Thursday, April 25

New Vacancies

Secretary 1
Pay Range 526
New London, Conn.
Fax 413-523-8130

Faculty/Staff positions available:

Applied Human Ecology: Assistant professor, human development and family studies degree (2 positions). Also assistant professor, consumer education degree (2 positions). For all positions, contact Dr. Steven B. Sack (217-333-3163). Deadline: May 1.

Psychology: University psychology-human service coordinator in rural and social psychology. Also assistant professor. Need someone familiar with computer science/minor, updated computer lab. Also, introduction to psychology professor must be able to teach in rural schools. Deadline: May 1.

Women’s Studies: Assistant professor of gender studies with an environmental emphasis. Liberal Studies and Research, 1st Floor, Contact Center East (215-333-6363).

Friday, April 27

College of Technology—Ontario: Adjunct Professor of Psychology at the University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, N.B. Deadline: May 15.

College of Technology—Ontario: Lecturer in French and/or English, 12 months, 10 credits. Deadline: May 15.

Saturday, April 28

Sunday, April 29

Monday, April 30

Mellac to receive alumni award

The University will present the 1988 Distinguished Alumni Award to Vetter in recognition of his many accomplishments and contributions. This award is presented annually to an outstanding graduate of the University who has achieved recognition in the arts, sciences, business, education, law, community service, or other fields.

Vetter's contributions to the University are numerous and varied. He has served on the Board of Trustees, the Alumni Association, and the College of Business Administration. He has also been involved in numerous other organizations and activities, including the American Bar Association, the American Bar Association's Section on Education, and the American Bar Foundation.

Vetter's work has been recognized with numerous awards and honors, including the Distinguished Alumni Award from the University of Michigan, the Distinguished Service Award from the American Bar Association, and the Distinguished Service Award from the American Bar Foundation.

Vetter is a native of Michigan and received his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan in 1950. He received his law degree from the University of Michigan Law School in 1952.

Highwater to speak at Firelands

The University will host a public lecture on the topic of "Highwater" by Dr. Henry A. Davis, professor of psychology at the University of Michigan. The lecture will be held at 7 p.m. on Thursday, October 10, in the University Center auditorium.

Dr. Davis is the author of numerous books and articles on the topic of "Highwater," including "Highwater: An Introduction to the Study of Human Behavior," which was published in 1965.

The lecture is free and open to the public. A reception will follow the lecture at 6 p.m. in the University Center ballroom.

Faculty/Staff publications

Richard Burke, educational foundations and policy, has been appointed to the position of dean of the College of Education. He will assume his duties in January.

K. Yameen Rasool, sociology, was appointed to the position of associate professor in the department of sociology. He will assume his duties in September.

Kyu Seung Lee, computer science, was appointed to the position of assistant professor in the department of computer science. He will assume his duties in September.

J. David Reed, economics, was appointed to the position of assistant professor in the department of economics. He will assume his duties in September.

Faculty/Staff grants

Roger Bennett and Margaret Baker, both of the College of Education, have received a $200,000 grant from the National Science Foundation to support research on the effects of technology on learning.

Michael Brown, sociology, has received a $100,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities to support research on the effects of technology on learning.

Viera Sitek, psychology, has received a $50,000 grant from the National Science Foundation to support research on the effects of technology on learning.

Faculty/Staff recognition

Annette Cash, mathematician, was selected as the Mathematics Department Chair for the 1988-1989 academic year. She will assume her duties in September.

Viera Sitek, psychology, was selected as the psychology department chair for the 1988-1989 academic year. She will assume her duties in September.

Michael Brown, sociology, was selected as the sociology department chair for the 1988-1989 academic year. He will assume his duties in September.

Highwater to speak at Firelands

The University will host a public lecture on the topic of "Highwater" by Dr. Henry A. Davis, professor of psychology at the University of Michigan. The lecture will be held at 7 p.m. on Thursday, October 10, in the University Center auditorium.

Dr. Davis is the author of numerous books and articles on the topic of "Highwater," including "Highwater: An Introduction to the Study of Human Behavior," which was published in 1965.

The lecture is free and open to the public. A reception will follow the lecture at 6 p.m. in the University Center ballroom.

Faculty/Staff publications

Richard Burke, educational foundations and policy, has been appointed to the position of dean of the College of Education. He will assume his duties in January.

K. Yameen Rasool, sociology, was appointed to the position of associate professor in the department of sociology. He will assume his duties in September.

