Nunamaker, Thompson Top Seniors; Graduating SIC SIC Men Revealed

Delight Thompson and Norman Nunamaker were announced as the recipients of the President's Awards at the Honors day ceremonies held Sunday in the Grand Ballroom of the University Union. The awards, each consisting of $100 and an engraved plaque, are presented each year to the outstanding senior man and woman, as chosen by two anonymous committees named by Dr. McDonald.

Robert Greenberg and Nunamaker were also revealed as the senior members of SICSIC, the anonymous six-member men's booster club whose members conceal their identity behind masks and coveralls while involved in midnight missions planned to boost the team spirit of the student body.

Nunamaker, a music major in the College of Liberal Arts, is the outgoing president of the Student Body, and has served on the Cabinet and Student Council. He will serve as class agent for the Class of '59 to the University's Alumni Association, and is a nominee for the Association's Board of Directors.

In his four years at the University, he has been a member of the Council on Student Affairs, Artist Series Committee, Spirit and Traditions Board, Orientation Committee, and the Committee on Next Steps for Student Participation in University Administration. This year, he was named the Outstanding Greek Man on campus.

A member and past president of Omicron Delta Kappa, he is also a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Book and Motor, and Sigma Mu. He received a University scholarship and a special music award for four years and, being a member of Alpha Tau Omega, he received one of six national ATO scholarship awards this year.

Five Men Receive $325 Scholarships At Honor Program

Receiving Sidney Frohman Scholarships during the Honors Day program, Sunday, were five junior men: Bob McLean, Morse Sanderson, Ray Marvin, Ron O'Leary, and Bob Zimpfer. Each scholarship amounts to $325, and this year marked the first time that these particular scholarships had been awarded.

A recent gift from Sidney Frohman brought the assets of the Sidney Frohman Scholarship Fund to 1,400 shares of common stock in the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, having a market value of approximately $67,200. Pres. Ralph W. McDonald explained.

Under the current dividend policy of the corporation, these shares yield an annual income of $1,680, plus occasional extra dividends. The scholarship fund is set up in perpetuity under the Bowling Green State University Foundation, Inc., with the provision that only the income shall be available for scholarship grants.

Each scholarship is to be awarded, on an annual basis, to a rising senior man student on the basis of scholarship, character, demonstrated acceptance of responsibility, high personal standards and habits of work, and contribution to the public good.

Cooper Named 'Man Of Year'

Dr. Samuel Cooper, chairman of the health and physical education department since 1948, has been named the Faculty Man of the Year by the Beta Tau Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership honor society for men, according to Robert Greenberg, retiring president.

COOPER

Dr. Cooper was graduated from Oberlin College in 1936, received his MA from New York University in 1947, and earned a Ph.D. degree from Western Reserve in 1955. He is also the Falcon swimming coach, and is president of the Ohio College Physical Education Association.

'59 June Graduates Guests Of President At Commencement

Seniors being graduated in June will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. McDonald for the fifth annual Commencement Week End. Invitations have been sent out to all members of the graduating class for the various events taking place in the three-day period, June 5 to 7.

Cards accompanying the invitations must be returned to the President's Office, Mrs. Margaret Haygood, administrative assistant to the president and coordinator of the week-end activities, has announced, in order to determine the number of persons attending the various events. If their cards have been misplaced, she added, seniors should call the President's Office.

The Cotillion, being held Friday night, June 5, will be centered around a Hawaiian theme, according to Dan Katz, senior class president, and Delight Thompson, general co-chairmen for the week-end events. Reservations for tables are being accepted at the Union Activities Office, third floor of the University Union, for groups of seniors who want to be at the same table. Reserved tables will be held until 9:30 that night.

A Phi O Quits Used Book Sale

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, has decided to discontinue its Used Book Exchange, which it has operated in the past years as a service to the students of the University.

In a letter sent to the NEWS, Martin Schuller, president of the organization, explains the decision.

"Because of the recent opening of a privately owned New and Used Bookstore, and the method by which we would have to operate in order to compete with such a business, we find it impossible to continue our service."

"We have met with the University administration for the purpose of analyzing this service for the students of the University, and it has been decided that the University will handle used books within the present facilities of the Union Bookstore."

"The addition of sale of used books in the Union Bookstore will make this operation of the Union complete and more satisfactory for all students."

ODK Taps 11 Men For Membership

Seven men students become members of Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership honor society for men, in an initiation ceremony held Sunday afternoon in Prout Chapel, after the Honors Day program. The men are David Mertz, Miles Riggs, Donald Katz, and Dale Pittman, all seniors; and Edward Carpenter, Ray Marvin, and Perry Lanning, juniors.

