Final Rehearsal Tonight For 3-Ac Farce

The "Three Men" will maintain their practice, in great Fourth Street, for the last time tonight at 9 o'clock. The 3-ac play of the year opens tomorrow night in the Main Auditorium.

Actually the play was well called "One Man On A Bus" ("Three Men On A Horse" since the story is built around a man who has a light and is riding for picking winning horse races while his horse is running). Three guests decide to make use of the horse's ability to keep him in a hotel room to choose winners and win. They can't use his unusual ability, however, unless he is on a bus so the climax develops when he is ordered to pick winners on a particular horse.

Robert B. Kirkby, director, commented that the play is "a very strong farce, highly amusing, and quite sensitive."

The characters are played by Pat Shae, Dick Huffman, Stan Fish, Bob Taylor, Jim Nuab, Jon MacKenzie, Ken Shesewy, Jack Ellerston, Tim Taylor, Susan Boul, Howard Shemien, Bill Evans, William Hummon, Robert Stahl, and Dan Frederick.

Tickets are only on sale at Dave's Bar from 4 to 8 p.m. until curtain time every night. Every ticket is one way to winning $5 and postage is paid. Two airmail letters will be sent to the winners.

ODK Applications Deadline Is Dec. 14

Deadline for applications for mid-year Top Day Dec. is Dec. 14, announced Jack Wilson, chairman.

Top Day is the semi-annual ceremony at which ODK, national men's leadership society, will be received into the University of Michigan. The society will be received into the University of Michigan and be picked up in the Graduate School office.

Menjou Emphasizes Rise Of Television

A casual Adolphe Menjou, lecturing on the "Stairway to Stardom," Sunday night, rambled upstairs and down, but never seemed to reach an end. However, the antise to the chairs proved to be entertaining.

Speaking to a comparatively small Artist Series audience, Menjou frankly admitted the lecture was unprepared.

Menjou, who is a producer of such television shows as "The Green Room" and "The Jack Benny Show," has "enormous possibilities. With the large industry. Within five years, he has entered engineering school at the University of Michigan on May 20. The event was officially recognized by the Tau Chapter at the University of Michigan, which was initiated into Phi Kappa Tau and will be allowed to fire five sighting bullets. The contestant will receive a trophy. Menjou emphasizes the need for television programs to back the boosters club's attempt to instill student enthusiasm for all sports. The Rifle Club is sponsored by the College of Business Administration, and is open Saturday morning, 8-12 a.m. and ending Nov. 18. Don Hilliker at the range.

Signing Of Charter For Due For Fraternity

Members of the Bowling Green colony of the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity will sign their national charter on Friday, Nov. 17 and officially be recognized by the Beta Delta chapter of the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

Formal ceremonies including a reception, banquet, and dance will feature the new chapter's installation weekend.

The members of the fraternity were initiated into Phi Kappa Tau at the Tau Chapter at the University of Michigan. The charter's change of name from Delta Phi Pi to Phi Kappa Tau was officially recognized by Student Senate on May 28.

Speaking to a comparatively small Artist Series audience, Menjou frankly admitted the lecture was unprepared and unprepared.

The veteran actor began his program by sketching in a few details of his background. He entered engineering school at the University of Michigan in 1910 and in three months became the best pool and air riflemen in the College of Engineering.

Menjou made his first picture, "The Man Behind the Door," for the Vitagraph Company in 1912. "Frankie Lee" was his first talking picture. In the movie business 27 years, Menjou gave the audience an in-depth look into the inside business of producing pictures for a picture.

Personal characteristics of the master film character are a Hollywood star, and his sympathy is the first ingredient, he stated.

"Television," Menjou commented, "being another world war, has tremendous possibilities. With two years it could be the largest industry. Within five years 45,000,000 television sets will be in American homes. Television is the new frightening medium on the air as face to face of the complex, and the question of all time. Letters To The Editor

The Editor

1.5 We have your discussion on the work of the News, and have taken this opportunity to refer to it. We do not feel that the News has failed to deliver a balanced and fair account of the events surrounding the Homecoming preparations. The News has always strived to present a truthful and accurate account of the events, and we believe that this is the case in this instance as well.

