Who's SICSIC?

SICSIC Fosters Campus Spirit; 6 Members Bound To Anonymity

SICSIC... What does it mean?... Who are its members?... The mere mention of the two syllable word baffles hundreds of students on campus. What type of an organization is it? These questions along with numerous others are being asked constantly. Let's find out.

"SICSIC sez" has become synonymous with spirit on the University campus since the inception of the organization in 1946 by Dr. Frank J. Prout, now president emeritus. The group, which binds six mask-wearing students to anonymity until their senior year, stimulates school spirit through the use of "signs."

Six men, two from each of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, are picked to don the garb and masks of secrecy in the spring of their freshman year by the existing members of SICSIC. They then roam the campus groups, dormitories, and buildings displaying their banners, posters, placards, and poems each beginning with the "SICSIC sez" phrase.

What's Your Guess?

As has been done in the past years, the NEWS is conducting a poll to see who the student body thinks the senior members of SICSIC are. Merely write on a slip of paper, I believe the senior SICSIC members are.

All ballots are to be returned to the NEWS Office, 318 Administration Bldg. by Friday, May 2 at 5 p.m.

Each year at Honors Day the two senior members of the organization are revealed. The only deviation in the history of SICSIC from the two class members per year quota was at the 1952 Honors Day presentation when three seniors were named. One had been drafted from school at the conclusion of his second year and a substitute was admitted into the club.

SICSIC uses a University car for its nightly enterprises, and the University police have been known to run interference for the group when members of the student body attempted to catch the secret six at work.

The members of the organization sacrifice personal recognition and distinction in order to achieve one prime goal: promote better school spirit.

In accomplishing this task the members spend many hours in painting banners and posters and in the construction and erection of displays. All of the organization's work is done after midnight.

Last year Don Phinney and Fred Ashley were unmasked as the two senior members of SICSIC by President Ralph W. McDonald and were presented with SICSIC trophies.

Who will the senior members of the organization be this year? Your guess is as good as ours!

'Barkers' Will Highlight Carnival

Fun and laughs galore can be had tonight at the Greek Week Carnival to be held in the National Guard Armory on Wooster Street from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m.

There will be no admission charge and the participation price at booths which have been constructed by the fraternities and sororities is only five cents. The proceeds will go to the University Foundation Fund which is a fund to aid scholarship students and those in need of financial assistance.

According to Robert Greenberg and Gayle Meyer, co-chairmen of the Carnival, the fraternities and sororities have produced some very original ideas. Several examples are the Alpha Xi Delta-Sigma Alpha Epsilon booth entitled "Fireman's Frolic." The object will be to extinguish a row of candles with a water pistol. Winners will be awarded a water pistol. "Work Over the Warden" is the catchy slogan for the Kappa Delta-Delta Tau Delta booth. The object here is to "ring" a person with an inflated inner tube. A paper ball and chain will be the prize. Alpha Gamma Delta and Alpha Tau Omega are work-

Eleven To Attend OCNA Meeting

Eleven members of the NEWS staff will leave the campus at noon today to attend the Ohio College Newspaper Association Convention in Springfield, Ohio, according to Jeff Osoff, editor-in-chief.

During the conference, discussion groups will be held regarding numerous newspaper problems. Highlight of the convention will be the annual banquet at which time awards will be presented to the winning papers.

Earlier in the semester the NEWS, along with all other Ohio college newspapers, submitted numerous entries for the many categories, Osoff said.

Some of the awards to be presented will be for the best Ohio college newspaper, best front page makeup, best typography, best picture story, best news and best sports photograph, best column, best sports story, best news story, best editorial, and best sports column.

Each paper is divided into representative groups, Osoff said. The NEWS is entered in the daily category as it is published twice a week or more. The NEWS will vie against such papers as Ohio State, Kent, Miami, Ohio University, Cincinnati, and Ohio Wesleyan.

