Blood Doners Give 171 Pints, Quota Topped

One hundred seventy-one persons were directed to donate and were turned down. Forty persons were turned away because of lack of time and miscellaneous reasons, where the reason for their refusal was not accepted.

Lute Connell and Arthur Lon- der both became members of the Alpha Phi Omega blood bank commission. Rice expressed his thanks to those who came and directed the blood that they donated their eight pint of blood to the Red Cross. Rice said that several donors had already donated some of their blood because they made them eligible for the Tech Blood Bank.

Swan Club Show Is Colorful, Peppy Tour Into History

By GEORCHIE VAN BRUIN

This year the Swan Club of Bowling Green State University will present "The History of the Swan," a colorful, peppy tour through history. The show will be set through the history of the twentieth century, a history portrayed by every country, every nation, every city, every state.

The show, directed by Iris Andrews and Miss Dorothy Lowel-

s, will open to a good reception from the public. Florid crowds lengths the program and has been such a hit, that a production of the show is expected to create a major effect as they gain in popularity.

In Our Opinion

Independent Or Greek

In years past, The Men's Independent Society has been perfectly within their rights to exclude students from certain events. According to Herbert Scott, president of IFC, it is doubtful whether such a rule will be made. It must not be overlooked of course, that it is up to each fraternity to decide who they wish to invite to a function sponsored by them.

Of course, this does not exclude the possibility of a gentleman's agreement among the fraternities to exclude MIS from certain events.

The fraternities are perfectly within their rights to exclude students from certain events. If the purpose of the event is to have fraternities participate.

If a fraternity fails to make the required point average during any semester, the student will automatically be placed on social probation. If the required average in the following semester is not made, only I wouldn't lie about it. If we wrote editorials on a few controversial issues, it is not that we are sissies or afraid to write. It is just that it is easier to write an editorial blasting something than one praising it. Second, the only one who gets hit is the writer himself.

In writing an editorial we first have to find out what facts. We write the editorial without looking into the matter too much, but put the situation no longer exists—then who looks silly.

Scholarship Plan Lifts Social

Probation At End Of Semester

A proposed scholarship improvement plan was passed by the Interfraternity Council, which is a group of representatives from all fraternities on campus. The plan is to have a scholarship fund for students who need help paying for their education. The money will come from a number of sources, including donations from alumni and friends of the university.

Falcons Stop Wayne 8-5, Meet TU Here Tomorrow

By DICK SELL

The Falcon diamond men opened the 1964 campaign in grand fashion Friday afternoon by dumping Wayne University 8-5 on the Falcons' home grounds.

Chuck Hunter worked the first seven innings for Bowling Green and only gave up two hits to become the winning hurler. Fred Price relieved in the seventh and finished out for the Falcons.

Bowling Green scored all eight of its runs in the first three innings as Wayne failed to put a single runner on base. Hunter retired the last six batters in the first inning by striking out three and getting three flyouts.

Today the Falcons play host to Detroit in a 7:30 p.m. game in the opening round of the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association tournament.