E. T. Rodgers was presented the Omicron Delta Kappa Outstanding Service Award. It was the first such award ever presented by the University chapter of ODK.

He has served four terms on the Board, and received an honorary degree from the University in 1953. ## Pondering On The Past

The school year is rapidly coming to a close, and with this issue, we write "80" to our editorship of the NEWS. Just nine short months ago, we published our first edition—with little plan or idea as to what we would try to accomplish through our news and editorial pages. Looking back now, we see that several things were accomplished despite the fact that they were not clearly designated in our mind as "things that must be done."

A mark to our good, we feel, has been the information published about several administrative policies, with the intent being to present the facts and background material that students must have knowledge of if rules and regulations are to be accepted without ill feeling. An example of such information was the material printed concerning the University's liquor regulations. In the past, rulings have been put into effect without first explaining to the student body why they are necessary, or at least without giving adequate information. The communication between administrative officers and the students is still poor in some instances, but if the NEWS is continued to be regarded as an impartial source of information by both students and administration, these weak points will disappear.

A black mark against us, however, was our failure to give an equal amount of support and coverage to student government agencies as that given to other campus activities. Within the student government lie many possibilities for responsible student participation in law-making and judiciary matters. But we failed to allow the new organization enough time to examine itself and correct any faults. We tended to call for miracles instead of waiting until an agency, board, or committee had grown in experience.

Next year's staff should work, therefore, upon these two things—strengthening even further the idea that the NEWS can better campus communication, and reporting, interpreting and supporting the government actions, including those seemingly unimportant, for the student body must have a knowledge of what its government is doing if it is to respect the organization.

4 Major Bills Passed By Council During Busy First Year Of Work

By LARRY SCHMITZ

With the end of another school year very close at hand, Bowling Green's student government will be one year old.

It is a tremendously large and seemingly never ending job to start from nothing, and come up with a solid, stable, and workable government organization.

From its conception to this date, every member of every section, has had to spend many hours of work and deliberation to make the student government the success that it is today.

The wheels officially started to churn May 24, 1958, when Norman Nunemaker was installed as Student Body President elect.

The organization's work since that time has included the passing of four major bills, and the setting up of the present seven-committee system.

Seven-Committee System

Each committee has, with the help of its chairman, and the Student Council and Cabinet, set up its rules, regulations, procedures, and future plans. The results of these have been presented to the Council and Cabinet, and a few needed changes were made. The four bills that were passed by the Council concern legislative procedure, bulletin board communications, University-wide elections, and campaigning rules for election candidates.

The legislative procedure bill states that any student may propose legislation, and may do so by presenting it to a Council member or the secretary of the Student Body. It will then be given to the drafting committee to be formed into a legislative bill.

When the bill is brought before the Council, the President may appoint a committee from the Council to study the bill, or he may call for immediate action.

The committee assigned to study the bill must return a recommendation with its findings. Upon receiving the report of this committee, the Council may take any action within its power to pass or defeat the proposed bill.

More Bulletin Boards

Bill number two concerns campus communications through the medium of bulletin boards. Permanent boards are to be erected in the area of Rodgers Quadrangle, Founders Quadrangle, and Sorority Row. A minimum of 20 portable boards are to be placed at strategic locations on campus, and a large permanent glass enclosed board is to be put on the first floor of the Administration Bldg. The permanent boards will be under the jurisdiction of the Communications Board; the portable ones under the Elections Board; and the Executive Committee will be in charge of the board in the Administration Bldg.

4 Major Elections

The conducting and the supervising of elections is covered in Bill number three. It states that there will be four major campus-wide elections, to be held in the fall, winter, early spring, and late spring. The bill also designates the purpose of each election.

Voting areas will be set up in Rodgers, Founders, the Union, and the Administration Bldg. In order to be a qualified voter, a student must possess a University identification card. The bill also makes provisions for absentee balloting at each election. The method of tabulating votes is also discussed.

A candidate who wishes to dispute the election procedures or results, may do so by submitting a formal complaint by letter to the President of the Student Body and the chairman of the Elections Board, within seven days of the election in question. A study will then be made by the persons concerned and a formal report will be submitted to the Student Council.

Election Campaigns

The last bill which was passed this semester concerns campaigning for University-wide elections. Printed material may appear one week prior to an election. Parades are permissible from 4:15 to 7 p.m. on the two days immediately preceding the election, provided the routes are approved by the University police department. There will be no campaigning in the vicinity of the polls on election day. The bill further states where various signs and posters may be placed on campus.

This is what has been done by the Student Government in its first year.

Look To The Future

Robert McLean, new president of the Student Body, has stated that he hopes to even further the development of student government.