Pledges Plan Cleanup For Campus And City

The annual Greek Week campus and community pledge project, to be held from 9 a.m. to noon tomorrow, differs from pledge projects held in the past years. This year the pledges will conduct a general campus cleanup and still clean several public areas in the city of Bowling Green. The city park, pool, cemetery and several playgrounds are scheduled for cleanup in the city.

Pledges from all fraternities and sororities will take part in the project. The pledge trainer of each group will be in charge of its pledges.

NONA To Meet Today

The Northwestern Ohio Newspaper Association will hold a meeting in the University Union today, Friday, April 25. Representatives from the dailies and weeklies of the Northwestern area will attend. This organization holds four meetings a year one of which is at Bowling Green.

Charles Noble, state director of highways, will be the guest speaker. The journalism department will act as hosts. Included in the day's activity will be a coffee hour, tours of the Union, and election of officers.

Dick, Adler Are Named Recipients Of 1957-58 Outstanding Greek Awards

DICK

ADLER

Janet Dick, Alpha Phi, and Hank Adler, Phi Kappa Tau, were revealed as Outstanding Greek Woman and Outstanding Greek Man at the Panhellenic and Interfraternity Council banquets Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Miss Dick was presented the trophy by Patricia Snider, president of Delta Zeta sorority; and Adler was announced by President Ralph W. McDonald.

Contest Opens For BG Banner

The date has been changed for the deadline for entries in the University Flag Contest, announced Morse Sanderson, due to conflict with the Alma Mater Contest. Deadline is now May 10, instead of April 19. All students, faculty, administrative officials, and alumni of the University may take part. The proposed flag will be selected by an anonymous committee chosen by the Student Spirit and Traditions Board.

Sanderson said entries should in some way use the school's colors, perhaps also including the traditional falcon or the University seal. The flag should be designed to impress future students and alumni with the spirit of the University. It should symbolize such ideals as academic and cultural achievement, and place some emphasis on the current building program.

Some rules issued through Sanderson, a member of the Board, are that all entries must be on 8" by 12" paper; all drawings must be in color; and that paint, colored pencils, ink, or crayons may be used. Posters will be placed around the campus later, giving more information, said the chairman. He said the Board hopes "to get a flag that will be the right one for everyone connected with the University. This can only be done if someone from the University family designs it."

When the winning flag is chosen, and the actual banner is made up, it will hang in an impressive position in the University Union, along with the national and state flags, Sanderson said.

Air Force Band Performs Today

The United States Air Force Band, under the direction of Col. George S. Howard, will play a matinee and evening concert today in the Main Auditorium of the University. The Singing Sergeants, the official chorus of the Air Force, under the direction of Capt. Robert L. Landers, will also appear with the band.

The band can perform as a 100-piece marching band, a 90 piece symphony orchestra, an 85 piece symphonic band, a 25 voice glee club (the Singing Sergeants), 5 dance bands, and numerous instrumental groups.

The band's director, Col. Howard, is a recipient of five college degrees from various music conservatories across the nation. Under Col. Howard's direction, the band has made eight international tours, appeared in 30 world capitols and has the distinction of being the only American band to play before the Royal Garden Party at Buckingham Palace.

World Views . . . .

TUNIS—Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba announced Thursday that he has changed his mind about complaining to the U.N. over the French bombing of a frontier village two months ago.

He explained in his weekly broadcast that he had decided not to lodge the complaint because there had been "an improvement in the atmosphere in France."

LJUBLJANA, YUGOSLAVIA—Yugoslavia told the Soviet Union again Thursday that she will resist all attempts to interfere in her internal affairs and that all Communist parties are equal.

The three-day assault on Russian and satellite leaders for attempting to make Yugoslavia conform to Kremlin ideas was carried on this morning by Vice President Edvard Kardelj, Marshall Tito's foremost theoretician.

JERUSALEM—Nearly 100 tanks and armored vehicles and five-thousand troops were to parade through Jerusalem Thursday in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of Israeli independence.

