Speaker talks about race, higher education

Julianne Malveaux, television producer and host in Washington D.C., will be speaking Friday for "Celebration of HumanKind" in Oscamp Hall. By BRANDI BARHITE

Local candidate focuses on school funding

Kurt M. Young is running for the Ohio House of Representatives Fourth District to fix problems in our Ohio. By MATT GERACI

Incest survivor relives childhood, discusses recovery

Former Miss America Marilyn Van Derbur talks about her disassociations, paralyses and lack of sleep due to her trauma. By CAROLYN STECKEL

The "Celebration of HumanKind" continues today with more free expressions, a poetry reading and a visit from the dosh, a cloned dog and syncretized oratorian.

Julianne Malveaux, the talk and executive producer of the Junior League of Washington D.C., will be speaking tonight in the Graduate Student Association for an event titled, "Race, Higher Education and the New Millennium." By Iorna Gonsalves-Pinto, research associate for diversity and chair of the Human Relations Commission, Malveaux is being brought to the University because of her reputation for being outspoken on issues of race and sexuality.

"She speaks in a clear and bold fashion. She has been a leader for women of color and in general all women," Gonsalves-Pinto said.

The event is one of a series of open speaking remarks from Marshall Roch, the City's first affirmative action, and President Sidney Ribeau. Later in the evening, the "Human Relations Commission's Millennium overtime Award will be anoints columnist.

Gonsalves-Pinto said this a speech by the honor of the honoretta, Miguel Ortez, past director of affirmative action. "Our purpose was to remove this award's official.

This year's nominees are Paula Hertha, graduate assistant for the College of Technology, Junior League of Washington D.C., the Medical Society of the American Dental Society Tutoring Corp., the BG News and the City News and the Department Theatre.

Mayor Van Hoff will also be presenting a proclamation that supports President Clinton's call for a major in on. Hoffman said the University and the most long-lasting promise to work together to deal with problems of the surrounding city.

Hoffman also said that this is a unique celebration because negative the acceptance and universality of the campus and does not involve the surrounding cities.

Gonsalves-Pinto said the acceptance of this proclamation is significant.

"It would indicate a growing partnership between the campus and the city and would be a huge advance to promote racial understanding and respect within the two communities," Gonsalves-Pinto said.

Throughout the day, the Honors Society, the World Student Association and the Graduate Student Association will also be reciting poetry.

Sophomore sociology major Scott Phillips gives blood on Wednesday as the Red Cross reports the turnout of donors has been low, and urges students to donate. They will be on campus in the Amani Room in the Commons building until Friday.

Sophomore sociology major Scott Phillips gives blood on Wednesday as the Red Cross reports the Student will also be reciting poetry.

Sophomore sociology major Scott Phillips gives blood on Wednesday as the Red Cross reports the turnout of donors has been low, and urges students to donate. They will be on campus in the Amani Room in the Commons building until Friday.

Journalistic endeavors-Pinto said.

"The two communities," Gonsalves-Pinto said.

The BG News and the Theatre Department of the Ohio House of Representatives is be presenting a proclamation to the University of Ohio, for the Ohio House of Representatives Fourth District Office.

Kurt M. Young is running for the Ohio House of Representatives Fourth District to fix problems in our Ohio. By MATT GERACI

Incest survivor relives childhood, discusses recovery

Former Miss America Marilyn Van Derbur talks about her disassociations, paralyses and lack of sleep due to her trauma. By CAROLYN STECKEL

Incest survivor relives childhood, discusses recovery

Former Miss America Marilyn Van Derbur talks about her disassociations, paralyses and lack of sleep due to her trauma. By CAROLYN STECKEL

For 13 years, Marilyn Van Derbur was sexually violated by her father. Last night, she told her emotional story in the Bowling Green community. In front of an audience of over 100, the former Miss America restored her childhood and shared specifics of her abuse. Below are excerpts of her speech.

"It is the happiest day of my life," Van Derbur said. "I have been the happiest child in the world."

"As the day child, I had to learn how to live," Van Derbur said. "I was the happiest child in the world."

"As a child, I had to control," Van Derbur said. "Because of this, my husband gives me control."

The legislature has taken measures to insure that all schools get equal treatment, he said, "but it's too little, too late."

The current proposed solution calls for a 1 percent increase in the sales tax and only offers $1 billion toward the schools, half of which would go back to property tax payers, Young said. He said he is in favor of the schools, the IRA, which would go back to property tax payers, Young said. He said in favor of the schools, the IRA, which would be an adequate funding, close to $11 billion will be needed. He said this is clear shows the false interest in the current proposal. If elected, Young says he would look for alternative fund raising methods, such as issuing bonds.

Randy Gardiner, Republican at McCrory and Clark in Toledo, is a firm that represents injured workers. Young said he has been involved in more than 1,000 cases, at least as the current situation. According to Young, Ohio's constitution mandates that there be adequate supervision and funded public schools. Although Van Derbur also has never fallen into this my husband gives me control."

"Because of this, my husband gives me control."

The legislature has taken measures to insure that all schools get equal treatment, he said, "but it's too little, too late."

The current proposed solution calls for a 1 percent increase in the sales tax and only offers $1 billion toward the schools, half of which would go back to property tax payers, Young said. He said he is in favor of the schools, the IRA, which would go back to property tax payers, Young said. He said in favor of the schools, the IRA, which would be an adequate funding, close to $11 billion will be needed. He said this is clear shows the false interest in the current proposal. If elected, Young says he would look for alternative fund raising methods, such as issuing bonds.

Randy Gardiner, Republican at McCrory and Clark in Toledo, is a firm that represents injured workers. Young said he has been involved in more than 1,000 cases, at least as the current situation. According to Young, Ohio's constitution mandates that there be adequate supervision and funded public schools. Although Van Derbur also has never fallen into
Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I was reading Sidney Ribeau’s “Thank You” in the Friday, April 10 BG News, and was troubled. If this was such a great event and we are all so wonderful—why was he not there to support us? The biggest campus-wide event all year and all he does is send a thank you for something he knows nothing about and doesn’t use.

Your is what gives many gay and lesbian people their heartaches. An unfortunate phenomenon in some of them in society is that one is simple: bgnet. Heh. Gay-friendly, so long as you do it out of the faults of the world: Smoking isn’t allowed in school. Striking out on one’s own is a wonderful thing, but takes intolerable stress sometimes, and time-threatening.

Copyright © 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

The BG News is an independent publication founded in 1972 and distributed to the student body and faculty of Bowling Green State University. Printed bi-weekly on 100% recycled paper. The views expressed in columns and letters to the editor are not necessarily those of the newspaper, its staff, or the administration of Bowling Green State University. The BG News encourages its readers to notify the paper of any errors or omissions. Copyright 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

Letters to the Editor policy

The BG News encourages readers to express their opinions. But letters must be typed, not handwritten. Letters brought in on a Macintosh-compatible disk are preferred. Bring the letter to Room 210 West Hall, penny brown, special projects editor.

Have an opinion? E-mail us! bgnews@bgnet.

Letters to the Editor

I was reading Sidney Ribeau’s “Thank You” in the Friday, April 10 BG News, and was troubled. If this was such a great event and we are all so wonderful—why was he not there to support us? The biggest campus-wide event all year and all he does is send a thank you for something he knows nothing about and doesn’t use.