Kyu Seung Lee, computer science, was appointed to the position of assistant professor in the department of computer science. He will assume his duties in September.

J. David Reed, economics, was appointed to the position of assistant professor in the department of economics. He will assume his duties in September.

Faculty/Staff grants

Roger Bennett and Margaret Baker, both of the College of Education, have received a $200,000 grant from the National Science Foundation to support research on the effects of technology on learning.

Michael Brown, sociology, has received a $100,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities to support research on the effects of technology on learning.

Viera Sitek, psychology, has received a $50,000 grant from the National Science Foundation to support research on the effects of technology on learning.

Faculty/Staff recognition

Annette Cash, mathematician, was selected as the Mathematics Department Chair for the 1988-1989 academic year. She will assume her duties in September.

Viera Sitek, psychology, was selected as the psychology department chair for the 1988-1989 academic year. She will assume her duties in September.

Michael Brown, sociology, was selected as the sociology department chair for the 1988-1989 academic year. He will assume his duties in September.

Highwater to speak at Firelands

The University will host a public lecture on the topic of "Highwater" by Dr. Henry A. Davis, professor of psychology at the University of Michigan. The lecture will be held at 7 p.m. on Thursday, October 10, in the University Center auditorium.

Dr. Davis is the author of numerous books and articles on the topic of "Highwater," including "Highwater: An Introduction to the Study of Human Behavior," which was published in 1965.

The lecture is free and open to the public. A reception will follow the lecture at 6 p.m. in the University Center ballroom.

Faculty/Staff publications

Richard Burke, educational foundations and policy, has been appointed to the position of dean of the College of Education. He will assume his duties in January.

K. Yameen Rasool, sociology, was appointed to the position of associate professor in the department of sociology. He will assume his duties in September.

Kyu Seung Lee, computer science, was appointed to the position of assistant professor in the department of computer science. He will assume his duties in September.

J. David Reed, economics, was appointed to the position of assistant professor in the department of economics. He will assume his duties in September.

Faculty/Staff grants

Roger Bennett and Margaret Baker, both of the College of Education, have received a $200,000 grant from the National Science Foundation to support research on the effects of technology on learning.

Michael Brown, sociology, has received a $100,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities to support research on the effects of technology on learning.

Viera Sitek, psychology, has received a $50,000 grant from the National Science Foundation to support research on the effects of technology on learning.

Faculty/Staff recognition

Annette Cash, mathematician, was selected as the Mathematics Department Chair for the 1988-1989 academic year. She will assume her duties in September.

Viera Sitek, psychology, was selected as the psychology department chair for the 1988-1989 academic year. She will assume her duties in September.

Michael Brown, sociology, was selected as the sociology department chair for the 1988-1989 academic year. He will assume his duties in September.
Pfeiffer takes development position

Rosanna D. Pfeiffer, who has held positions in development at both Ohio Wesleyan University and Miami University, has been named assistant director of development at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

She will assume the position in January, becoming the first director of development at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

In his new position, Pfeiffer will be responsible for the overall management of the development program, including solicitation, fund raising and donor relations.

She comes to the University of Illinois at Chicago from Miami University, where she was assistant dean of development.

Pfeiffer is also an active member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and the Association of Advancement of Collegiate Athletics.

Mellor to receive alumni award

The University will present the 1990 Distinguished Graduate Student Award to William Mellor, an assistant professor of psychology.

The award will be presented at a ceremony to be held in February.

Mellor is a research assistant professor of psychology at the University.

Vetter joins residential services

Vetter is a 24-year-old student at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

He has been named assistant director of development for the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

Vetter will be responsible for the overall management of the development program, including solicitation, fund raising and donor relations.

He is also a member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and the Association of Advancement of Collegiate Athletics.

Highwater to speak at Firelands

Highwater, a high school student at Theodore High School, will speak at Firelands College.

She will be the second student from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy to speak at Firelands College.

Pfeiffer, who has held positions in development at both Ohio Wesleyan University and Miami University, was named assistant director of development at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

He will assume the position in January, becoming the first director of development at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

In his new position, Pfeiffer will be responsible for the overall management of the development program, including solicitation, fund raising and donor relations.

She comes to the University of Illinois at Chicago from Miami University, where she was assistant dean of development.

Pfeiffer is also an active member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and the Association of Advancement of Collegiate Athletics.