Neighboring Jordan reacted to the display of Israeli military might by ordering tanks and troop reinforcements into her half of the Biblical city, after a protest to the mixed armistice commission failed to halt the parade.

WASHINGTON—The U.S. and its western allies were expected to inform Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in blunt terms that Russia is blocking even first steps to prepare for a Summit meeting.

The western move constitutes a counter-charge to Khrushchev's accusation that the west is to blame for no progress toward world disarmament because it insists on carrying out further nuclear weapon tests.

Business Conferences Scheduled

The College of Business Administration, in cooperation with the Region VI, is offering a series of small business management conferences for owners, managers, and other executives of small businesses.

Focusing attention on major problems in financing, production, marketing, and employee relations, the conferences are designed to enable those attending to arrive at solutions to their executive problems and thus to improve operations through increased managerial knowledge and ability.

The conferences are scheduled as follows:

April 29

Edwin C. Bomeli, associate professor of accounting, will discuss "Pricing and Costing the Product", from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the Harrison and Wayne Rooms of the University Union.

May 1

"Credit Management for Financial Stability" will be presented by Lewis F. Manhart, professor of business administration, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in 300 Administration Bldg.

May 6

"Management of Working Capital" will be presented from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the Ohio Room of the Union by Wilford J. Eitman, professor of finance in the School of Business at the University of Michigan.

May 8

Meril A. May, vice-president, Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., Cleveland, will discuss "The Small Business: Success or Failure" from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in 300 Administration Bldg.

May 13

This will be a special dinner meeting for the awarding of certificates to each member attending five or more of the conferences. At this, the final meeting, Vincent W. Lanfear, dean of the School of Business Administration, University of Pittsburgh will be the speaker. The meeting will be held from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the Historical Rooms of the Union.

2 Profs To Perform At Faculty Concert

Joseph Himmel, baritone, and Fred Young, clarinetist, will be featured soloists at the faculty concert to be held at 8:15 p.m. Sunday, April 27, in the recital hall.

The first part of the program will consist of vocal solos by Mr. Himmel. He will sing "Se L'Aura Spira," by Frescobaldi; "Tagliet-mi La Vita Ancor," by Scarlatti; "O Dolchissima Smeranza," by Scarlatti; and "Non So Se Sia La Speme," by Handel.

Next the audience will hear "Sonata In F Minor," by Brahms, played by Mr. Young on the clarinet.

Mr. Himmel will then sing "Five Songs," from "Opus 23," by Kilpinen.

The third part of the program will consist of two clarinet solos by Mr. Young. He will play "Introduction Et Rondo," by Didore, and "Three Pieces for Clarinet Solo," by Stravinsky.

The closing number on the program will be "Five Songs," by Gurney, sung by Mr. Himmel.

TONIGHT MARKS the second performance of "Phormio," a Roman comedy by Terence, in the Gate Theatre Auditorium at 8:15. Robert Croucher, Gary Schom-er, and Jim Delay are featured in the play, directed by Gary Murray, graduate assistant in speech. The play will be repeated tomorrow night.

Tickets Needed At Greek Dance

Admission tickets are necessary for the Greek Week dance tomorrow night, announced Ron Harmon, co-chairman. The dance, with a Grecian Holiday theme, will be in the Grand Ballroom of the University Union from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Tickets were distributed to all fraternities and sororities. Harmon added that anyone unable to obtain one should contact him at the Pi Kappa Alpha house.

Decorations for the dance will be kept at a minimum, due to the modern surroundings, and will be characterized by a decorative piece in the middle of the ballroom commemorating Grecian Holiday in a modern tone. Entertainment will be continuous from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. When Dan Belloc's orchestra takes its intermission, Chris Connor will come on with a twenty-minute show. Two of these are scheduled for the evening.