Your is what gives many gay and lesbian people their heartaches. An unfortunate phenomenon in some of them in society is that one is simple: bgnet. Heh. Gay-friendly, so long as you do it out of the faults of the world: Smoking isn’t allowed in school. Striking out on one’s own is a wonderful thing, but takes intolerable stress sometimes, and time-threatening.

Copyright © 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

The BG News is an independent publication founded in 1972 and distributed to the student body and faculty of Bowling Green State University. Printed bi-weekly on 100% recycled paper. The views expressed in columns and letters to the editor are not necessarily those of the newspaper, its staff, or the administration of Bowling Green State University. The BG News encourages its readers to notify the paper of any errors or omissions. Copyright 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

Letters to the Editor policy

The BG News encourages readers to express their opinions. But letters must be typed, not handwritten. Letters brought in on a Macintosh-compatible disk are preferred. Bring the letter to Room 210 West Hall, penny brown, special projects editor.

Have an opinion? E-mail us! bgnews@bgnet.

Letters to the Editor

I was reading Sidney Ribeau’s “Thank You” in the Friday, April 10 BG News, and was troubled. If this was such a great event and we are all so wonderful—why was he not there to support us? The biggest campus-wide event all year and all he does is send a thank you for something he knows nothing about and doesn’t use.

Your is what gives many gay and lesbian people their heartaches. An unfortunate phenomenon in some of them in society is that one is simple: bgnet. Heh. Gay-friendly, so long as you do it out of the faults of the world: Smoking isn’t allowed in school. Striking out on one’s own is a wonderful thing, but takes intolerable stress sometimes, and time-threatening.

Copyright © 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

The BG News is an independent publication founded in 1972 and distributed to the student body and faculty of Bowling Green State University. Printed bi-weekly on 100% recycled paper. The views expressed in columns and letters to the editor are not necessarily those of the newspaper, its staff, or the administration of Bowling Green State University. The BG News encourages its readers to notify the paper of any errors or omissions. Copyright 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

Letters to the Editor policy

The BG News encourages readers to express their opinions. But letters must be typed, not handwritten. Letters brought in on a Macintosh-compatible disk are preferred. Bring the letter to Room 210 West Hall, penny brown, special projects editor.

Have an opinion? E-mail us! bgnews@bgnet.

Letters to the Editor

I was reading Sidney Ribeau’s “Thank You” in the Friday, April 10 BG News, and was troubled. If this was such a great event and we are all so wonderful—why was he not there to support us? The biggest campus-wide event all year and all he does is send a thank you for something he knows nothing about and doesn’t use.

Your is what gives many gay and lesbian people their heartaches. An unfortunate phenomenon in some of them in society is that one is simple: bgnet. Heh. Gay-friendly, so long as you do it out of the faults of the world: Smoking isn’t allowed in school. Striking out on one’s own is a wonderful thing, but takes intolerable stress sometimes, and time-threatening.

Copyright © 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

The BG News is an independent publication founded in 1972 and distributed to the student body and faculty of Bowling Green State University. Printed bi-weekly on 100% recycled paper. The views expressed in columns and letters to the editor are not necessarily those of the newspaper, its staff, or the administration of Bowling Green State University. The BG News encourages its readers to notify the paper of any errors or omissions. Copyright 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

Letters to the Editor policy

The BG News encourages readers to express their opinions. But letters must be typed, not handwritten. Letters brought in on a Macintosh-compatible disk are preferred. Bring the letter to Room 210 West Hall, penny brown, special projects editor.

Have an opinion? E-mail us! bgnews@bgnet.

Letters to the Editor

I was reading Sidney Ribeau’s “Thank You” in the Friday, April 10 BG News, and was troubled. If this was such a great event and we are all so wonderful—why was he not there to support us? The biggest campus-wide event all year and all he does is send a thank you for something he knows nothing about and doesn’t use.

Your is what gives many gay and lesbian people their heartaches. An unfortunate phenomenon in some of them in society is that one is simple: bgnet. Heh. Gay-friendly, so long as you do it out of the faults of the world: Smoking isn’t allowed in school. Striking out on one’s own is a wonderful thing, but takes intolerable stress sometimes, and time-threatening.

Copyright © 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

The BG News is an independent publication founded in 1972 and distributed to the student body and faculty of Bowling Green State University. Printed bi-weekly on 100% recycled paper. The views expressed in columns and letters to the editor are not necessarily those of the newspaper, its staff, or the administration of Bowling Green State University. The BG News encourages its readers to notify the paper of any errors or omissions. Copyright 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

Letters to the Editor policy

The BG News encourages readers to express their opinions. But letters must be typed, not handwritten. Letters brought in on a Macintosh-compatible disk are preferred. Bring the letter to Room 210 West Hall, penny brown, special projects editor.

Have an opinion? E-mail us! bgnews@bgnet.

Letters to the Editor

I was reading Sidney Ribeau’s “Thank You” in the Friday, April 10 BG News, and was troubled. If this was such a great event and we are all so wonderful—why was he not there to support us? The biggest campus-wide event all year and all he does is send a thank you for something he knows nothing about and doesn’t use.

Your is what gives many gay and lesbian people their heartaches. An unfortunate phenomenon in some of them in society is that one is simple: bgnet. Heh. Gay-friendly, so long as you do it out of the faults of the world: Smoking isn’t allowed in school. Striking out on one’s own is a wonderful thing, but takes intolerable stress sometimes, and time-threatening.

Copyright © 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

The BG News is an independent publication founded in 1972 and distributed to the student body and faculty of Bowling Green State University. Printed bi-weekly on 100% recycled paper. The views expressed in columns and letters to the editor are not necessarily those of the newspaper, its staff, or the administration of Bowling Green State University. The BG News encourages its readers to notify the paper of any errors or omissions. Copyright 1994, The BG News, Bowling Green, Ohio. Reprinting of any portion from this publication without the permission of The BG News is strictly prohibited.

Letters to the Editor policy

The BG News encourages readers to express their opinions. But letters must be typed, not handwritten. Letters brought in on a Macintosh-compatible disk are preferred. Bring the letter to Room 210 West Hall, penny brown, special projects editor.

Have an opinion? E-mail us! bgnews@bgnet.
QUOTE OF THE DAY

"They thought we were all full of crap because we're teenagers. I guess we showed them." - Melissa Dowdell, a McDonald's employee who is protesting the treatment she receives at work.

UPCOMING EVENTS

"Springing Events" is a service to our readers brought daily by the University with web page. The calendar of events on the web page has more complete listing of events and can be accessed through "www.bgau.edu".

Thursday, 4/16/98

BGSU Rowing Club Erg-a-thon (9 a.m.)

Government Policy and Economic Growth (9:30 a.m.)

BGSU Alumni Association, Robert C. Wagger Professor of Economics, Harvard University, and Senior Fellow of the Hoover Institution. The lecture is free and open to the public.

The Celebration of Humankind (10 a.m. - 5 p.m.)

Women's Tennis vs. Western Michigan (11 a.m.)

Falcon Club Bowling Tour To Jacobs Field (10:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.)

College of Business Administration Building.

Falcon Baseball at Jacobs Field (2 p.m.)