He explained that in order to enact future improvements, he needs, and heartily requests, the backing, interest, and help of the students.

McLean stated that "only with the increased interest and help of the student body can our government not only proceed at its present pace, but show the improvements that should be desired by all that are under its jurisdiction."

"A government is only as good and strong as the governed will allow, and help it to be."

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

This is the last column of my fifth year of writing for Philip Morris and Marlboro. I have made it a custom in the last column of each year not to be funny. I know I have also realized this aim in many other columns during the year, but that was not for lack of trying. Today I am not trying. I am not trying for two reasons: First, because you are getting ready for final exams and in your present state of shock, nothing in the world could possibly make you laugh. And second, this final column of the year is for many of us a leave-taking, and good-byes always make me too misty to be funny.

For me the year ends neither with a bang nor a whimper, but with a glow—a warm, pleasant, mellow glow—the kind of glow you will find, for example, at the end of a Philip Morris or Marlboro.

It has been in every way a gratifying experience, my five years with the makers of Philip Morris and Marlboro, and I would like to take this opportunity to extend my heartfelt appreciation to these good tobaccoists, to assure them that the memory of their kindness will remain ever green in my heart, and to remind them that they still owe me for the last three columns.

And in these waning days of the school year, let me address myself seriously to you, my readers. Have I trod on any toes this year? Ruffled any feelings? Jostled any sensibilities? If so, I am sorry.

Have I occasioned any laughs? Chuckles? Sniggers? Mona Lisa smiles? If so, I'm glad.

Have I persuaded any of you to try Philip Morris and Marlboro? To taste that fine flavor? To smoke that excellent tobacco? If so, you are glad.

And now the long, lazy summer lies ahead. But for me summer is never lazy. It is, in fact, the busiest time of year. Two summers ago, for instance, I was out ringing doorbells every single day, morning, noon, and night. There was a contest, you see, and the kid in my neighborhood who sold the most bluing won a pony. I am proud to report that I was the lucky winner.

Last summer I was also out ringing doorbells every single day, morning, noon, and night. I was trying to sell the pony.

This summer I am not going to be out ringing doorbells. I am going to saddle the pony and ride to Hollywood, California. What am I going to do in Hollywood, California? I am going to write a series of half-hour television comedies called THE MANY LOVES OF DOBIE GILLIS, and starting in October, 1959, your friends and mine, the makers of Philip Morris and Marlboro, are going to bring you this program over the Columbia Broadcasting System every Tuesday night at 8:30. Why don't you speak to your housemother and ask her if she'll let you stay up to see it?

And now good-bye. For me it's been kicks all the way, and I hope for you it hasn't been altogether unbearable. Have a good summer. Stay well. Stay cool. Stay loose.

© 1959. Max Shulman

For us, the makers of Philip Morris and Marlboro, it's been kicks too, and we would like to echo kindly old Max's parting words: Stay well. Stay cool. Stay loose.

Schedule for Final Examinations for the Second Semester, 1958-59.

Time of Exam	Friday May 29	Monday June 1	Tuesday June 2	Wednesday June 3	Thursday June 4
8:00-9:50	D	A	B	C	N
10:30-12:20	H	E	F	G
2:30-4:20	M	J	K	L

If a class meets for two or more hours in a week, the instructor should select for the time of examination a letter at which time the class meets at least twice during the week. For example, a class which meets at D, C1 should meet for the examination at the period reserved for "D", i.e., 8 a.m., Friday, May 29.

Instructors of classes which have only one class meeting per week, i.e., Speech 214, should consult with the Registrar for a time for examination if there are conflicting examinations at the time which would ordinarily be used.

Falcons Place Second, Third, Fourth In MAC

Thinclads Nab Third Place; Western Mich. Retains Crown

By BOB HOOVER
Western Michigan successfully defended its track laurels this past week end in the thirteenth annual track and field championships held at Oxford. The meet saw the shattering of five MAC records and the tying of two others. WM finished first in seven events, piled up 74 points, Ohio U. 58½. Bowling Green 57½, Miami 50½ and Kent State 15. Toledo and Marshall failed to place any men.

Individual winners for BG were Bernie Casey in the 120 high hurdles with a time of :14.5, which tied his own MAC record; Ernie Malzahn with a time of :23.3 in the 220 lows; and Bob Ramlow, Rog Miller and Ken Campbell as part of a five-way tie for first in the pole vault with a height of 13 ft. Casey was unable to compete in the lows because he injured his leg while winning his event.

Coach Bob Whittaker had the following comments to make about the results of the meet. "We should have taken second place. When we came down here, I had expected to take fourth. But knowing now what we know, we should have come in closer. Some of the boys disappointed me. There were about a dozen places where a point here, a point there, could have made the difference."

