Swan Club Presents Aque Show

Swan Club will present its twelfth annual synchronized show in the theme of "Swans of Time" Thursday through Saturday, May 7-9, in the Natorium.

Approximately another $5,000 will be poured into the crop of seven dorms which make up Fraternity Row in an effort to improve the sleeping and studying facilities in the house, according to telegrams released yesterday by President Ralph W. McDonald.

Only last summer a $10,000-purse house project was completed which converted one room on the houses into lounge space with picture windows.

The entire sleeping and study space in the fraternity homes will be remodeled in an effort to bring the sleeping and study facilities up to a level equal to lounges and dining accommodations.

When remodeling is completed, the dorms will house from 25 to 24 men instead of the present number of 24 living in the fraternity headquarters. The lower beds will even more space per person. Angle closet space will be installed, according to President McDonald.

Most of the revisions will be done at the second dorm of the homes, where the present sleeping and study facilities are now.

The dorms will be remodeled in an effort to bring the sleeping and study facilities up to a level equal to lounges and dining accommodations.

Swan Club will present its twelfth annual synchronized swimming show in the theme of "Swans of Time" Thursday through Saturday, May 7-9, in the Natorium.

"The Night Is Young." Carol took part in a duet number, "Sonata in A major'' by 3 p.m. Friday. C. Schumacher judged the working project, Harvey D. Miner.

The committee hopes to be able to announce the names of the students for these elections.

Students, Faculty Get Measured For Gowns

Swan Club continues to take measurements and faculty members should have their measurements taken for the new and gray gowns today through Thursday in the University Book Store.

Additional Courses Offered Next Year

Candidates for May graduation will be held April 27 for May 7 for May 8.

The committee hopes to be able to announce the names of the students for these elections.

Yankee-German Relations
Noted by Hitler Youth Vet

BY MANLEY ANDERSON

Hitler Reita, 20-year-old exchange student, has learned that it is a long way from Hausen 1 Kr., Limburg, Germany, to the bowling green in the American zone of the Rhineland.

Journey preliminaries began two years ago while he was still attending high school in a small town near Frankfurt in the American zone of Germany.

He arrived on his day of de tination last September to study here for one year under the auspices of the Institution for International Education.

Frosch Star Quits School

Ronnie Shimmerak, a freshman who won the $150 first prize in the frontispiece basketball prospectus from this year's Football Guide published by The State, Green left the university last week.

Reports from several campuses indicated that a number of stars were expected to transfer to the University and would be competing in the coming season.

A transfer student from a neighboring college, who was expected to receive a scholarship, was admitted to the University. His name is being kept a secret until after the registration period.

The addition of the star player to the football team will increase the chances for a successful season.

Woodland Signs With Browns Next Season

Jack Woodland, former Bowling Green, Ohio, standout, has signed another contract to play for Paul Brown, the professional football team. The former two-platoon player was picked on many Little All-American teams in 1951 when he set the University record for total yardage while running from the fullback position. He was outstanding as a line-backer on defense as well as a hard-driving runner on offense.

Woodland was with the Browns for a short time last summer working for the starting line-backing job, but he was forced out of the game in a friendly with a high school in the coaching job. He was called as a fullback for the upcoming season in which he has played a farm role in the Brown's in 1950 and was named to the league's most valuable player.