Jacobs Field, Cleveland, Ohio. Admission: Free. Faculty and student baseball team play on site.

"Corporate Ethics and Legal Issues in International Business" (5 p.m. - 6 p.m.)

Ward Institute. Invited speakers: Ms. Theresa Cohn, General Counsel, General Electric; Ms. Marita Barta, General Counsel, Butzel Long, Detroit. For further information, or to make reservations, call 372-9803.

bloodmobile (11 a.m. - 5 p.m.)

A McDonald's employee who is protesting the treatment she receives at work.

PEOPLE ON THE STREET

Today's Question: "What is your impression of the Jerry Springer show?"

Deaf Harrington
Sophomore
Computer Art

"If the show was a woman, I would marry it."

Rick Raymond Junior IPC

"It does not have a good vibe."

Aaron Hale
Sophomore
International Relations

"It just goes to show the way TV and society is heading."

Niles Middotra Sophomore
Pre-Med

"It has the violence and bad language that all college kids love."

Alana Palmer
Freshman
IPC

"It's a sad form of entertainment, and it should be banned from TV."

Thursday Thrills is just that... just for thrills. Please do not take it seriously. We're trying to have a good time here. Have a fun day!

Today: Mild, cloudy, heavy rain.

High: 66 Low: 51

Friday: Cool, mainly cloudy, rain.

High: 59 Low: 37

PAGE THREE is intended as an irreverent look at the University. We at the BG News hope you will have a good time reading it. Please do not take it seriously. We're trying to have a good time here. Have a fun day!
LAWYER ASKS JUDGE TO STOP STARR

The Associated Press

Lawyer asks judge to stop Starr

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - The University of Oklahoma's campus newspaper is printing a letter urging students to keep the peace and to celebrate the New Year in a safe and sane manner.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapped by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by leftist rebels.

NEW YORK - Two survivors of captivity in Lebanon, Terry Waite and Terry Anderson, are going to Colombia to appeal for the release of three missionaries kidnapping by lefti...
Virtual reality park proposed in Toledo

The Associated Press

TOLEDO -- Looking to play poker without losing any money? How about Alpine skiing, race-car driving without the risk of injury? Then downtown Toledo may be your place to experience it all.

A private developer wants to build a $5 million virtual reality park on the banks of the Maumee River along the downtown riverfront. "It has the potential to be one of the top draws for downtown," Dan Mowery, director of the River East Economic Development Revitalization Corp., said Wednesday.

The area in International Park is along the banks of the Maumee River with a birds-eye view of the city's skyline. The city has been trying to develop the park for years.

It built volleyball courts and landscaped the area. An upscale restaurant opened last year with success. Three other restaurants are expected to open there this year.

The latest proposal is called Fantasy on the Docks. Denis Katell and a friend have formed a partnership to develop the park over a four-year period.

"We're not just creating neatness of itself," he said. "Fantasy on the Docks would be a new, unique story-building with glass aeries and arches that would showcase the waterfront. It would include a sports bar with billiards and a Las Vegas-style showroom for comedy routines, dinner theater and other special events. A virtual reality center would have life-size video simulators of racing, skiing, car racing and other sports activities. The center would be a realization of a dream, allowing people to play realistic, blackjack and poker without the risk of losing money. A $3 fee would allow people to get $100 in chips.

"This is just for amusement. It's not for gambling. We don't want people to lose their money. We want people to have fun and have a good time without having to lose," Katell said.

Of course, you wouldn't be able to take home any winnings.

<table> <thead>
<tr>
<th>FOX RUN APARTMENTS</th>
<th>Renting For Summer and Fall</th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1 Bedroom, 1 Bath</td>
<td>1-800-USA-RAIL.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1-2 Bedroom, 1 Bath</td>
<td>Trains depart from the Amtrak station at 415 Emerald Ave. in Toledo.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2 Bedroom, 1 Bath</td>
<td>Hurry. Seats are limited (this isn't a term paper you can blow off to the last minute). For more information on student discounts, there's never been a better time to choose the cool, casual comfort of an Amtrak train.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2 Bedroom, 1 Bath, Furnished, A/C</td>
<td>As a special offer, show us your face, a student ID to match, your book bag, you get 25%.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2 Person Rate Available</td>
<td>&quot;Call-We'll meet you there.&quot;</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For your convenience, we will call you on the day you move in to make sure your application is on file and to answer any questions you may have.

Preferred Properties

530 S. Maple • Hours 8-4:30 • 352-9378
352-4771

Renting For Summer and Fall

FALL 1998 LEASING AVAILABLE

The Black Swamp Old Time String Band

Contradance music

Friday, April 17, 7-9 pm

Ice Arena Lounge

Bowling Green State University

Come and dance!
Breast cancer scares cause anxiety

Thursday, April 16
5:00pm-7:00pm
Tennis Courts Outside Conklin

Free!

Why, go anywhere else
Why, go anywhere else
Why, go anywhere else
Why, go anywhere else

KIP PRESENTS....

Toledo Hot Spots!!

SHOW THIS AD FOR FREE ADMISSION TO ANY OF THE CLUBS

FIELD HOUSE

135 S. Byrne & Hill
College 18 & over crowd
Featuring: Green Means Go

The original! Power Party every wed., sat. from 7:30
Wed., Fri., Sat. Night all night long Thurs., College 18 Night plus
3 for 1 w/ College 18
$1.50 cover.

Gay Thurs.

BAR & DANCE TO DANCE WITH ME!

THE BULL IS NOW HERE!!!

OPEN - WED thru SAT
Doors open at 8:00 p.m.

Come Ride the Bull
867-9713

2518 S. Reynolds & Hearthdowns

Sophomores
IN THE BUSINESS COLLEGE

Looking for meaningful Sales and Business experience?

Want a good job after you graduate?

Want to stand out from the rest of the pack?

The BG News is looking for a few highly motivated individuals who are seeking meaningful sales/business experience. Help local business owners increase their sales through the effective use of newspaper advertising. Get paid based on your abilities.

REQUIREMENTS

• Junior status as of Fall '98
• own transportation
• goal-oriented
• good GPA
• Business/Marketing majors preferred

5 yr. commitment preferred

Act Now! only 1 spot available
Call Todd 387-2006 before Monday
Teens picket McDonald's, join union

The Associated Press

MACEDONIA, Ohio - A teenage McDonald's worker who started a hamburger strike, of sorts, because they don't like the work, was joined by a few friends on spring break - ate fried chicken from a KFC across the parking lot, pellet gun in tow.

Teamsters cards on the picket sorts, because they don't like the work, and make new ones. The restaurant, which has about 25 employees, remained open.

The workers - who were six strong when they started what may be the first strike in the United States against McDonald's - say managers yell and call them when they make mistakes.

"You get called jerks and stuPid," said Melissa Dowell, 17, whose sign said "Shim for sup-p."

"There's a lot of profan-ity," she added.

Dowdell, whose mother and father also work at the restaurant, looked around at the other protesters and said: "They thought we were all full of crap because we're just teen-agers. I thought we were all full of crap and we showed them."

Officials at the restaurant about 20 miles southeast of Cleveland declined to comment and referred questions to a regional office in Independence. A telephone message was left.