The meet's only double winner, Les Carney of OU, took the 100 and 220 dashes with times of :09.7 and :20.6, respectively. Malzahn took a third in the 220 to add three points to BG's total.

WM's John Bork set a new MAC record of :47.9 in the quarter-mile, which shattered the old mark of :48.6 set in 1951 by Moore of Miami. Bob Stabile of Miami finished second. BG failed to qualify anyone in this event.

Bowling Green picked up five valuable points in the 880 when John Scott and Larry Dove finished third and fourth in the event which saw Larry Taylor of WM break the MAC record with a time of 1:54. Doug Wuggazer, also of WM, finished second.

The mile run was a very good one and saw Jerry Ashmore, WM, tie teammate Art Eversole's MAC record of 4:15.6. Ron Hopkins of WM came in a close second, with Miami men taking the next three places.

Eversole sprinted the last 75 yards and nipped Ashmore at the wire in the two-mile run in 9:33.6, one-tenth of a second off the MAC mark. Both men led the rest of the field nearly all the way. When they reached the last 75 yards, they poured it on, adding the only excitement to the event.

OU's relay team took the 880-yard relay as expected, in the process shattering the old record with a time of 1:26.8. However, they were nipped at the wire in the mile relay by Western Michigan in a brilliant race. WM's time was 3:17.7, which bettered the MAC record by 2.2 seconds. Carney, incidentally, ran the anchor lap in both relays.

BG gained 24½ points in the field events, more than any other team. Besides Ramlow, Miller, and Campbell, the other first place finishers in the pole vault were Tom Segall of WM and Glenn Randall, OU.

Defending champion Walt Kilian failed to retain his title in the high jump, losing to Young of WM, who leaped 6'3¾". Ron Heximer of BG finished in a four-way tie for fifth.

Favored Bob Reynolds set a new MAC record in the broad jump, jumping 24', breaking the old record of 23'6¼". Ron DeWulf placed second for Bowling Green.

Chuck Warne and Gary Huber of Miami took the shot and discus, respectively. Warne put the shot 51'8". Bob Reublin finished fourth. Chuck McCampbell finished second in the discus to Huber's winning throw of 145' 11½". Chuck threw 143' 10".

Baseballers Win, Lose; Steller Quits Coaching

The Falcon baseballers extended their winning string to 11 straight Friday, downing the Miami Redskins, 13-6; but had it broken Saturday when the Miami club nipped them in the ninth, 3-2.

The games marked the close of a 35-year baseball coaching career at Bowling Green by Warren Steller. He will retire from the coaching ranks this year but will remain on the athletic department staff, teaching physical education.

Named to replace Steller is Richard Young, a 1954 graduate of Ohio State University. Young will also serve as an assistant football coach.

Wade Diefenthaler went all the way in Friday's game and added an explosive stick as BG toyed with the Redskins. The right-hander added two home runs and a single, and drove in five of BG's 13 runs. His clouts came in the fourth and in the eighth.

Jim Mason also completed the circuit on a hard drive which bounced into the Miami University golf course.

BG's big inning was the fourth when they batted around and scored eight runs on six hits.

Loosing pitcher was Miami's Joe Baden.

Saturday's game saw the Falcons start out as they had done the previous day, driving in two quick runs and hitting anything the Miami pitcher threw.

The spree was short-lived, however, with the Falcons going scoreless throughout the rest of the game.

Miami picked up a run in the second and knotted the score in the seventh.

An error on the part of Bowling Green let pitcher Gary Tillson knock in an unearned run in the ninth to break the deadlock and give Miami the victory, 3-2.

Dick Bugeda, who relieved starter Ed Phillips in the second, was credited with the loss, while Miami's Tillson got the win. BG used one other pitcher, Tom Lyons, who entered in the ninth.

The loss gave BG a 6-6 MAC record and a 12-6 overall record, best in several years. The conference record is good enough to give the Falcons third place in the MAC.

Miami closed the season with a 19-9 mark, playing 4-7 in the MAC.

Starky Stalks

By BOB STARKWEATHER

Well, it's been a good year and it's speedily drawing to a close. We've tried to cover everything in an impartial manner, but in some cases we've fallen down on the job. We've traveled quite a bit and have tried to give readers a first-hand account of the sports happenings at BG and around the MAC and country. Good luck to next year's sports editor.

Before we forget it, congratulations to Phi Delta Theta. The group went through the past softball season undefeated to garner the IM trophy. IM softball is often referred to as a battle of pitchers and the Phi Deltas had a good one. Chuck Ramsey hurled a no-hitter during the season and threw several one and two-hitters.