2.5 We would like to clarify that our concern was not with the criticism of the News itself, but rather with the criticism directed at the organization as a whole.

3.5 We would like to express our support for the News and encourage our fellow students to continue supporting the newspaper in its efforts to deliver a balanced and fair account of events.

From The Docket

Parking in visitors' zones netted Franklin Rowe and Richard Bohdenham fines in the amount of $1.50 each.

Rowe pleaded guilty to the charge and since it was his first offense, he was fined $1.

Bohdenham pleaded guilty to the charge of driving recklessly and exceeding the speed limit, and was fined $2.

Giving the extenuating circumstances of the fact he was going to his daughter's wedding, the judge decided it would be more appropriate than a criminal record to be placed on his record.

"I would much rather reduce this fine"” said the judge, "but I believe the state that this is your first offense and that you have never been asked to explain your reasons for doing this type of thing."

There was a record of two other violations, however, and the judge decided that it would be more appropriate to place these on his record as well.

Sidenotes

APPEARING ON this page is a letter printed directly to myself by the staff of the News, concerning an article appearing in the little weekly of the same name, which in its editorial in the August issue of the newsletter, was headed "Sorority Row, Williams, and Shatelle, that had been printed in the SLC event, stating that they are confused as to the criticism, especially of their Homecoming activities, that had been printed in the News. They used all their journalistic means to consolidate student opinion, and we realize that they used all their journalistic means to consolidate student opinion. In printing such critical remarks, we realize that we meant that way. The primary purpose that lies behind all such criticism is the betterment of this University, in spirit or any way possible. In printing such critical remarks, we realize that we are, in a sense, being hypocritical in voicing the representational voice of the students, but we also know that we are the only media on campus that can sometimes come close to reflecting student opinion. We do not take this function for granted; we accept it as a challenge. Just two years ago the Boosters Club was formed on this campus. Just how much of this should go to the News, or to the student body itself, we do not know. The Boosters Club has fulfilled its purpose is up to the students to decide.

The Bees Bee News is a laboratory for journalism students, but at the same time it is the "Official Student Publication" of this University. The purpose is up to the students to decide. We are to achieve our purpose of being a representative voice of the students, we must have their cooperation. We will continue to criticize, not merely for the sake of disgracing anyone, but for the advancement of Bowling Green State University. Meanwhile, we invite criticism of ourselves as an aid in serving our purpose, and in keeping our goal consistently in sight.

Falcons Win Final Home Game 22-7

Passing Attack Keynotes
Frosh Win Over Kent State

The froshmen football squad was really up for their game, playing their best controled of the season, as they took a 19-14 decision from Kent State and wind up their campaign on an even note.

Their defense, with everyone playing well, was as hard that the offense, with the exception of the passing, were having the ball all the time. On the offense, it was passing that took the spotlight. Dick T. homas threw three TD passes with Jim Ladd, 6-5 end, nailing two of them and Dick Pilla, left half, back from Masssq, grabbing the other one.

Besides a great defense and passing attack the Froshmen displayed wonderful spirit so they overcame a 16-1 halftime deficit to win easily in the second half.

The win gives the Froshmen record to 3-2 for the season. It was the last game but Coach Bessell is planning to practice still another week to look for that better picture of what he will have to send up to the varsity next year. Right now it looks like next year's Falcons are going to get a lot of help from freshmen and sophomores, two things the team will need desperately.

Kappa Sigs, DGs
Win Bowl Contests

The Delta Gamma and the Kappa Sigma both won their respective bowl games over the weekend. The DGs clinched the Alpha Xi 8-0 in the Powder Bowl game Friday and the Kappa Sig whipped the Delta 16-14 Saturday in the Mud Bowl contest. The Delta Gamma passing attack was too much for the gale of Alpha Xi as they kept control of the ball for the moat part of the game. One thousand fans were so anxious to watch the battle of the location in connection with last week's Charity Drive.

Saturday's Mud Bowl contest was more of the battle of plucks and punishes of Kappa Sigma pulled ahead of Delta Gamma in the first half of the game. The running threat was the Delta Gamma base.