Dwight Bungo, a consultant for Oak Brook, Ill-based McDonald's, said he would work with the employees to resolve problems.

The strike began Sunday, in part because workers said the company ignored the requests to be off on Easter. Workers walked out briefly April 8, saying a supervisor yelled at an employee in her 60s for not doing a good enough job cleaning the toilet. The worker broke into tears and ran out of the restaurant.

About 20 McDonald's workers in all, most in their teens, signed cards asking to be represented by the Teamsters. Two local Teamsters officials picked up and planned to attend a meeting later Wednesday between the workers and management.

Dominic Tocco, president of Local 416 in Cleveland, said the Teamsters heard about the walkout from a Milwaukee-based official.

"The issues these kids are interested in are minor. McDondald's could wave their hand and make it all right," he said.

But with fast-food restaurants plentiful - Burger King, KFC, Taco Bell, Pizza Hut and others in this shopping center area - a way not much is for another job.

"Why take this harassment," asked Bryan Drang, 19, who says he organized the style. "I'll take it, them everybody else has to take it. It just takes somebody to step up."

The pickets, some dressed in baggy jeans and wearing baseball caps backward, hoisted and bothered at the steady stream of passing cars.

Shelly Hope, left, and Mike Majewski Jr., right, participate in the picket outside a McDonald's in Macedonia, Ohio, with local Teamsters Union member Mike Majewski Jr.

The Associated Press

Friday

Sunday

Shelly Hope, left, and Mike Majewski Jr., right, participate in the picket outside a McDonald's in Macedonia, Ohio, with local Teamsters Union member Mike Majewski Jr.

FALL 1998 LISTS NOW AVAILABLE!

3 Person Rate Available Now!

(United number available)

• Fraize Ave. Apt.
• East Merry Ave.
• Field Manor Apt.

GREENBRIAR, INC.

1525 Oak Brook Drive

Sunday - 5pm.

216-946-3120

Saturday - 5pm.

352-0717

Greenbriar, Inc.

"We're glad to see the Bowling Green Community for over 20 years now!

Would you like to be a part of the BIG changes

that are going on at The BG News?

You could win a $100 gift certificate to the University

Bookstore by designing a new Flag and Topic Symbols for

The News.

Requirements

Each entry must include a design for both the Flag and

Topic Symbols. Entries must include a two color

design. We prefer computer created digital art programs

such as: Freehand, Illustrator Quark XPRESS, Photoshop

or Paintshop. Each mounted design should be labeled with the designer's name and phone number on the back of the board.

1. Flag (nameplate at top of page one) - must be no larger than 14" wide by 5.5 deep and can include the

Falcon Head logo, City of Bowling Green Seal or the University Seal. Must include the phrase "Independent

voice serving the Bowling Green Community for over

75 years" or some variation there of. Must be mounted on 20"x30" black board at full size.

2. Topic Symbols — please provide designs for six of the following topics: Campus News, City News,

Technology, Nation, World, Weather (Seasonal).

Sports, Faculty, Calendar and Administration. Winner

of the competition may be required to produce 10

finals now!

bottled water

of a staff position. Symbols will be viewed at 1/5" square but may be presented in any size necessary. Must be presented mounted together on 20"x30" black board at full size.

Entries must be turned in to 210 Main St. Office by @5:00 am. Competition open only to BGSU students.

Multiple entries are permitted. Each entry must be a separate entry and could be offered a staff position. Symbols

One 300 Locations

NAMA Approved

• WMA

• NAMA Approved

• NAMA Approved

Would you like to be a part of the BIG changes

that are going on at The BG News?

You could win a $100 gift certificate to the University

Bookstore by designing a new Flag and Topic Symbols for

The News.

Requirements

Each entry must include a design for both the Flag and

Topic Symbols. Entries must include a two color

design. We prefer computer created digital art programs

such as: Freehand, Illustrator Quark XPRESS, Photoshop

or Paintshop. Each mounted design should be labeled with the designer's name and phone number on the back of the board.

1. Flag (nameplate at top of page one) - must be no larger than 14" wide by 5" deep and can include the

Falcon Head logo, City of Bowling Green Seal or the University Seal. Must include the phrase "Independent

voice serving the Bowling Green Community for over

75 years" or some variation there of. Must be mounted on 20"x30" black board at full size.

2. Topic Symbols — please provide designs for six of the following topics: Campus News, City News,

Technology, Nation, World, Weather (Seasonal).

Sports, Faculty, Calendar and Administration. Winner

of the competition may be required to produce 10
Grandma Moses art returned

BENNINGTON, Vt. — Two wooden crates that arrived unmarked at the Bennington Museum were found to contain seven Grandma Moses paintings that were stolen 14 years ago.

The artwork was returned last week, but the museum still does not know why they were sent back or who sent them.

The brightly colored New England landscapes were stolen in 1984 from the Rose Valley, Pa., home of Margaret Carr shortly after the woman's death. She had bequeathed the paintings to the museum in the terms of her will.

Each crate contained a cryptic computer printout and a hard-to-read typeface. Each note, inexplicably signed "Ring Sar," lists the names and dates of the paintings and says: "Please send the attached follow-up for a seven-year anonymous loan" — a reference, perhaps, to the seven-year statute of limitations for prosecuting the transportation of stolen property across state lines.

The museum contacted the FBI, Pennsylvania State Police and an international registry of lost art in New York City. The New York gallery that handled Grandma Moses' estate helped identify the works.

"We were surprised and delighted that we would ever be able to find the paintings,'" museum curator Deborah Federhen says. "But then, when we traced the shipper, we found out it was a company that closed down years ago."

The Pennsylvania State Police have reopened the investigation. But the museum's attempts to trace the shipper have been unsuccessful. The packages were sent by a shipping company from Quakertown, Pa., but the receipt was found to be a phony computer printout and a fake fax number.

"The fact they kept them all, that they are still in their original frames, that they still have their original labels, that they are well taken care of by someone who really treasures them," Ms. Federhen says.

Grandma Moses, born Anna Mary Robertson, took up painting in her late 70s and lived in Eagle Bridge, N.Y., near Bennington. Ms. Carr and her sister became friends with the artist and used to visit her. Grandma Moses died in 1961 at the age of 101.

The seven primitive scenes of sledging and farming were painted when she was 97 to 99, Ms. Federhen says. Grandma Moses used an unusual shade of blue-green in all seven paintings — the result of her buying oil paint in bulk and turning out pictures in assembly-line fashion.

The brightly colored New England landscapes were stolen in 1984 from the Rose Valley, Pa., home of Margaret Carr shortly after the woman's death. She had bequeathed the paintings to the museum in the terms of her will.

Each crate contained a cryptic computer printout and a hard-to-read typeface. Each note, inexplicably signed "Ring Sar," lists the names and dates of the paintings and says: "Please send the attached follow-up for a seven-year anonymous loan" — a reference, perhaps, to the seven-year statute of limitations for prosecuting the transportation of stolen property across state lines.

The museum contacted the FBI, Pennsylvania State Police and an international registry of lost art in New York City. The New York gallery that handled Grandma Moses' estate helped identify the works.

"We were surprised and delighted that we would ever be able to find the paintings,'" museum curator Deborah Federhen says. "But then, when we traced the shipper, we found out it was a company that closed down years ago."

