Dr. Frank J. Prout Resigns Presidency; NEA Official Takes Post September 1

By W. DUANE ZUMBROHN

Dr. Ralph W. McDonald, an official of the National Education Association in Washington, D. C., signed a 3-year contract yesterday to become the fourth president in the history of the Bowling Green State University. He is currently executive secretary of the Department of Higher Education of the NEA.

Dr. Frank J. Prout announced his resignation yesterday. After 15 years of leadership, the man who has been president of the University for 15 years and who yesterday announced his resignation, will retire to a home that is not far from the place where he was born 68 years ago.

Dr. Frank J. Prout was born at Prout Station near Sandy Hook in 1939, the junior college president took a B.S. degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1966. He received the honorary degree of doctor of pedagogy from Ohio University in 1975, and a doctor of education degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1975. His administrative career began in 1963 with his appointment as assistant secretary of the Department of Higher Education by Dr. John Overman.

Dr. McDonald, in addition to his present responsibilities, will also serve as executive secretary of the National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards. He has served in that capacity since 1954.

Lender in Education

As an official of NEA, Dr. McDonald served in a University system and regional bodies. The office has been responsible for (1) National-wide administrative and professional affiliation of teacher certification which has resulted in standards in practically every state; (2) National-wide movement to improve teacher education programs, (3) Movement to unify and promote cooperation between colleges, universities, and public school teachers in dealing with current problems, (4)サイズの2,000,000 from Infantile Paralysis, mostly revised to $200,000 to the states, in name of the dollar.

(5) National Conference of State Directors of Education, the largest and strongest professional organization to establish high standards in education, (6) National Conference of State Directors of Education.

Dr. McDonald has also been a legislator in North Carolina, representing the 24th district in the House of Representatives, serving from 1948 to 1954. He was the North Carolina delegate to the National Education Association and the professional organization to establish high standards in education.

Artist Series Group Lists Summer Events
Eva Jessye Choir, Soprano Soloist, News Commentator Fill Schedule

By NANCY WOON
Prof. Wilbur Abel, chairman of the Artist Series Committee, has announced that three programs have been scheduled for the summer school Artist Series.

The Eva Jessye Choir will sing June 27; Lucile Cummings, soprano soloist, will give a concert July 11; and News Commentator Dorothy Fulpaid will speak July 26.

The all-Negro choir, consisting of 19 voices, appeared here in March, 1945. They have sung with the Metropolitan Opera, and appeared in "Porgy and Bess" and other Broadway productions.

Miss Cummings, former star of the Telephone Survey on the radio, has sung with the New York Civic Light Opera and the San Francisco Opera.

Both she and the Eva Jessye Choir will sing in Bowling Green en route to Chicago for personal appearances in Grant Park, where the usual audience is about 150,000. The choir will sing there June 29 and Miss Cummings on July 14.

Blue Publikait is a wall-hung news kommentator and has her own program on a Cleveland television station.

The programs have been scheduled two weeks apart so that they may not interfere with the courses.

The programs will be held in the Main Hall from 8 to 9 A.M. and 7 to 8 P.M., and the concerts during the summer months difficult to assemble large crowds for evening programs.

The public may attend free of charge.

The regular 101-102 Artist Series will open the evening of Aug. 31 with the Dan Carlock Chorus in the Men's Gym. The group is

Appointments Office Cites Job Demands

Secretarial, Sales Workers Needed, Says Ralph Geer, Bureau Director

By DUANE SUMMERS

Demands for secretarial and sales workers have far exceeded the supply of graduating seniors, according to Ralph Geer, director of the University's Bureau of Appointments.

Mr. Geer emphasized that there are enough capable graduates to fill these positions but the Bureau does not have an adequate supply of names in its files. The inadequacy of the supply is in part due to the fact that students do not list it on the Bureau's purpose or of its helpfulness.

The Bureau, until a few years ago, was restricted to the placement of graduates of the College of Education. It has since been enlarged to include the largest number of job applicants in the fields of business, science, the TRCA, and the TRCA.

One woman graduate has accepted a position in the Bureau, as business with American Air Lines.

Mr. Geer in the files are approximately 150 names of persons who have taken the Bureau's training classes to date, that the Bureau has a 460 filling each month a person will receive a job by personal recommendation of names in its files. The inadequacy of the supply is in part due to the fact that students do not list it on the Bureau's purpose or of its helpfulness.
