Festivities planned for Hispanic Awareness Week April 2 to 7

The goal of this special week is to raise awareness among the student body about Hispanic cultural issues. The following events are part of the festivities:

On Monday, April 3, the Advisory Committee of the Hispanic Awareness Student Services Board and the Office of Student Affairs will present a fashion show featuring Latino and Chicano clothing.

A five-course dinner will be held on Tuesday, April 4, at the University Club. The event will feature guest speakers and entertainment.

On Wednesday, April 5, the Hispanic Awareness Student Services Board will host a bilingual film festival featuring Latin American and Hispanic films.

On Thursday, April 6, the Hispanic Awareness Student Services Board will hold a community service day, with volunteers working on various projects.

On Friday, April 7, the Hispanic Awareness Student Services Board will present a musical performance featuring Latin American and Hispanic music.

These events are part of a larger celebration of Hispanic culture, and are sponsored by the Hispanic Awareness Student Services Board and the Office of Student Affairs.

BG's United Way earns award for its campaign management

The United Way of Great Toledo, which is a part of the United Way of Greater Toledo, has received a national award for its campaign management. The award recognizes the United Way's ability to manage its campaign effectively, and it is the first time that the University has received such an award.

The United Way's campaign manager, Denise Beach, said, "We are very proud of this achievement. It is a testament to the hard work and dedication of all of our volunteers."
Festivities planned for Hispanic Awareness Week April 2 to 7

The University's Hispanic Awareness Committee has planned a variety of special events for Hispanic Awareness Week, April 2-7. Events have been scheduled to meet a variety of needs of Hispanic students, and to provide information and support for the campus community.

A proclamation will be announced in the coming days detailing the special event schedule. The Office of Student Affairs and the Office of Student Services will provide further information.