The Pennsylvania State Police have reopened the investigation. But the museum's attempts to trace the shipper have been unsuccessful. The packages were sent by a shipping company from Quakertown, Pa., but the receipt was found to be a phony computer printout and a fake fax number.

"The fact they kept them all, that they are still in their original frames, that they still have their original labels, that they are well taken care of by someone who really treasures them," Ms. Federhen says.

Grandma Moses, born Anna Mary Robertson, took up painting in her late 70s and lived in Eagle Bridge, N.Y., near Bennington. Ms. Carr and her sister became friends with the artist and used to visit her. Grandma Moses died in 1961 at the age of 101.

The seven primitive scenes of sledging and farming were painted when she was 97 to 99, Ms. Federhen says. Grandma Moses used an unusual shade of blue-green in all seven paintings — the result of her buying oil paint in bulk and turning out pictures in assembly-line fashion.

BGSU DAY OF SILENCE

Thursday April 16 8:00am - 5:00pm

Vision asks you to participate in a 9 hour vow of silence by presenting this card to professors, friends, and anyone during your daily Activities

Please understand my reason for not speaking today. I am a supporter of lesbians, gays, and bisexuals. I believe that laws and attitudes should be inclusive of all people and sexual orientations. The Day of Silence draws attention to those who have been silenced by hatred, oppression, and prejudice. Think about the voices you are not hearing today. What can you do to end the silence?

Don't Miss Earth Day Speaker

DAVE FOREMAN in person

"IN DEFENSE OF THE WILD"

7:30pm - Tuesday, April 21
101 Oiscamp

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

The BG News

Thursday, April 16, 1998

Act of kindness

Shao-Han Deng, 3, recovers from open heart surgery performed Tuesday at UCLA Childrens Hospital. The Deng family sought help for Shao-Heng, who was born with a rare congenital heart defect, by posting over 500 e-mail messages on the Internet titled "Seeking help to save my son." A mother in California responded to the message and helped bring the family to Los Angeles for treatment.

RESUMES: $40

SUIT: $210

MORE RESUMES: $40

HANDING UP YOUR WAITER'S APRON FOR THE LAST TIME:

MORE RESUMES. $40

PRICELESS

Co-founder,
"EARTH FIRST!"
Falcons seize chance of a lifetime

The BG News
April 16, 1998

Sports

The BC baseball team will make its first-ever appearance at Jacobs Field, as they take on Cleveland State.

By TOD Mccloskey
The BC News

For the Bowling Green baseball team, today is the dream of a lifetime opportunity.

Jacobs Field available for Cleveland State Vikings in the Cincinnati area.

The Falcons (18-13, 7-7 Mid-American Conference) will travel to Cleveland to take on the Cleveland State Vikings in the city's own Jacobs Field.

"We are still going there to be part of that dream," coach Dan Schmitz said. "I think they're real excited about getting a chance to play in the Indians' home field. When Cleveland State was still at Municipal Stadium, the Falcons played CFB there in 1982, 1979, 1977 and were rained out in 1981.

The Falcons' ace pitcher, Jeff Hundley (5-1), will start the game for BG. Though many pitchers are expected to make an appearance, Hundley will be the first Falcon to get a chance to step on the mound, as well as lower his spectacular 0.84 ERA.

"I'm pretty excited about that, but I know this is a pretty humbling game," Hundley said. "The next time I go out I could give up double the number I've already given up.

Though the Falcons are taking a special approach to this game, the team is still focused on beating Cleveland State. The Falcons' ace pitcher, Jeff Hundley, said, "I can see the excitement on everybody's faces.

"The Indians played in February, the Falcon players and coaches have been waiting patiently for this special opportunity."

"It's not just like any other game," BG senior Jay Harrington said of the trip. "It is where the Indians play, a major league park. It's somewhere we all hope to play one day or at least visit. It's definitely a thrill something to remember from the season."

The BC baseball team will make its first-ever appearance at Jacobs Field, as they take on Cleveland State.

"It's not just like any other game," BG senior Jay Harrington said of the trip. "It is where the Indians play, a major league park. It's somewhere we all hope to play one day or at least visit. It's definitely a thrill something to remember from the season."

In the midst of a race to make the MOC playoffs, BG is treating this game a little differently than most.

The Falcons know an opportunity to play in Jacobs Field is a lifetime opportunity.

"We are still going there to be part of that dream," coach Dan Schmitz said. "I think they're real excited about getting a chance to play in the Indians' home field. When Cleveland State was still at Municipal Stadium, the Falcons played CFB there in 1982, 1979, 1977 and were rained out in 1981.

Tickets are $5 for the game, which starts at 2 p.m. With overnight showers in the forecast, and rain in the morning, a tarp or canvas stadium canopy to provide the team's shelter was set up in the outfield. 'I'm pretty excited about that, but I know this is a pretty humbling game,' Hundley said. "The next time I go out I could give up double the number I've already given up.

Though the Falcons are taking a special approach to this game, the team is still focused on beating Cleveland State. The Falcons' ace pitcher, Jeff Hundley, said, "I can see the excitement on everybody's faces.

"The Indians played in February, the Falcon players and coaches have been waiting patiently for this special opportunity."

"It's not just like any other game," BG senior Jay Harrington said of the trip. "It is where the Indians play, a major league park. It's somewhere we all hope to play one day or at least visit. It's definitely a thrill something to remember from the season."

In the midst of a race to make the MOC playoffs, BG is treating this game a little differently than most.

The Falcons know an opportunity to play in Jacobs Field is a lifetime opportunity.

"We are still going there to be part of that dream," coach Dan Schmitz said. "I think they're real excited about getting a chance to play in the Indians' home field. When Cleveland State was still at Municipal Stadium, the Falcons played CFB there in 1982, 1979, 1977 and were rained out in 1981.

The Falcons have the day off. This made it's called by many, is the home run, patient for this special opportunity.

The Falcons have the day off. This made it's called by many, is the home run, patient for this special opportunity.

"I think the whole team is very excited," Schmitz said. "This could be a once in a lifetime opportunity."

"It's not just like any other game," BG senior Jay Harrington said of the trip. "It is where the Indians play, a major league park. It's somewhere we all hope to play one day or at least visit. It's definitely a thrill something to remember from the season."

In the midst of a race to make the MOC playoffs, BG is treating this game a little differently than most.

The Falcons know an opportunity to play in Jacobs Field is a lifetime opportunity.

"We are still going there to be part of that dream," coach Dan Schmitz said. "I think they're real excited about getting a chance to play in the Indians' home field. When Cleveland State was still at Municipal Stadium, the Falcons played CFB there in 1982, 1979, 1977 and were rained out in 1981.

Tickets are $5 for the game, which starts at 2 p.m. With overnight showers in the forecast, and rain in the morning, a tarp or canvas stadium canopy to provide the team's shelter was set up in the outfield. 'I'm pretty excited about that, but I know this is a pretty humbling game,' Hundley said. "The next time I go out I could give up double the number I've already given up.

Though the Falcons are taking a special approach to this game, the team is still focused on beating Cleveland State. The Falcons' ace pitcher, Jeff Hundley, said, "I can see the excitement on everybody's faces.

"The Indians played in February, the Falcon players and coaches have been waiting patiently for this special opportunity."