No refreshments will be served at the dance, but all facilities of the Union are open to those attending. Flowers will be optional; dress is semi-formal. All women will have automatic 1 a.m. late slips. However, Harmon cautioned, the girls must sign out for the dance to be granted the permissions.

Editorially Speaking

(The following editorial was written by a candidate for the 1958-59 editorship of the B-G NEWS and it does not necessarily reflect the opinion of this year's editor or the staff.)

The Practical Joker

Recently an engagement announcement was turned in to the NEWS which looked much like any other routine engagement—typed on fraternity paper by the person assigned by the fraternity to turn in such information. This engagement was printed in the Pins to Pans column.

But it turned out that this was not a routine engagement—it was all a practical joke. Reverberations occurred and the involved person came to the NEWS office quite upset about the situation of which he was thoroughly unaware.

Was it really fair to this person, was it really fair to the NEWS, or was it really fair to all the readers of the paper that a student publication should suddenly become the tool for the practical joker who thinks "it would be funny if..." We think not!

The student newspaper should serve as the source for all news pertaining to the University family as a whole whether it be society news, alumni news, spot news, announcements, or policies made or changed. The entire staff from reporters to editors strive for complete accuracy in the news printed at all times.

But this is a job which requires much time and much effort on the part of all concerned. It is inconceivable that each pinning, engagement or marriage be checked for accuracy. This is up to the individual turning in the news to make sure it are accurate.

When practical jokers impose in such a way on the NEWS staff, its readers, and on the person named, then it is time to take a quick look back at values and indeed common sense. Practical jokes may be all right in their place, but their place is most certainly not the student newspaper.

Letters To The Editor

To The Editor:

An open letter to Ed Ferkany:

It was a severe jolt to me, Ed, to learn of your recent repudiation of a statement you once made and which was published in my column last Friday, April 18.

I do not doubt, Ed, that you honestly do not remember, or do not want to remember, ever making that statement to me.

To begin with, Ed, my recent column was actually written over a year ago. The article was originally submitted as an assignment in an English 207 class taught by Dr. Robert Chamberlain. The quotation which you deny was printed word-for-word at that time as you told it to me during a conversation we had at a smoker in your fraternity house.

What particularly upsets me, Ed, is your eagerness, aye, may I say over-eagerness, to deny the truth, to question my integrity as a journalist, and to imply that I am a liar.

Upon careful consideration of what I have said, you must come to the conclusion that it is the truth. I have never written anything, Ed, that I did not know or did not honestly believe to be true. I am sorry if what I have said, or your own statement, has caused you injury. Your statement was not published with any malicious intent, merely to illustrate a point. I hope that you will accept this.

Rog Davis

Editor's Note—Following an intensive editorial check of the facts involved in this controversy it is the opinion of the NEWS that Ed Ferkany did state the opinions brought forth in Roger Davis' column. However, since the statements were made a year ago with no thought of publication in mind the NEWS does apologize to Mr. Ferkany for any inconvenience and embarrassment caused by the recent publication of these statements.

To The Editor:

I would like to clarify a few points in reference to Dave Mertz's recent editorial in the NEWS. Dave, it is quite apparent that you knew neither of the individuals suspended from school for stealing gas. For if you did, you never would have referred to them as "bad apples" or "common criminals."

Having cumulative point averages of 2.5 and 2.8, both of these "bad apples" are well behaved and intelligent individuals. One served as a member of IFC, and the other was working twenty hours a week to pay part of his way through college. In addition to this, neither of these students had previously been in trouble with the University, or had ever possessed any kind of a criminal record. I am sure that these facts, along with other facts pertaining to character and standing, can be born out and attested by the many friends and acquaintances these boys have on this campus.

I don't wish to offend you Dave, but these two individuals are far from being "bad apples." I assure you that they are well aware of their one rash mistake, and will take the consequences like men. I admire and respect your concern over this episode, but considering the individuals involved, it is hardly appropriate to brand them as common criminals.

