Education credited for Bell's success

Diane Davis

Affirmative action took more than 30 years, and he has been an issue of debate since President Kennedy issued the first executive order to end hiring and employment practices that were fair to minorities. In the case of Thomas Fire Chief, Mike Bell, affirmative action has worked.

It was an affirmative action quote that gave him the opportunity to work for the Toledo Police Department. Before that, he became the youngest chief in the United States for the fire department. He was recruited to the Toledo Police Department by the Toledo Police Chief.

"If not only the first black chief for the city of Toledo, but also the first black police chief to hold this position for a metropolitan area in the state of Ohio. At the time of his promotion at age 28, he became the youngest police chief in the United States for the fire department. He was recruited to the Toledo Police Department by the Toledo Police Chief."

Bell graduated from an inner-city school. His father was a kickboxing coach, and his mother was an inner-city social worker. He was the first black to achieve a degree.

In 1976, she married Paul Bell, a Cleveland police officer. They had one son, Paul Bell Jr., and one daughter, Tamara Bell. Bell was a devout Christian and a strong advocate for social justice.

The Coalition Against Sexual Offenses

The Coalition Against Sexual Offenses was a non-profit organization that provided support and resources for victims of sexual assault. They were known for their dedication to helping victims and fighting for justice. The Coalition was founded in 1994 and had offices throughout the United States.

MOCK TRIAL

The Coalition Against Sexual Offenses put on a mock trial to help educate the public about the experiences of sexual assault victims. The mock trial was held in a local theater, and it featured a real-life crime scene, evidence, and witnesses. The trial was conducted by an experienced judge, and it was attended by local law enforcement officers and community members.

SUPPORT GROUPS

The Coalition Against Sexual Offenses also offered support groups to help victims of sexual assault. These support groups provided a safe and confidential space for individuals to share their experiences, and they offered resources and guidance to help them through their recovery.

FAIRYTALE

The Fairy Tale Awards were an annual event hosted by the Coalition Against Sexual Offenses. The awards recognized individuals and organizations that had made significant contributions to the fight against sexual assault. The Fairy Tale Awards were held in conjunction with the Coalition's annual mock trial, and they featured a variety of performances, speeches, and presentations.

American are eating larger food portions

By Angela B. Carter

Across America, the majority of adults and children have increased the amount of food on their plates. According to a recent survey by the Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA), food portions have increased in size and are more likely to cause obesity.

The increase in portion sizes is due to a number of factors. One factor is the increase in the acceptance of larger food portions. People are more comfortable with serving themselves larger portions of food.

Another factor is the increase in the acceptance of serving more at each sitting. People are more likely to eat more at each sitting because they are more comfortable with serving themselves larger portions of food.

The increase in portion sizes has also been attributed to the increase in the acceptance of serving more at each sitting. People are more likely to eat more at each sitting because they are more comfortable with serving themselves larger portions of food.

Ohio State University was arson

The fire began early Monday during a birthday celebration. Witnesses said they saw an argument during the party, but McFarland said witnesses did not believe it had "a huge amount" to do with the fire.

The fire in the three-story brick house near campus killed two Ohio State students and three students from this university. Two more students sustained hospitalizations Tuesday, one in critical condition. Students said an arson investigation was under way.

REWARD: Columbus Police Department Lt. Mary Hoskins said a fire that occurred a result for information leading to the arrest of suspects responsible for a fatal fire near the Ohio State Campus.

Abortion is indeed a form of genocide

On Monday and yesterday, a group displayed graphic full size posters of aborted children and other atrocities in the heart of the Union. One poster had three pictures. The first showed a baby being killed with a bullet; the second showed a black box with the words "genocide" in red; the third showed a billboard with the words "Genocide is killing our children." These images were intended to evoke fear and disgust in the viewer.

The alleged perpetrator had raped a woman who was then aborted. The heading read: "The displayed images of grossness. The audience played the role of the soldiers. The group then proceeded to paint the bodies of the images of Auschwitz and Nanking, Cambodia and Iraq, etc. Even the fate of the native American people was depicted.

Women's golf places fourth at Invitational

The BG women's golf team had a strong showing at the Beekman Invitational this past weekend and Sunday and Monday in Kalamazoo, Mich. They placed fourth out of the 10 teams in the tournament and had two good finishes in the top 10. The Falcons were behind the top finishing Falcon as she finished fifth overall after winning the play- off on the 15th hole with an overall score of 154. It was her best finish in her BG career.

"Shelby Hildbrand played very well for us and had a great week for us," Thomas said. "She was able to get a big cut of players on top and win on the cut and win the final." She tied for 15th place in the tournament with a total score of 219, 52 strokes below par. Hildbrand will be a key player for the Falcons in the future.

Senior Emily Hauser also placed in the top ten with a score of 214, tying for 13th place. She shot a 146 in the first round and 164 in the final round. She was just competing for the team however; she was just competing for the individual title.

"Emily Hauser did fantastic during the weekend," coach Kurt Sikorski said. "She finished in fourth place in the tournament. She shot 146 in the first round and finished in fourth place. She will be a key player in the future." She tied for 13th place in the tournament with a total score of 214.

The team will head down to Kalamazoo, Mich. to participate in the Ohio State Invitational on Saturday and Sunday.

Schnipske has much success as a Falcon

By Ken Duley

The Bowling Green women's golf team had a big production this year from junior Jenny Schnipke. She was the team's top finisher in the tournament and finished fourth out of the 10 teams in the tournament and had two good finishes in the top 10. The Falcons were behind the top finishing Falcon as she finished fifth overall after winning the play-off on the 15th hole with an overall score of 154. It was her best finish in her BG career.

"Jenny Schnipke is a really great setter. They had size, speed, and power on their team," Thomas said. "She had great performance during the weekend and performed well against each of the other three conference schools." The Falcons were behind the top finishing Falcon as she finished fifth overall after winning the play-off on the 15th hole with an overall score of 154. It was her best finish in her BG career.

"Jenny Schnipke is from Kalida, Ohio, and that's where she played for Kalida High School for four years. While at Kalida, she earned second team all-american honors in 1998 and in 1999 she led her high school team to first- and second-place finishes in the Grand Valley Spring Invitational and the Midwest Athletic Conference Invite, respectively.

The Falcons competed in the Ohio State Invitational on Saturday and Sunday and Monday and Tuesday and Wednesday. They finished in fourth place in the tournament with a total score of 915, 30 strokes behind the fourth place team. Falcons hit four, win against IPFW

By Matt Martley
The Morning Press

They are always the most successful in their home stands. They are also the team that you most want to root for. While others watched the Floyd County Pythons win again, the Falcons defeated IPFW 17-8 at Steller Field.

The Falcons scored a run in the first inning on a sacrifice fly by Linda Ritter and they took the lead in the second with a hit triple and a sacrifice fly. Wisconsin State scored a run in the second inning, an error by the Falcons, and a sacrifice fly.