"It's not just like any other game," BG senior Jay Harrington said of the trip. "It is where the Indians play, a major league park. It's somewhere we all hope to play one day or at least visit. It's definitely a thrill something to remember from the season."

In the midst of a race to make the MOC playoffs, BG is treating this game a little differently than most.

The Falcons know an opportunity to play in Jacobs Field is a lifetime opportunity.
Falcons juggle classroom, meet track

The BG women's track team wins a meet against Pro and Detroit despite being shorthanded due to class conflicts.

By DANIELLE LESZCZUK

The Bowling Green women's track team was not just defeated in its opener; the team also lost four key runners and two key field eventers.

The mid-week meet at the University of Detroit Mercy was the first meet of the season for the Falcons and it was an extreme conflict with classes.

Coach Steve Price was very understanding throughout the chaos.

"Several impressive girls could not compete," Price said. "We had shuttles and were going back and forth constantly."

Some team members were able to compete in their event, get on the shuttle and be back in Bowling Green in time for their 4:00 clock class.

"This situation is to the classmen is why Bowling Green won the award for outstanding Academic Team."

Even though we were shorthanded, I felt we still competed well," Price said.

Even if shorthanded, BG won the opener against Macomb County rivals and Detroit, 129-116. Gulf Coast lost with 93 points, besting the Rockers, which scored 81 points and Detroit which scored 20 points.

Once again BG cleaned up in the field events. Junior Lee Li Wilson had a good day winning three events in the hammer throw, discus and shot put. Junior Emily Cotten also won the javelin and was within 17 feet farther than the rest of the top competitors.

Lee Kewon also won competing in her events. Kewon won the hammer throw and the discus.

Wilson Han continued her winning streak in the triple jump. Han took first in both the triple jump and the long jump.

While Bowling Green dominated the field events, the Rockers controlled the sprints and relays.

The Rockers won the 100-meter dash, 200, 400, 800 and 1,500.

Ernest Jones was missed in the 100 and 400 hurdles. Due to class conflict, she could not compete in these two events.

Brenna Williams was able to compete in one event, the 800, where she finished second.

In the long-distance events, the Falcons showed their strength. Jessica Leuken won the 5,000 and the 10,000.

In the 1,600, the distance where Kewon competed, the Falcons were second and third.

The Falcons women's track team defeated Gulf Coast in an all-inclusive tri-meet on Tuesday. BG will return to action on Saturday at Ball State.

women's track team will travel to Ball State to compete against the Mid-American Conference East Western Michigan, Central Michigan and Ball State. The meet will start Saturday at noon.

STADIUM ILLS FOR YANKS TO HIRI THE ROAD

The Associated Press

NEW YORK -- Yankee Stadium will spend its 75th birthday on the disabled list -- and the city officials seems ready to give the ballpark its unconditional release.

Mayor Rudolph Giuliani said Wednesday that city inspectors had found "growing cracks" in the 80-year-old field, and "a few more'' cracks have been found since Monday after a steel-angle support for the roof collapsed -- had found more problems, including "a potential for structural failure that has been damaged by recent rains."

"They are not structural problems that will affect the stadium long term, or even from opening, but there are things that now that we have the time we should fix," Giuliani said.

Yankees owner George Steinbrenner said he expects a decision shortly on his team's future. It could be either the Bronx, Manhattan or New Jersey.

"I think we will see a decision in 1996," Steinbrenner said in a telephone interview with The Associated Press. "All our options are still open, but the truth is we should make a decision this year."

For his part, Giuliani moved closer toward ruling out further renovations since the Yankees' lease runs out after the 2002 season.

"In many ways you are dealing with the city, the state and stadium, as that's something as we speak we gave a look take a good look at the mayor said. "I think it is more likely that you would build a new ballpark than try the field a second or a third time."

Addressing the issue of water damage to the facade, which was built during a 1974 rehabilitation, city buildings commissioner Giuliani said治理州 workers will erect scaffolding around the stadium and check for damage. Any weak area will be repaired, he said.

"Don't waste these pieces floating off and hitting someone on the ground," Silva said. Meanwhile, the Yankees three-game weekend series against the Detroit Tigers, scheduled for Yankee Stadium, was switched to Tiger Stadium.

That puts the Yankees on the road Saturday, the 75th anniversary of the day Babe Ruth opened Yankee Stadium with a home run.

Sunday's collapse of the 300-pound joint into the stadium's middle deck already had forced the postponement of two series in the last two years, including this year's doubleheader with the Anaheim Angels. The teams played Wednesday at Shea Stadium, home of the Mets, with the Yankees winning 6-1.

Before beginning that game, Giuliani said the joint collapse "underscores the need both (New York) teams have for a new baseball field."

The Mets already are negotiating with the city for a new stadium, and the accordion Monday has prompted speculation that it will now be a new park.

"I feel as pressure," said Steinbrenner, who repeatedly has threatened to leave the Bronx when the team's lease on the city-owned stadium expires in four years.

One suggestion mentioned by Steinbrenner has been New Jersey. another has been Medford, which has been used for the last 16 years and is scheduled to run out in 2002.

Steinbrenner said a stadium with retractable roof, like the new one being built in Boston, would be cheaper than a new one.

"We will do what ever day is good through the kind of inspection we're doing now," he said.

The last detailed inspection of the stadium's roof was done in 1979, when cracks appeared in the concrete. City Parks and Recreation department spokesman Ed Sklyer said Wednesday that the city "had not been inspecting Yankee Stadium ceiling-to-ceiling" before Monday's collapse.

"Giuliani said that would change, at both Yankee and Shea stadiums."

"What we do every year is go through the kind of inspection we're doing now," he said.

With this weekend's series moved to Detroit, the Yankees are scheduled to return to their own stadium April 24, for a three-game weekend series.
Benches clear in Indians' loss

Thursday, April 16, 1998

The Associated Press

CLEVELAND — Randy Johnson's ejection produced an immeasurable result for the Seattle Mariners: a comeback against the other team's bullpen.

The Indians avoided the worst start in franchise history with a 5-3 victory. The Associated Press

Seattle relievers blew leads in both his no-decisions, including a two-hit, 15-strikeout performance in the first start against the Mariners. The Associated Press

Johnson (0-2) was charged with one run and one hit in 2 1-3 innings. The Associated Press

Johnson threw a second pitch in the third after Johnson threw at Lofton and David Justice.

With order finally restored, Indians' first game of the season in five chances. Ayala retired Travis Fryman and pinch-hitters Jim Thome and David Justice.

Johnson, Kenny Lofton and Alomar were ejected in the third after Johnson threw at Lofton's head on consecutive pitches, causing both benches to clear.

Giles, who replaced Lofton in center field, hit a two-run homer off reliever Bob Wells in the sixth to make it 8-4 and spoil a rare strong outing by a Seattle reliever.

The defending AL West champions have started 4-10 for the fourth time, but avoided their first 8-11 start by beating up on another team's bullpen.

Seattle relievers blew leads twice in Boston last weekend and in the first two games of this series. They came in at 4.4 with an 8.44 ERA.

The Indians' first run came on a side-step homer by Dan Bell, son of Detroit Tigers great Al Kaline. Bell, the second, off Johnson in the second.