This past week end the MAC championships gave us an excuse to journey to Miami University. Not a bad trip. Getting down to business, though, the Falcons had a highly successful trip, even though they didn't place first in any of the events.

Saturday's baseball game was lost before Miami broke the 2-2 tie in the ninth by, in some cases, sloppy field work. The head umpire didn't help matters any, though. Seems he had been picked up by the State Patrol just before the game and was still carrying a chip on his shoulder. He ejected two Falcons from the ball park and in our opinion did a very poor job behind the plate.

Our nomination for All-American track honors this year will have to be Ohio University's Les Carney. Carney won the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes, was anchor on OU's winning 880-yard relay team, and anchored their mile relay team, which took second behind Western Michigan.

Iron-man Ernie Malzahn again provided BG's scoring punch, winning the 220 low hurdles, and placing third in the 220-yard dash and the 120 high hurdles.

Golfers Take Second Behind OU; Ungvary Is BG Medalist With 143

Western Takes Tennis Crown

With John Cook and Doug Poort posting double wins, Western Michigan made a near clean sweep of the MAC tennis tourney played at the Miami courts last week end. Winning all four singles, plus one double title with a second in the other doubles, WM gained a total of 16 points out of possible 17, to capture the 1958 MAC Tennis title.

Second place went to Miami, with 11 points, followed by Toledo, five points, Bowling Green's three points, Kent State's two points, and Marshall and Ohio University with no points.

In the number one singles, John Cook, WM, defeated Blamford Fuller, Kent, 6-4, 6-1. Number two singles saw Doug Poort, WM, defeat Bob Colburn, BG, 3-6, 6-3, 9-7. Number three singles, Fred Zuidema, WM, defeated John Buttrely, Miami, 7-5, 6-3. Number four singles saw Kert Miller, WM, defeat John Sutor, 7-5, 8-6. In the doubles, Cook and Poort, WM, defeated Tom Huges and Jim Schamp, Miami, 6-1, 6-4 for the number one doubles title. In number two doubles, Art Sandeen and John Buttrely, Miami, defeated Joe Makowski and Joe Damrauer, Toledo, 7-5, 6-4.

For Bowling Green, Bob Colburn picked up two points by beating Don Wassum, Marshall, 8-6, 6-3, and Dick Woerner, Toledo, 2-6, 7-5, 6-2. He then lost to Poort, WM, in the finals of the number two singles, 3-6, 6-3, 9-7. Dick Abele picked up the other point by beating Bill Foreman, Kent State, 6-4, 6-4. Abele then lost to Fred Zuidema, WM, 6-3, 6-3. Doug Ganim lost to John Cook, WM, 6-3, 6-2, and Jim Scheel lost to Joe Damrauer, Toledo, 6-2, 6-4, in other BG matches. In doubles for BG, Ganim and Colburn lost to Hughes-Schamp, Miami, 6-3, 9-7, and Abele-Scheel lost to second seeded Sandeen-Buttrely, Miami, 6-4, 6-2.

Greenberg, in addition to being a member of SICSIC, has served as Student Body Sergeant at Arms and a member of Student Council. He belongs to Omicron Delta Kappa, being president of the local Beta Tau Circle for the past year, and was co-chairman of the Leadership Conference at Lakeside.

A member of Zeta Beta Tau, he is a past president, vice-president, athletic chairman, steward, sophomore representative on the executive committee, and representative to the Interfraternity Council. On the IFC, he has served as administrative vice-president, member of the Judicial Board, and managing editor of the IFC Pinwheel.

Last year's sports editor on the B-G NEWS staff, he also worked as assistant sports editor and sports reporter. On the KEY staff, he worked in the business department one year.

A member of the University Social Policy Committee, he also belongs to the Jewish Congregation, of which he has been treasurer. This year, he is student chairman of public relations for Commencement Week End, and is a former member of Religious Emphasis Week's steering committee.

years, at the Oxford Country Club at Miami last week end, shooting an aggressive score of 574.

The Bobcats beat out Bowling Green, which shot a 594, followed by Marshall, 607; Western Michigan, 609; Miami, 616; Kent, 620; and Toledo, 654.

Leading OU's onslaught was Charles Vandlik, firing a 67-74-141. The 67 was the lowest score of the tourney over the par 73 course. Second low medalist was Larry Snyder of OU, tied with Linde Meade of Marshall with a 142.

