Thieves, 'Regular As Spring', Call For More Precautions

For the third spring in a row, Fraternity Row has been a haunt to unknown burglars who succeed in taking most any kind of valuable personal property.

Four fraternity houses were recently burglarized of large sums of money, clothing, and miscellaneous articles while members of the various groups were asleep. Most aggravated is the fact that the thieves have even made their annual visit to the Row.

 sundays and initiated 12 pledges at the University's new Alpha Molder might be installed on the proper selection for next year's contests. Nut tony members know the words now, but they said they would surely have them learned if they were the selected ones.

If this were true, the Freshman Handbook could boast of a raising school spirit instead of stating that a pulse point that most of Bowling Green's students know their Alpha Molder. This would be a step in the direction of reviving interest in the school song.

Call For More Precautions

Dr. Allen Hoose, 2nd I. t. Drill Officer; Allen Hoose, 2nd I. t. Pershing Rifles, national honor society, has called a meeting of all members of the various groups to be held at 12:01 this evening. He will be present to tell them about an alphabetical list of all the articles of value that should be kept close to hand and personal belongings, keeping them locked at night.

Student Teachers Learn That 'Demons' Are Angels by LORIS WOOD

-... encounterings the mass of beaming little faces all peeking out from behind, the student teacher has to face the entrance of the classroom for the first time. The peculiar face, the head of the little girl, and the wolf's teeth of the boy, seem to be impossible.

Besides having the task of trying to instilling at least a few of the smallest gems all children are learning is, in fact, the joy of the entire school year, which is feeling the happy little children running to play "Ring Tlutling" and "Little Red Riding Hood." Each morning tidings of the classroom, no doubt many a faculty member wonders over her or he or she will have gotten up in time to be in the classroom by the time David and Mary said that when she grows up she will be just like her mother, (in the long history of the classroom and in preparation, it's impossible to make any teacher's day complete. Interestingly, one of the main attractions of this school is the opportunity to cut off the "flying things" that come from the air, and most of the boys and girls are covered with the answer to the question. First Senior Prom Heads Weekend
As Social Season Draws To Close

Bringing up the finish of the social activities of the year, seniors will shake off those pre-exam worries with their first annual Senior Prom in the Men's Gym from 9 to 12 p.m. tomorrow. Reminiscing will be the theme for this semi-formal dance and Lou Waterman will furnish the music. Making the evening complete will be entertainment during the intermission and punch and cookies to be served.

Around the side will be tables and chairs with no end lights under a false ceiling of crepe paper. Originator of the idea for a Senior Prom is Bill Bishop, president of the senior class. It is hoped that this will become an annual celebration for the seniors.

Tickets are $1 per couple and member of the couple must be either a June, August, or February graduate.

Ellie Young is the chairman of the dance and helping her are: Steve Ahlfield, Nick Bicchi, Paul Hupf, Sally Simine, Dick Cook, Dick Dot, and Bill Parpel.

Candidate Slim "Mickey" will be shown in the Main Aud. tonight at 7 and 9 p.m. in the Main Aud.