The Mariners cut it to 3-2 in the seventh on Jeff Huson's RBI groundout and Dan Winser's RBI double off Eric Plunk.

Seattle relievers blew leads once again in the seventh. Reliever Mike Jackson, covering on Jeff Huson's grounder to first baseman Jeff Mabon, dropped the throw to allow Alomar to score.

Travis Fryman followed Giles' homer with a triple off the center-field wall, and Wells left with a slight abdominal strain.

The Associated Press

Seattle starter Bartolo Colon (2-0) was knocked out of the game in the sixth.

Colon buzzed one right by Lofton's head. Lofton and the 6-foot-5 hurler came within an inch of each other at the follow-through.

Indians starter Paul Spoljaric (1-0) is-
INDIANAPOLIS — Bo Jackson, the Auburn running back who won the Heisman Trophy in 1985 and went on to play in the NFL, and in major league baseball, was among 12 men selected today for the College Football Hall of Fame.

Also voted in were Jim McMahon, the Western Athletic Conference quarterback who led Brigham Young and quarterback Jerry Rhome, the 1964 Heisman runner-up who now is offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams.

Two of the former players are now assistant coaches in the NFL. Missouri running back Johnny Roland, running backs coach for the Arizona Cardinals, and Tulsa quarterback Jerry Rhome, the 1964 Heisman runner-up who now is offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams.

The 12 players will be inducted Dec. 8 at the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame's annual awards dinner in New York. They will be enshrined during ceremonies at the College of Fame in South Bend in the summer of 1999.

The only one of the 12 who did not play in the NFL is Alex Faust, an All-Big Ten center and tackle at Wisconsin, Arizona, Cleveland and Green Bay. He retired after the 1996 season. The others picked for the Hall this year were: Bo Jackson, RB, Auburn, Arizona, Los Angeles, Kansas City, Chicago, Miami (Fla.) and San Diego; Jim McMahon, QB, Brigham Young, Chicago Bears, Philadelphia Eagles and St. Louis Rams; Jim McMahon, Sr., QB, Illinois, Iowa, Southern Illinois and Nebraska; Randy Gradishar, LB, Ohio State, Denver Broncos, San Francisco 49ers, Houston Oilers, Jacksonville Jaguars and St. Louis Rams; and Randy Gradishar, Sr., C, Ohio State, Philadelphia Eagles and St. Louis Rams.

The announcement Tuesday of the 12-man class was the final one in the College Football Hall of Fame's first season of inductees. The first class of 14 was announced last fall and the Hall of Fame was dedicated during half-time of the Ohio State-Michigan game last Saturday in Columbus.

Sports Briefs

Softball team loses doubleheader to Ohio State

The Bowling Green softball team lost a doubleheader to the Bowling Green Falcons, 3-2 and 10-9 in Columbus last night. The Falcons came close in the first game, but barely avoided a no-hit in the nightcap.

In the first game, Ohio State scored one run in the bottom of the sixth inning to pull out the victory. Garrett Chilson (1B-3B) picked up the loss for the Falcons, giving up three earned runs on 10 hits.

In the second game, Falcon pitcher Amy Hamilton was the only bing that scored between Ohio State and a wild hitter. Hamilton, who was named as the top pitcher in the MAC a week ago, allowed five runs and hit five batters in allowing the Falcons to win, 10-9.

The Falcons (12-25-1) will travel to Athens, Ohio for Friday to take on Ohio University.

Men's tennis enthralls Wright State today

The BG men's tennis team is scheduled to host the Wright State Raiders at 3 p.m. this afternoon. This will be the final non-conference match of the year for the Falcons, before they finish the regular season at the Mid-American Conference Championship.

"Wright State is going to be good, but they are a level below us," BG coach Jay Harris said. "They should be a nice tune-up for us going into the weekend."

In the event of rain tomorrow, the match will be moved to the Shadow Valley tennis club at 1:30 p.m.

Bengals' Copeland out for six months

CINCINNATI — Defensive end John Copeland may not be able to play for four to six months as a result of an injured Achilles' tendon, the Cincinnati Bengals said Wednesday.

Copeland suffered a ruptured left Achilles' tendon on Wednesday while he was working out at the University of Auburn, and the injury required surgery. He underwent surgery Wednesday by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Ala. The team said Copeland was scheduled to have surgery Thursday, Brennan said.

Bengans were banking on Copeland and Reggie Seds earlier Wednesday, but the野生 contract wasCopeland's injury.

Hoying has emergency appendectomy

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Philadelphia Eagles quarterback Bobby Hoying is expected to miss part of the team's training camp next week after an emergency appendectomy. Doctors expect him to be ready for the opening day of camp.

Hoying was rushed to Ohio State University Hospital Tuesday for an appendectomy. Hoying was diagnosed with appendicitis earlier this week during a team's minicamp.

Wright State is going to be good, but they are a level below us," BG coach Jay Harris said. "They should be a nice tune-up for us going into the weekend."

In the event of rain tomorrow, the match will be moved to the Shadow Valley tennis club at 1:30 p.m.

Bengals' Copeland out to four months

The Associated Press

Hoying was rushed to Ohio State University Hospital Tuesday for an appendectomy. Hoying was diagnosed with appendicitis earlier this week during a team's minicamp.

Hoying is expected to miss part of the team's training camp next week after an emergency appendectomy. Doctors expect him to be ready for the opening day of camp.

Wright State is going to be good, but they are a level below us," BG coach Jay Harris said. "They should be a nice tune-up for us going into the weekend."

In the event of rain tomorrow, the match will be moved to the Shadow Valley tennis club at 1:30 p.m.

Bengals' Copeland out to four months

The Associated Press

Hoying was rushed to Ohio State University Hospital Tuesday for an appendectomy. Hoying was diagnosed with appendicitis earlier this week during a team's minicamp.

Hoying is expected to miss part of the team's training camp next week after an emergency appendectomy. Doctors expect him to be ready for the opening day of camp.

Wright State is going to be good, but they are a level below us," BG coach Jay Harris said. "They should be a nice tune-up for us going into the weekend."

In the event of rain tomorrow, the match will be moved to the Shadow Valley tennis club at 1:30 p.m.

Bengals' Copeland out to four months

The Associated Press

Hoying was rushed to Ohio State University Hospital Tuesday for an appendectomy. Hoying was diagnosed with appendicitis earlier this week during a team's minicamp.

Hoying is expected to miss part of the team's training camp next week after an emergency appendectomy. Doctors expect him to be ready for the opening day of camp.
Giant lizards and alien viruses: Summer ‘98 flicks

BY CHRIS NICKERSON

S

ing is here and so is the season of long days and time to enjoy Hollywood action. Summer doesn’t mean Hollywood is starting to draw down this summer’s potential block busters.

First out of the gate is Deep

This movie is proof of the
to be another

for this summer’s

the

the

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a
Entertainment highlights starting the week of April 13, 25, 43, 51, 69 and 235, 45 years ago: George Stevens' "Shane" premiere in New York City: Music City; The film starred Alan Ladd, Jean Arthur, Van Heflin and Jack Palance.

30 years ago: Dior and the Irregular first single "I Wonder Why" was released by Lafayette Records.