Bowling Green fought back to second place after being tied with Western Michigan for second place after the first round. Leading BG's swingers was Joe Ungvary with a 71-72-143. Following Ungvary for BG was Perry Lanning, shooting a 79-69-148. The 69 was the second day's lowest score. Many of the spectators present felt that Perry's 69 was the best score of the tourney on the wind-swept course. Next came Harold Warren with 73-77-150 and James Bernicke with 79-74-153. Although far behind after the first round, the Bowling Green golfers were the only team to beat Ohio University scores the second round.

Next year's MAC tourney will be played at the defending champions' home course, Ohio University. Since OU will not lose any of their players due to graduation this year, they will again be the team to beat.

Coach Creason was very pleased by the team taking second place, coming from fourth last year, but was a little disappointed in the first round scores. With better first round scores posted, the tourney's results might have been much closer.

Strange new "tools" of atomic-electric power

These are some of the strange new "tools" used to produce, test, or experiment with atomic-electric power. They are among the things that will help bring electricity from the atom.

"Tools" like these are being used in developing several atomic-electric plants now under way. Electric light and power companies from many parts of the country are working with each other and with equipment manufacturers and the Atomic Energy Commission to develop the plants.

For more than 75 years, America's independent electric light and power companies have produced more electricity than any other nation in the world. And they have helped develop ways to produce it more efficiently year after year. That's why you can expect electric companies like this one to continue to do their part to advance the new science of producing electricity from the atom.

OSEA Chapters Change Name

The Ohio Student Education Association will be known from now on as the Bowling Green Student Education Association, according to Paul Kirby, president of the organization.

The change of name for all OSEA chapters in the state came about through action by its state officers. The organization was previously known officially as the Walter A. Zaugg Chapter of the Ohio Student Education Association, in honor of Dr. Walter Zaugg, professor emeritus of education at BGSU.

It is hoped that the new name will not be as unwieldy and will be less confusing to students. Also, promotional materials sent from the national organization will now

Union Opens Used Textbook Service; Offers Top Prices

A used textbook department, a new service of the University Bookstore, opened Thursday, and will provide for purchase and stocking of used texts beginning with the summer term.

Connections have been made with national markets for used textbooks which makes it possible for the Bookstore to offer top prices for used books, according to Paul D. Shepherd, manager. These prices, established nationally, will be in line with those paid on all major campuses.

Books for sale should be taken to the special area set up in the south-west corner of the Bookstore. This department will be open during the regular Bookstore hours, 8 a.m. until 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Saturday.

Practically all texts which are being used or have been used at the University will be accepted. Textbooks currently being used will be offered for resale, while those no longer in use here will be purchased if marketable off campus.

University Honors 3 Retiring Faculty With Combined Service Of 70 Years

Tomorrow evening, the University faculty will honor three of its retiring members who have a combined total of 70 years of service to Bowling Green State University and 123 years to education.

At a banquet to be held in the Dogwood Suite of the Union, recognition will be given to Arch B. Conklin, associate dean of students, who joined the University in 1938; Wayne F. Cornell, associate professor of mathematics, who joined the faculty in 1943; and Dr. Clare S. Martin, professor of chemistry, who joined the faculty here in 1923.

Taught in One-room School

After graduating from Weston High School in 1908, Conklin taught in a one-room school in Weston until one day when he found it necessary to choose between accepting a teaching position in Cygnet, or going away to college. He chose the latter and enrolled at the College of Wooster, where he received the Bachelor of Science degree in 1914.

He was school superintendent at Waterville from 1914-18 and at Granville from 1919-21, and then left educational work to try his hand at business.

He sold insurance for several years, but found little satisfaction in that work; so when he was offered a position as principal in Bowling Green, he happily took it. Four years later he was appointed superintendent of the Bowling Green schools, in which position he served for nine years.

Conklin Becomes Dean

In 1939, at the invitation of Dr. Prout, then president of the University, he came to the campus as dean of students. Here, he found plenty of challenges in setting up the administrative area now known as "student life and services."

Dean Conklin is a member of the National Education Association, former secretary of the Bowling Green Chamber of Commerce, former vice-mayor of Bowling Green, a past president of the Ohio Association of Deans of Men, an honorary member of Omicron Delta Kappa, and a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Prof. Cornell joined the BGSU faculty in 1943 as assistant professor of mathematics, following the establishment of the Navy V-12 program on the campus in World War II. He came as no stranger to the campus, having received a bachelor's degree in science and mathematics here in 1925.

Grad Of BGSU

He is a native of Edon, and has spent a total of 33 years in school work, starting as a teacher in a one-room school in Williams County. After being graduated from BGSU, he taught for one year in the Edgerton High School, and then became principal of the high school in his home town of Edon, where he remained for 16 years, the last six as administrative head of the school.

He received the master of arts degree at Ohio State University in 1931 and went on to complete most of the requirements for the doctorate, including five summers and two academic years in study at OSU.

