Student Disinterested Rides Again . . . Future At Stake

Student disinterested in the future of the University has again emerged into the open.

A representative of the Student Union Committee recently conducted a survey of all political organizations to determine how much space would be needed in the proposed union. It was hoped that groups would cooperate with the Committee so that suggestions could be given in the meantime while the Committee attempts to explain what the needs and wants of the University are regarding the proposed union.

Eleven out of the 61 groups have not taken the time or the interest to fill out the forms that were sent out. That is a fairly large minority. So long as groups such as these exist—which those who want everyone else to do the planning and then complain quite loudly when they do not get equal space allotted with cooperative organizations—the effective future of any future Student Union will be seriously hindered.

Baseballers Prep For Ohio State's Buckeyes
Coach Warren Steller held the first outdoor workouts for his Bowling Green State University baseball squad this week.

With only 10 days in which to prepare his squad for the opener with Ohio State in Columbus on April 8, Steller feels his team is in the best possible shape.

Fitting should be the least of Steller's worries with all of last year's regular hurlers already working out indoors. The quartet includes 3-year veterans Ray Hege, Toledo, Bill Stough, Lorain, Howard Tesnow, Akron, N. Y., and Louis Soares, Lois Ousky, Mary Lou Kiss, Eleanor Carlson, Marcy Albro, Dawn Bodine, Pat Folk, Joan Case, and Joe Gulla, Clifton, N. J., back.

In fielding Grill was the leading hitter last spring with a .364 average. Theoutfile was hit hardest by the freshman team. Carol Moore, Keifer, Kollette Williams, Ida Husser, Missy Soames, Missy Albro, and four class teams qualified for varsity competition this spring under a new University ruling.

Phi Delta's Win Frat Title; Independent Playoffs Today
Phi Delta Theta wound up the Interfraternity basketball season in a blaze of glory March 18 by trapping a 39-32 playoff decision from previously unbeaten Sigma Nu to gain the Interfraternity League crown.

The championship Phi Delta Club posted a record of six wins and one defeat to top League I while Sigma Nu went through seven contests in League II without a loss to win a first place berth.

In nabbing their title Phi Delta Theta took a University record for total points in a game by tallying 61 against Sigma Nu and then shattered their own mark within a week, amassing 62 counters in a tilt with Theta Chi.

A trio of PDT captives, Mark Crown, Bob Schubert, and Bruce Koch, ranked among the first five individual scoring leaders for the season but it remained for Sigma Nu's Nate Hammy to top the charts.

The sharpshooting southpaw garnered a season's total of 73 points to lead both leagues in that department.

Team entry blanks for both Fraternity and Independent softball teams must be in Dave Matthews' office no later than April 14 against Miami. The playoffs between the first four listed and 4:30 p.m. with 26 house teams the University's intramural championship.