Speech Students To Be Honored

The annual speech recognition dessert will be held in the Dogwood Room of the University Union at 6:30 p.m., May 9.

The dessert is held to honor speech majors and minors, and participants in speech activities. At this time awards will be presented.

Tickets for the dessert are 60 cents and may be purchased from the secretary in Gate 2. It is requested that all reservations be made by May 1.

Summer Jobs Will Be Limited

Due to present economic conditions, summer jobs for college students this year are more limited than last summer, announced James L. Galloway, Placement Officer. Several companies have contacted the Placement Office about summer opportunities.

A student interested in a career in a specific field would do well to investigate summer job opportunities in his particular field. These opportunities give a student a chance to evaluate his capabilities and interest and to discover what course of work should occupy his academic program. The Placement Office welcomes the opportunity to counsel with undergraduates on summer opportunities and vocations.

A paper has been published by the Placement Office on summer job opportunities. It includes such factors as where to look for a summer job, salaries, type of summer jobs available, where to find summer job listings, and other points to assist the student. Copies of this paper are available in the Placement Office, 100 Administration Bldg.

Bliesch To Present Senior Vocal Recital

Charlotte Bliesch, soprano, will present her senior recital at 8:15 p.m. tonight, in the recital hall.

Phyllis Smith will accompany Miss Bliesch at the piano.

The program will be opened with "O! Had I Jubal's Lyre," by Handel.

"How Sweetly Ringing In My Hearing," by Bach, will be the second number on the program. Other selections on the first half of the program will include "Rugbydase, Odorose," by Scarlatti; "Vervargenheit," by Wolfe; "Mondnacht," by Schumann; "Vergebliches Standchen," by Brahms; and "Mi Chiamamo MiMi," by Puccini.

Norene Palm will close the first part of the program with a flute solo, "Lo! Here The Gentle Lark."

The second part of the program will be opened with "Ren Chontre," by Faurer, followed by "Soir," by Faurer; "La Chanson de L'Alouette," by Lalo; "Summertime," by Gershwin; "Evening Prayer," by Moussorgski; "Dear March Came In," by Copland; "The Night Has A Thousand Eyes," by Hege-

Students Given Last Chance For Vaccine

Students are being reminded to sign up immediately for first, second, and third polio shots in the office of their head resident.

"Because the April 30, and May 1, clinics to be held from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. are the last times during the semester that the three injections of the Salk vaccine will be offered, I urge the students to visit the hospital for their shots," Dr. John H. Marsh, director of the University Health Service, said.

College students in the 17 to 25 year age group appear to have a hesitant or "don't care" attitude concerning inoculation against this disease. Yet, when the total number of polio cases are computed each year this group rates heavily.

The Health Service is charging a 50 cent fee for each of the three injections and is asking that each student under 21 have written parental permission.

WBGU Presents Dutch Program

"Radio Nederland," a new series of Dutch light music, can be heard over WBGU every Friday at 6:30 p.m.

The current program group consists of 13 shows with announcements in English by John van der Steen.

The first four programs are by Jos Clebar and his Cosmopolitan Orchestra with special arrangements written by the conductor and performed by Dutch vocal and instrumental soloists of international standing.

Featured in the series are other Dutch favorites such as Johnny Jordaan, an ordinary boy from Amsterdam who rocketed to top billing in the Netherlands recording industry; Paul Godwin, the Dutch exponent of salon music; and Dolf van der Linden, composer, arranger, and conductor, with his popular Metropole Orchestra.

Seven Violators To Be Tried In Open Court

Seven sample parking offenses, including a first, second, third, and fourth offender, will be tried Wednesday night, April 30 by the University Student Court as it tries to answer the questions of students about the Court's operations and parking rules on campus.

Chief Justice Ronald Myers will preside over the 6:30 p.m. open session in the Practical Arts Auditorium and will be backed up by Delight Thompson, Gail Granfield, Edward Ward, and Cromer Smith, the other members of the Court.