Cornell Teaches Math

His experience as a teacher and administrator in the public schools gave him special competence in the important area of teacher training, and his advice and leadership in preparation of secondary school mathematics has been of great value to the department of mathematics and the University.

In addition to conducting classes in methods for high school mathematics and working with student teachers, he taught regular mathematics courses.

When he was still a boy in New Castle, Indiana, Clare Martin was first exposed to science by his father, who was a pharmacist, and his grandfather, who was a physician. With their backing, it was almost inevitable that he should go to college and study science. He enrolled at Ohio State University and was graduated with the bachelor of science degree in 1911.

Health Service Plans Extension

Tentative plans for enlargement of the Health Service have been announced by Dr. John H. Marsh, director. The proposed plans include remodeling of the nursery school building for x-ray equipment, laboratory facilities, a pharmacy and emergency ward.

The renovation includes new and modern equipment in order to provide better service. The enlargement will make room for the treatment of out-patient students and provide overflow space for epidemics and emergencies.

Since July 1, the number of out-patient student visits has been over 30,000. Comparing this with the 12,000 visit-year average for the years 1951 through 1955, the need for this enlargement and improvement of facilities is obvious.

It has not been decided yet where the location of the nursery school facilities will be next year.

40 ROTC Senior Men Have Orders For Duty

"We're in the Army now," is the song 40 Army ROTC senior cadets are singing these days, after they received their orders for active duty.

From Virginia to Texas, most of the officers will accept new responsibilities and problems, as they prepare to depart for new lives under Uncle Sam.

Eighteen of the men will be stationed at Fort Benning, Ga. Six will be at Fort Sill, Okla., while four each will toll at Fort Knox, Ky., and Fort Lee, Va.

Those scheduled to report to Fort Benning include Thomas Curtis, two years in the adjutant general corps; Edson Hill, six months in the infantry; Michael Johnston, two years in army intelligence; Norman Salminen, six months in the infantry; and John Blake, Andrew Wright, and James Scheel, two years in infantry.

Also at Fort Benning will be George Dellinger, two years in the transportation corps; Edward Ferkany, two years in the infantry; Albert Goldberg, six months in infantry; Robert Greenberg, six months in infantry; Gerald Greenway, six months in the infantry; Thomas Hicks, six months in the infantry; David Humbert, two years in the military police corps, and Charles McCampbell, two years in the infantry. Dale Pittman, Ronny Sutter, and Roger Sweeting, will spend two years in the infantry, and Terry Woodings, six months in the infantry.

Heading for Fort Sill will be John Furcron, Elwood Jones, James Schrader, Robert Tozier, and Gerald Carino, two years each in the artillery. Jack Whittaker has requested two years, but his reporting date has been delayed. He will serve in the artillery also.

The Fort Knox assignments include James Dierickx and Lee Bennett, six months each in armor; and Larry Shine and Daryl Wolfe, two years each in armor.

Assigned to Fort Lee are Kenneth Dawson, Reginald Fowkes, George Menker, and Arnold Wagner, two years each in the quartermaster corps.

Other assignments include: James Myers, six months in the transportation corps at Fort Eustis, Va.; Donald Neff, two years in the adjutant general corps at Indianapolis, Ind.; Gary Williamson, two years in ordnance at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md.

Paul Anderson, two years in the signal corps at Fort Monmouth, N.J.; Kenneth Glanz, two years artillery at Fort Bliss, Texas; Donald Hummel, two years in artillery at Fort Bliss; and Charles McKenna, two years in the transportation corps at Fort Eustis.

The reporting dates for these seniors vary, but all will have reported by May, 1960. Most of the cadets will begin serving this summer. The seniors choose the length of duty and also the assignment, with all but five getting the position or the length of service desired.

BGSU Thespians Travel Weekly Giving Plays For Area Groups

Twenty-two students compose the casts of three one-act family plays that travel to towns within a 50-mile radius each week giving performances for PTA's, service clubs, and community organizations.

The plays, which are designed to help people understand human behavior, are financed with National Mental Health funds through a cooperative project of the Ohio Division of Mental Hygiene and the University Theater.

Nancy Brown, graduate assistant in speech, is the director of the plays. "All actors have to be able to adapt themselves to any circumstances," she said. "We never know before the actual performance what to expect or what facilities we may have to work with."

She related that the stage has been anything from a square space to an expansive, modern theater. "Audiences also differ," she said. "The majority of them are adult. Children seem to enjoy watching them, but they watch them for pure entertainment, not for the educational values."

The three plays are double cast, giving each cast member a chance to perform and to facilitate traveling.

