Guy Lombardo Will Play Tonight, Tomorrow; Gardner, Trio, Twin Pianos To Be Featured

Guy Lombardo and His Royal Canadians will bring "the sweetest music this side of Heaven" to the campus for the first time tonight, from 8:30 p.m. until midnight. All women students will receive automatic 1 a.m. permission both of these nights.

Featured in the band are Lombardo's brothers, Carmen, Lelbert, and Guy Lombardo as flutist. Lebert is a saxophone and clarinet player and Flannigan, guitarist; Cliff Grass, the Lombardo twin pianos.

"Lombardo's name has become so familiar to millions that the formula has been to emphasize simplicity and melody. As a result, Lombardo's music is simple in an ear- catching, yet sophisticated way. Tomorrow's Assurance

"Progress is the activity of today and the assurance of tomorrow."

Thursday is the opening day of the University Union. It is an event that cannot be hotly disputed with genuine attachment within every member of the University family, but the opening is not merely an event that will be remembered just for the day three opening; the remainder of the present academic year, and for the next several years.

Rather, it is an event that will long be remembered, not for the actual opening itself, but for the insight, dedication and hard work that made a nebulous dream a tangible reality.

In this respect, as the University expands forward both academically and physically so too will the enrollment in-41. Our problems or serve as a panacea. It still remains for each of us to realize that the Union itself will hold interviews from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The following companies have been activated with the opening of the Union at 7 p.m. Sunday. The balcony of the Grand Ballroom to be given will be free, but a special ticket must be purchased before the hour of performance. Students Day." Highlight of Sunday's events will beactivated with the opening of the University Union and Shatiel Hall. They will be placed between Prout Chapel and Johnsc-teacher placements.

Official Welcome
University Union—the same
implies exactly what this magniificent building, a fellowship center, a home for student life, is to society. We shall become accustomized to hearing and saying. "I'll sec you there." The Union is the neste university
planned and finished building, a fellowship center,
replete with beauty and good taste.
There arc some aspects that are more or less common in the University Union. Most certainly you will find the building warm and inviting. This did not just happen.
Excellence is not left to chance.
The Union will also be an educational center for many local organizations, including the Ohio
and the nation will be strenghthened through the many constructive meetings and contentions in a numbers of large de-
frared Ohio Teachers Association,

other informal areas. Harmsworth fabric and fixtures, and design
are combined to produce an interior that is both beautiful and good taste. The building is of structural steel construction and is fireproof.

LARGE PLATE-GLASS WINDOWS which look out on the University Field is just one of the many attractions of the new Falcone Room. The floor is finished in a combination of marquetry and tile seating in a medley of colors, including blues, white, and terracotta. Chairs are bound in hand-made plaid slip in covers, white, maroon, blue and yellow. Doors and woodwork in the elevator and snack bar is bound in white and walnut tanneum.

"WAITING MADE PLEASANT" could describe the Cardinal Room, an informal recreation lounge of the main lobby of the Union. Panelled in walnut, with a mural of the state bird of Ohio, the room is designed to provide a comfortable place for persons to wait for friends to arrive for dinner, a meeting, or a conference.

A PLATE-GLASS WALL separates the second floor stair landing from the Promenade Lounge. Divided into four groups of marquetry furniture, entertainment in gray and pink-striped colored leather and Naugahyde, the lounge is designed for conversation, reading, relaxation, and waiting with friends.

"GOODS FOR CASUAL READING" and a high-fidelity record player containing 200 selections of the world's greatest music are just two of the features to be found in the Browsing Room. Here, students may read for pleasure and enjoyment, as opposed to studying assignments in the Library.

"Congratulations Bowling Green State University . . .

We know you are proud of the finest University Union in the State of Ohio—we too, are very proud! Naturally you wanted the finest in custom designed carpeting and we at Byers Floor Covering Company are proud indeed to have been selected for this important task—nearly 3,000 yards of carefully selected wool carpeting from the "Looms of Mohawk" add to the beauty and grace of this fine building.

Headquarters for the finest in Carpeting and Custom-made draperies.

Historical Rooms Emphasize Union's Ohio Theme

FOUR MATCHED OAK DOORS mark the entrance to the Great Hall. Its hardwood maple floor contains more than a third of an acre of space opened up with a column. The hall will comfortably accommodate 1,500 denizens at one time, 1,000 for a lecture or concert, and will seat 500 for a lecture or concert. From the hall's light control panel located behind a window in the stage room an almost unlimited number of lighting combinations can be obtained, varying from the standard sky effect to daytime brightness. Besides white light, eight rotating color wheels in the ceiling can provide a constantly changing pattern of lights.

ANOTHER RECREATION, BILLIARDS, can be enjoyed in the Buckeye Room. Here, true tables, billiards, and pool are provided for players, and spectators can be drawn closer to one side of the room. This view from the north end of the room shows the buckeye mural, from which the room gets its name.

MUSIC EVERY EVENING will be one of the many features of the Carousel Room, named for the state flower of Ohio. The room will be open every evening with a jamboree providing music on the weekends. Recorded music will be provided for dancing on other nights except Sunday when a buffet will be set up at the center of the room for supper between 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. At this time music will be played on a Baldwin organ.

“IT'S A STRIKE!” will soon echo through the Buckeye Room's eight macadam bowling lanes. The lanes are equipped with fully automatic AMF pin-spotters, making the room Bowling Green's most modern. Spectators will enjoy comfortable seats here, and some waiting for a turn can get their hair cut in the barbershop which is in the area of the Buckeye Room.

CHEERFUL AND COLORFUL describe the Alcove Porch Residence Hall Dining Room. A private glass-walled passageway from the Residence Hall allows the residents to enter the Union for their meals. Table have one in painted columns and the pleasant atmosphere is completed with the use of colorful wallpaper siblings of bronze and bronze on the east and west walls.

The Historical Meeting Rooms, named in memory of Gen. Anthony Wayne, Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry, Lt. Col. George Croghan and Gen. William Henry Harrison, are utilized to render historic services to Ohio and U.S. History. These murals are located on the third floor of the Union. The photorealist above, based on the east wall of the Wayno Room, depicts the landing of the Treaty of Greenville on August 3, 1795. The mural above the wartime colors of bronze and bronze on the east and west walls.

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS DESCRIBE the Allen Kent Residence Hall Lecture Room. A private glass-walled passageway from the Residence Hall allows the residents to enter the Union for their meals.