25 years ago: Life magazine's cover story was "Chappaquiddick -- Most Talked About Movie Ever Made." The four-hour film, starring Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton, was a cinematic masterpiece.

20 years ago: Bob Marley and the Wailers performed at the "One Love Peace Concert" in England. January. It was Marley's first public appearance since his serious car accident in December. It's a sea of people who are singing along, singing "One Love." Everyone is singing in this song. I wish I could see them perform in their prime.

10 years ago: Political television's Fred Rogers received a lifetime achievement award for his work with young viewers. The award was presented to Rogers by the "Mister Rogers Neighborhood," by the Dulles Road Education Foundation. And former entertainer Sunny Bono was inaugurated as mayor of Palm Springs.

5 years ago: Up to 3 on "KM an 10 years ago: Public television's Fred Rogers received a lifetime achievement award for his work with young viewers. The award was presented to Rogers by the "Mister Rogers Neighborhood," by the Dulles Road Education Foundation. And former entertainer Sunny Bono was inaugurated as mayor of Palm Springs.
Sarah McLachlan surfaces in Toledo

By JENNY IMBER

Sarah McLachlan has undeniably become a major force in today's music industry. During the past ten years, she has established herself on a musical powerhouse, not only by singing on her albums but also by becoming the primary song-writer and instrumentalist (piano, guitar).

Her early albums Touch and Solace earned her a following in her native country of Canada while the multi-platinum release of Fumbling Towards Ecstasy in 1993 won her a fanbase in the United States.

In 1993 won McLachlan's latest album Surfacing, releasing from her six-person band to alter a full, rich musical tapestry. Providing a full, rich musical mosaic of McLachlan's voice throughout the evening, promising to play songs from all of her albums, she launched into a two-hour set. Emphasis was placed most heavily on the music, with McLachlan passing only briefly to explain the meaning behind the song or her feelings when she wrote it. She joined her six-person band in alternately playing piano and guitar throughout the evening, proving a full, rich musical tapestry.

Her voice, never less than perfect, sounded at times ethereal. Perhaps her best vocal performance of the night was the song "Free." McLachlan started out on the piano in a low, soothing voice. Halfway through the song she stood, walked to the microphone, and belted the rest of the song out in a high-pitched voice that sounded other-worldly and sent a shiver down my spine.

To conclude the concert, McLachlan walked onto a cake-fluted stage, sat down at the piano, and played the song "Angel." The sparseness of McLachlan's voice accompanied only by the piano made it the highlight of the evening and a routing success of the concert. Along with the success of her albums, McLachlan has to her credit the creation of a female-fronted roster that an all-female music festival never prevail. McLachlan presented to play the tour and gather the artists.

Sarah McLachlan at the Sports Arena in Toledo last Wednesday. Photos by Jenny Imber

LOOKING FOR YOU?

Beckley Cardy Group has been in Mansfield, Ohio for 35 years. Each summer we hire several hundred students to work in our state of the art distribution center. We are looking for you to be a part of the Obisdian! Personal essay and opinion article submissions are currently being accepted. If your article is good, we will print it! Send submissions to 202 West Hall c/o Charlotte Wade. If you have questions call 372-2440. Deadline: April 20. Publication: April 29

Looking for a Summer Job in Mansfield?

We have several hundred students to work in our state of the art distribution center. We offer an exciting work environment, the opportunity to meet lots of new friends, multiple shifts, 40 plus hours per week, and competitive wages.

We still have positions available. So, if you are looking for the opportunity to earn some real money during the summer, simply stop by Career Services to obtain an application. We are located at 100 Paragon Parkway in Mansfield. For further information call us at 419-589-1903 or 800-305-0174, extension 1903.
TOLEDO BGSU HUMAN RELATIONS & BAN ASSOCIATION will hold tryout Sun Apr 11 rhf
MANAGEMENT FOR SPECIAL OFFICIATING CREATED BY CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY
Additional 3#03 to Choose from:

The BG News

str'aanMory. tackaif in '•dual bant, mtakading or lalv or rcc>cure My advcrtucmrM Mack aa thoac found lo be du i vnmtiutr. uxnc-Mtagc diximinaami. agaaM My nature All advcrHNmcnt* an wbasci n editing and

The BGN<». #iil

lno»«l> »«*p< »dvfrikfme"u

the applicant's tenure aa a BGSU graduate.

For lurther information contact the GSS

Cariboean/Me.ico S229 "I

THE CELEBRATION OF Male appreciation Month

Slop by and be seen
Sponsored by UAO.

THE WINNING TEAM WILL RECEIVE $40
Signups begin April 10th and run through

HELP WANTED

INTERNET/WEB SERVICES OFFERED

Help wanted. Babysitter tor 2 children In my Hang out with kids, go to the park and have tun

ALD' ALD • ALD • ALD • ALD • ALD

ALD' ALD • ALD •

JH.i My name is Cathenne. I'm 7 My brother

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR SUMMER WORK?

Watson at 353-8100)

EXPERIENCED BIKETECH Apply in person

HELP WANTED

THERE IS A 352-9067

TRUCKS. 4 x4's.etc.

354-3271 ask tenants to v*w

605 Fifth St eC-small 2 Br $360

601 E. Broad St. 2 Br $450

353-5800.

352-5620

1 BR $450

FOR RENT

943-471-3300 ext 4558

1-800 522-2730 ext 4558

Three Bedroom Home

419-522-0999

506-690-7500

$10 95

2 Medium Pizzas

Chicken & One Topping

$9 95

2 Toppings

$6 99

DINNER SPECIAL

LARGE PIZZA PLUS 2 MEDIUMS

$35-0044

1045 N. Main St.

FREE DELIVERY

HUNGRY HENRY'S

353-5800

353-0620

NEW YORK

325 South Main Street

(only office)

For a complete 1998/99 listing stop by our office, 1045 N. Main, or call 353-5800.

THE WASH HOUSE
Laundromat
250 N. Main
OPEN 24 HOURS DAILY
WASH FOR 75¢

HIGHLAND MANAGEMENT
10 E. Washington St., Bowling Green, Ohio
419 544-6556

Equal Housing Opportunity

HIGHLAND Management
10 E. Washington St., Bowling Green, Ohio
419 544-6556

Joyo Apartments, 200+ apartments in Bowling G. \-A. & Col. from $300 to $500. Most are 1 BR. For info call 352-5620

THE JOHNSTON'S

601 E. Broad St. 2 Br $450

352-5620

FOR RENT

506-690-7500

506-690-7500

LOW SUMMER RATES

ROOM & board-House for rent

Room & board-Full Board at Ohio Northern University

115 4th St. 1 BR $425

115 4th St. 1 BR $425

350-6200

117 N. Lane-Side Rd. 1 BR $400

350-6200

HIGH PERFORMANCE SPEAKERS

250W Gold amplifiers

Many new & valuable parts

1993 Escort LX 4dr 76K. »4300

"98-'99 124,000

605 Fifth St eC-small 2 Br $360

353-5800.

"98-99

Commercial air

354-2308 ext 8704

350-6200

353-5800.

LOW COMMISSION

FREE DELIVERY

HUNGRY HENRY'S

353-5800

353-0620

NEW YORK

325 South Main Street

(only office)

For a complete 1998/99 listing stop by our office, 1045 N. Main, or call 353-5800.