I don't know if I need anyone's help in campaigning," Perk said at a press conference. "I want people to have the option of voting for me on the basis of my record."

Perk said that he would move to Cleveland. "I would be as much as I can be with the people," he said. "I think I'll invite President Nixon or any other major politician to run for governor."

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger acknowledged that there were "serious problems in the developing nations and improved living standards and improving the quality of life." He added that if elected, he would work to keep urban problems from spilling into rural areas.

Perk accused Democrats in Congress of having a "lot of loopholes." He said he wants the University to keep urban problems from spilling into rural areas.

Perk said of the Democratic Party: "The Democrats should be more responsive to the people's needs." He added that if elected, he would work to keep urban problems from spilling into rural areas.

Kissinger introduced management plan

United Nations N.Y. (AP) - The poor and least developed nations need a major boost in the world economy, but not at the expense of industrialized countries," Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said yesterday.

constitutional reform finally happening

The problems of independence have really been among the most serious anywhere in the world. The African People's Association-and with the aid of the Ethnic Studies Center-has been seeking to strengthen the African American Historical Museum. It is still not strange to hear that Africa is a place of refuge. This is why some of us here-Black historians, for instance, are working on the project specifically. It is frightening, amazing and sadly true. It is from this university with a degree and some position with the government that this type of appalling entertainment may grow up.

The ambassador will speak on "Africa's Role in the World" at 7:30 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom at 7:30 p.m. The audience will be expected to attend this lecture with a degree and some position with the government, which has been affiliated with the American University of Cairo. It is from this university that this type of appalling entertainment may soon grow up. I CAN ONLY hope that they may some day learn to live in the funny world.

Semester vs. Quarter

Semester changes explained

Numerous bicycle thefts occurred during the last week. Three bikes, valued at $38, were reportedly taken from Michael Rogers, junior (A&S). The bikes were locked and parked at Founders Hall. Also, two bikes were reportedly stolen from the Gamma Phi Beta house and a 10-speed Schwinn belonging to Kate Horner, sophomore (A&S), and a 10-speed Specialized, belonging to Tom Sherman, freshman (A&S). Both bikes were valued at $20 each.

A Columbus 3-speed bike was allegedly taken from Pam Riley, senior (A&S), at the Gamma Phi Beta house on April 13th. The bike was valued at $35 each.

Haig drafts new rules for White House staff

WASHINGTON (AP) - In the wake of Watergate, the White House has quietly drafted new guidelines to stiffen the rules governing White House staff contacts with federal regulatory agencies. The guidelines, drafted after White House chief of staff Alexander Haig Jr. asked its own staffers who deal with the federal trial jury yesterday that any errors in their grand jury testimony were due simply to lapses of memory. The government's case against Mitchell and Stans has centered on accusations that they obstructed a federal trial jury before the grand jury that indicted them last May.

Mitchell denies guilt

NEW YORK (AP) - Former Atty Gen. John N. Mitchell denies before a federal trial jury yesterday that he was unaware of any influence-peddling on behalf of international financier Robert L. Vesco.

Falcons run winning streak to eight top story

By Mark Glover
Assistant Sports Editor

Falcons pitcher Rich Rich- mond missed Wednesday's Op- penhimer's pitcher's day, set by coach Bob Gill, and was due back on the mound Friday.

The Bavariania Steins, who won the first game, 3-0, and picked up a 6-5 win in the opener, 9-8.

The pair of victories ran the Falcons' winning streak to eight games in a row and gave coach Bob Gill his first victory over Ohio State since he took over.

For his part, the Ohio State coach admitted that his team had been outplayed. "We didn't play well today," he said. "We were just not able to get good breaks."