Featured Saturday 'Man Called Peter'

Richard Todd and Jean Peters star in the award-winning CinemaScope motion picture, "A Man Called Peter," which will be shown in the Main Auditorium Saturday at 7 p.m. and 9:10 p.m.

The picture involves the story of a Scottish immigrant boy whose conscience would permit no compromise with principles. After fighting his way into the love and affection of the America he adopted, remaining humble throughout, he finally leaves the world a better place in which to live.

A colored cartoon, "Jerry's Cousin," will also be shown.

Cindermen Face Kent Falcon Diamondmen Face WM Over Weekend

The first scheduled home track meet of the season will see the Falcon contingent face Kent State Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. The sophomore-laden Golden Flashes recently crushed John Carroll, 111-35.

Bernie Casey should be fully recovered from his leg injury, but high-jumper—hurdler Lynn Koester is expected to be severely hampered by hepatitis.

Two sophomores, Andy Bajesa and Larry Collucci, provide the nucleus for the Flash track squad. Against John Carroll, Collucci was high scorer with 16 points. He took the 220 in 13.5 seconds and the broad jump with a leap of 21 feet, 2½ inches. He finished third in the 100 yard dash and also ran in the 880 and mile relays.

Bajesa set a new Kent State record by traveling a mile in 4:24.3, bettering the old mark by 10 seconds. He also won the two mile event in 9:51.1.

Another sophomore, Bob Potter, won two events by heaving the shot put 39 feet, five inches, and the discus 130 feet, four inches.

Bowling Green's coach, Bob Whittaker, has already pointed out why the Kent and Detroit meets will be the only home meets this year. Not long ago Whittaker led this writer around the track, pointing out the fine textured and improperly laid gravel, the poorly constructed runway for pole vaulters, and the general inadequacies of the field. "If we had enough money, all our meets would be away from home," he said.

Golfers To Play Toledo Monday

Playing their first home matches of the year, Bowling Green's golf team takes on Eastern Michigan College, Saturday and Toledo University, Monday. Both matches will be played on the Bowling Green Country Club course with the Eastern Michigan match starting at 9 a.m. and the Toledo contest at 3 p.m.

With four returning lettermen Toledo poses a much greater threat than their last years squad. The Blue and Gold last season lost to the Falcons 5-3 and posted a seasons record of two wins, eight losses and one tie.

Returning lettermen on the Rocket squad are: Jim Houtz, Tom McCormick, Bill Murphy and Jim Trepinski. These four men will probably start with the other two positions being filled by either Jack Sharky, Bob Witt, Mike Kirwin or Jim Holmes.

The Rockets and Falcons meet in a return match on May 9 at the Sylvania Country Club. This will be a triangular meet with Marshall also included.

The Falcon linksmen will probably start with Gary Hallett, Dave Steinen, Jack Luedeman, Joe Ungvary, Perry Lanning and Jim Bernicke against both Eastern Michigan and Toledo.

Bowling Green at the present time holds a two win, two loss and one tie mark. Against MAC opponents the Falcons have won one and lost one.

Bowling Green's baseball team journeys up to Kalamazoo, Michigan, this weekend to oppose last years MAC champs Western Michigan University. The Falcons meet the Broncos in single games on both Friday and Saturday.

With a large number of returning lettermen the Bronco's look to be tougher than ever and another good chance to repeat their baseball crown. They boast one of the top pitching staffs in the league with Jack Humhor, Dick Sosnowski, Dick Churches and Norm

Haadek. Last season Rumhor compiled a 6-0 mark and this year already holds a 2-1 record. Haadek a newcomer to the Bronco staff, at the present time has a 4-0 mark. Church who pitched one game for the Broncos last year and beat Michigan University has not seen any action thus far this year. Sosnowski the other Western hurler on the squad had a 4-1 record last year.

fielder Larry Buchanan has a .400 average. Also Buchanan already has 13 rbi's this season.