Mellor to receive alumni award

The University will present the 1990 Distinguished Graduate Student Award to William Mellor, an assistant professor of psychology.

The award will be presented at a ceremony to be held in February.

Mellor is a research assistant professor of psychology at the University.

Vetter joins residential services

Vetter is a 24-year-old student at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

He has been named assistant director of development for the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

Vetter will be responsible for the overall management of the development program, including solicitation, fund raising and donor relations.

He is also a member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and the Association of Advancement of Collegiate Athletics.

Highwater to speak at Firelands

Highwater, a high school student at Theodore High School, will speak at Firelands College.

She will be the second student from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy to speak at Firelands College.

Pfeiffer, who has held positions in development at both Ohio Wesleyan University and Miami University, was named assistant director of development at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

He will assume the position in January, becoming the first director of development at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy.

In his new position, Pfeiffer will be responsible for the overall management of the development program, including solicitation, fund raising and donor relations.

She comes to the University of Illinois at Chicago from Miami University, where she was assistant dean of development.

Pfeiffer is also an active member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and the Association of Advancement of Collegiate Athletics.
Summer hours start next week

The University and Firelands College will begin offering summer hours from May 7 and continue through August 10. With the inception of Memorial Day and Independence Day, regular work hours will be from 7:30 a.m. to noon from Monday through Thursday, and from 12:30 to 5 p.m. on Friday. Memorial Day falls on Monday, May 28 and July 4 is also a Monday. To make up for the additional hours worked during these days, the hour differential will be prorated.

Be sure to vote in CSC election

Classified employees will be electing new representatives to Classified Staff Council, so if you are a classified employee you can vote from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Memorial Hall, Student Union Room 100 (if your classification code for University 1.0 is to receive a ballot.

Running for executive branch

For two three-year terms in academic affairs: Nancy White, lawrence, public library, a library associate who has been employed at the University for 17 years; Delores Reynolds, economics, who has worked at the University for 31 years, as secretary. Teresa Kuskin, institutional

Summer computer seminars set

Computer services will offer a variety of computer seminars this summer. Interests persons should contact by calling by 372-2100. Seminars include:

- "Starting the Mac (MacWorld)" will be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Monday, June 4. It will cover the basics of creating and managing and a variety of applications using Macintosh.
- "Trailer (MacWorld)" will be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Monday, July 1. It will cover the basics of creating and managing and a variety of applications using Macintosh.
- "Intro to Hypercard (MacWorld)" will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, June 6. It will cover the basics of creating and managing and a variety of applications using Macintosh.
- "Intro to Hypercard (MacWorld)" will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, June 6. It will cover the basics of creating and managing and a variety of applications using Macintosh.

New representatives are elected to council

Administrative staff have elected new representatives to three-year terms on Administrative Staff Council.

Begging their terms in the fall from academic affairs are: Susan Duggan (professor), Terri Grant (secretary), Mary Beth Zachary (facilities and learning resources). Paul Yon, for Academic Collections and Proposals. In student affairs: Tom Gorman.

Dining facilities close

Food Operations has announced the spring closing dates for its various campus facilities

- Spaces that will be closing include: Animal, 12 p.m. (April 30); Cylia, 11 a.m. (May 2); Darby, 10 a.m. (May 4); Garfield, 10 a.m. (May 3); Lafayette, 11 a.m. (May 3); and Pratts, 10 a.m. (May 3)

Deadline is April 30

The deadline for the 1990 Michael R. Ferrante Award is 5 p.m. on Monday, April 30. The award, presented on the occasion of the University’s Opening Day festivities, honors an outstanding member of the administrative staff.

Nomination forms will be available to all administrative staff. However, if additional forms are necessary, they can be obtained at the University Information System (UIS) or the Office of the President for students at the University. A completed form should be sent to the President, 913 Administration Building. Return evaluations

All offices of classified staff are reminded that the annual performance evaluations for their staff are due to personnel services by Friday, May 4.

Faculty/Staff positions are available

The following faculty positions are available:

- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health physical education.
- Assistant professor, health physical education.
- Assistant professor, health physical education.
- Assistant professor, health physical education.

Applications and nominations for the above positions are due by Friday, May 4. For all positions, contact Dean R. James (226-226).

- Faculty member of Russian language program, contact Dr. C. Thompson (7272). Deadline: May 4.

- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.

- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.

- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.

- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.

- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.

- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.
- Assistant professor, health education.