity letters have been awarded to 46 men who represented BGSU in four spring sports, baseball, golf, tennis, and track.

Spring Sports Awards

Bowling Green's athletic teams finished the 1950 spring season with a 50% percentage, winning 27 contests, losing 17, and tying 2. The golf team led the way, winning nine, tying one, and tying but one.

Coach Don Cunningham's shortshoters placed 11th in the Ohio Intercollegiate Tournament. After dropping their first match, the dungeons did not lose another match. The season ended with Michigan Normal being partially defeated by the Falcons' last two Normal, 9-0.

Coach Dave Matthews' track team won four of six dual meets, competed in the Drake and Big Ten Games, the Baldwins-Wallace Relays, the Ohio AUA Meet, and the All-East College Meet, in a very busy spring season. In dual meets, the Falcons lost to powerful Baldwin-Wallace, 35-3, and defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 41-13, and Vassar, 36-9.

The first annual BG Relays will be held in the horseshoes play. Day games will be played, and each player must have a scorecard attested. Twelve hole playoff will decide the winner. Entries must be turned in by July 24.

A driving contest will be held July 25 and 26, from 4 to 6 p.m. Every entry will be scheduled.

Awards Made

All golf will consist of medal play. In the singles 36 holes must have a score card attested. The elimination tournament in tennis will be played, and each player must have a score card attested. A round robin playoff will be held, and each player must have a score card attested. A driving contest will be held, and each player must have a score card attested.

The schedule will be posted July 17 on the following bulletin boards: the north of the bookstore in the Administration Building.

Play Underway Next Week In Campus Intramurals

Host of the highways
refresh at the familiar red cooler on the road to anywhere

Spalding Golf Club Specials

AUTOGRAF IRONS $4.00 ea.
AUTOGRAF WOODS $6.00 ea.
GOLF BALL SPECIAL 30 ea.

4 for $1.00

LEITMAN'S

Macs Leitman, Class of '30, Owner

In Bowling Green's (John) Cheetwood's

Phone 5734

SPECIALS

CORSAGES

$4.00 ea.

WEDDINGS

$6.00 ea.

HOSPITAL VASES

FUNERAL DESIGNS

Fine Flower Gifts

Klever's Jewelry Store

Summer Special Stationery

1/2 price

Many Unusual Values

Klever's Jewelry Store

121 N. Main St.