The infield is led by shortstop Dave Robertson with a .666 batting average. Craig Morris at second has a .333 mark while third baseman Jim Hoek has a .310 average. Bob Mason holds down the first base position with a .297 mark.

Handling the catching duties is Larry Belanger who has a .235 mark.

Western at the present time holds a 6-3 mark for the season. They have come up with four wins over Indiana and two over Marshall. Their losses came at the hands of Michigan and Indiana.

Last years Western squad went to the NCAA where they posted a 1-2 mark. They had a 9-0 MAC record and 13-5 over-all mark.

BG, with some new faces in the lineup, will be after revenge of last years 15-3, 15-0 losses at the hands of the Broncos.

A couple of new faces to this years squad are Ray Reese and Ron Blackledge. Reese covers the right field slot while Blackledge has taken over for Don Nehlen at third. Both of these men have been hitting well for the Falcons thus far this season.

The Falcon nine had their game against Wayne last Wednesday called after three innings because of rain. BG had jumped out to a 3-0 lead when the rain came. The Falcons have yet to play a complete game this year on the BG diamond.

Netters Gaining Strength For Coming Opposition

A steadily improving Falcon tennis team opens on its home courts today at 3 p.m. against Dayton and again tomorrow against Eastern Michigan. The Falcon net fans will have their chance to see their team, which holds a 1-1 record in what points to be a very closely contested match.

The 1-1 record of the netmen is stranger than the figures reveal. Ohio University, the team beaten by the netters on Friday had defeated Marshall College just a few days before. The next day Marshall turned around and upset the Falcons 5-4. The OU match lasted four and one-half hours and was about five minutes away from being called on account of darkness. The length of this match could partially explain the loss the next day to Marshall.

Last year BG beat Dayton in a close match, but not much has been said so far this season about the Flyers so no one can predict how the match will turn out. Joe Ponce, the number one man for Dayton is returning stronger than ever. He is known as a powerful and smart tennis player. The factor that should favor BG is its depth. DeWayne Smith, Dick Abele, Ed Wahl, and Bob Colburn make a formidable foursome which would be welcomed by any tennis team. Smith is still undefeated in singles this season, and he and Wahl have teamed up to take all but one match in the doubles competition. Wahl has also played excellent singles, losing only one match. This is quite a record considering that six matches have already been played.

The number one man, Perry, for Eastern Michigan is also returning, along with most of the team. BG was defeated by the Eastern Michigan squad last year, 5-4.

Intramurals

As a result of Monday's play in the inter-fraternity softball league, Kappa Sigma remained undefeated and leads League I with a 3-0 mark, while Alpha Tau Omega with a similar record tops League II.

Only four of the six games scheduled for Monday were played, two ending in ties. In League I, the Kappa Sigs defeated Pi Kappa Alpha 3-1; Alpha Kappa Omega and Theta Chi played to a 6-6 tie, while the Delta Epsilon and Sigma Phi Epsilon game will be played at a later date.

3 BG Wrestlers Shine

Three wrestlers from Bowling Green, competing unattached, took first places in the Ohio AAU wrestling championships in Toledo last Saturday.

Bob Duke took the 157 lb. championship; Jim Hopple won at 147 lbs., and Jim Derr captured first in the heavyweight division. George Letzner, also from Bowling Green, finished third at 130 lbs.

Jim Hopple's younger brother, Dave, wrestling as a high school senior from East Liverpool won the 137 lb. championship.

Golf Entries Due Soon

The all-campus golf driving contest will be held Sunday May 4 at 2 p.m. on the University Golf Course. Entry blanks may be picked up from your fraternity athletic chairman, dorm bulletin board or by calling the intramural office.

All those who wish to enter the contest are to return their completed entry forms by Friday May 2 to either Larry Morrison at the Phi Kappa Tau House or to the intramural office.