"The Room Upstairs," is the story about young and old people living together and is designed to give the young people an insight into what being old is like.

Those in the cast are Barbara Gaines and Sharon Mutzner, Mary Hunter and Judy Edwards, Tom Kassay and Bob Burger, and Jane Voneman and Linda Foettinger.

Good manners in pre-teenagers and their behavior characteristics are shown in the production of "The Missing Handshake."

Those in the cast are Barbara Uhl and Gloria Shelley, Jon Benedict and Tom Kassay, Barbara Krauss and Nancy Traxler, and Joan Niemes and Gayle Madson.

"Scattered Showers," the third play, shows how three pre-school youngsters react in a crisis when each child has been raised according to a different method of discipline.

Cast members include Carol Simmons and Judy Brock, Brenda Kitzler and Pauline Clark, and Carol Toth and Nancy Holloway.

The groups have been performing since September, and will continue until the end of the semester.

UCF Directors To Leave Posts

The Rev. Paul Bock, director of the United Christian Fellowship, and Phillip Hanni, associate director of UCF, are resigning from their positions in order to continue their studies, it was announced today.

The Rev. Mr. Bock, who is from Archbold, has been UCF director for six years. He has recently decided to continue his education in order to receive his Ph.D. degree so that he will be able to teach. As of now he is undecided as to where he will study.

A graduate of Heidelberg College in Tiffin, the Rev. Mr. Bock then went on to study at the Eden Theological Seminary in St. Louis. Upon his graduation, he spent a short time abroad continuing his studies. After returning to the United States, he obtained his master's degree at Yale University.

Before coming to Bowling Green, he was the student Y secretary at Corvallis, Ore.

Hanni has decided to continue study toward his bachelor of divinity degree. He also is undecided as to where he will study.

He received his A.B. degree in sociology at the University of Kansas and has completed two years of study at Drew Seminary in Madison, N.J.

Hanni has been active in his work with Grotto and has also given a series of talks dealing with the subject "The Christian Approach to Marriage."

It has not yet been decided who will replace them, but several persons are now being interviewed.

2 Winners Are Named In Speech 102 Contest

Clarence Koon and Susan Rothe have been named winners of the annual speech contest for students in Speech 102, held recently.

Three students are selected from the morning and afternoon sections to represent their section in the contest. Graduate assistants who were instructors picked the winners. Each of the first place winners received a fountain pen.

Koon's speech, entitled "Words, Bread and Rice," was a plea aimed at Americans for becoming informal about Communism in order to easily combat it.

Miss Rothe's speech was, "This I Believe," a plea to get the most out of education.

Second and third place winners for the morning and afternoon sections, respectively, are Michael Fink, William Burson and Ronald Burgher and Robert Sealander.

Co-chairmen for the contest were Judith Prinz and Nancy White.

Many Alumni Events Are Planned During Commencement Week End

Graduating seniors and faculty are invited to attend and participate in the 1959 Alumni Day, Saturday, June 6. Tickets are $2 per person and may be purchased in the Alumni Office in the University Union until Saturday, May 30.

The day will begin at 10 a.m. with a meeting of the Alumni Association, which will include the introduction of new members and officers of the Board of Directors, and reports of this year's activities and progress of the alumni program.

The reunions of six classes will also be given special recognition at the Alumni Luncheon at noon in the Grand Ballroom of the Union. The six classes are 1919, 1929, 1934, 1939, 1949, and 1956. Between 500 and 600 alumni are expected to attend.

Lectures by Dr. Grover C. Platt, Dr. Virginia B. Platt, professors of history, and Dr. Howard O. Brogan, professor of English, will be included in the afternoon's activities. A golf tournament will be conducted, and the Natatorium will be the scene of a splash party for the alumni and their families.

Completing the day will be the President's Reception in the Grand Ballroom from 7 to 10 p.m. for the alumni and graduating seniors.

UCF Sponsors Clothing Drive

United Christian Fellowship is planning to sponsor a used clothing drive again this year in connection with Church World Service. The clothes will be shipped overseas by the local Presbyterian Church.

Boxes for the clothes will be placed in all the housing units on campus starting tomorrow. The drive will last until June 3. Students who are packing for the summer are asked to place any clothes they no longer need in the boxes.

Any used clothes in good condition, with the exception of shoes and hats, will be accepted.

Shots Of Polio Vaccine Available To Students

Polio vaccine is still available to those students who want their first, second, third or fourth shot, according to Dr. Marsh, director of the Health Service. The vaccine is 75 cents and is available to any student who is over 21, or has a permit on file or a written note from his parents.

Dr. Marsh urges all students who have not begun their injections or have not taken their fourth shot to do so before summer vacation.
