The BG News April 11, 2012

Bowling Green State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/bg-news

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/bg-news/8515

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-No Derivative Works 4.0 License. This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Publications at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in BG News (Student Newspaper) by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.
SUSHI 101

Dining Services gives students a taste of Asian culture with sushi demonstration at The Oaks on Tuesday.

By Tierra Owens, Reporter

Excited laurels and loud whispering filled the area around the Gumbo station as more than a dozen people gathered for a sushi demonstration at The Oaks.

"I'm so excited," someone said, with a chorus of "So am I" soon following.

The demonstration, "Sushi 101," took place from 5 to 6 p.m. and required pre-registration. Everyone took their places at reserved tables and played chorus of "So am I." Soon following.

Step 1: Place rice on nori

Step 2: Flip and add crab and cucumber

Step 3: Roll with bamboo mat

Step 4: Cut and add sauces

Step 5: Add fried onion on top

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Victim reports sexual assault to city police

A woman reported she was abducted and sexually assaulted while entering the student center building located on the 400 block of E. Court St., during the late evening hours of April 1, according to the press release.

While she was attempting to enter her building, two men allegedly forced her to the back of a car and drove around while she was sexually assaulted, according to the press release.

The suspects were described as white, one thin and taller than six feet and the other short. While she was attempting to enter her building, two men allegedly forced her to the back of a car and drove around while she was sexually assaulted, according to the press release.

Anyone with information related to the incident is encouraged to contact city police at 419-352-0077 or Wood County CrimeStoppers at 419-352-2571 or Wood County Crimestoppers.

Burrito Battle

Junior, Accounting and Finance

Amanda McAuley

The sixth annual burrito eating contest was held on Tuesday night. Scenes of the Eagles North Gate on Tuesday evening. This dinner is the first of three events in the Rebellion Series hosted by University Activities Organization. The group organized the series for the last few weeks of the semester to help students deal with stress.

CAMPUS

Technology Services

Technology Services is currently updating technology throughout the campus.

SPORTS

Falcon doubleheader

The softball team will host a doubleheader against Denison Mercy University on Wednesday at 3 p.m.

FORUM

Prophets for profits

Forumeditor Stephen Reed shared his personal experiences of being on the receiving end of a priest's sales pitch.

Workshop helps students cope with loss, grief

Counseling Center hosts series of events to assist students

The Counseling Center hosted a "Living with Grief and Loss" workshop Tuesday evening for students as a response to the recent car crash and funeral.

The event, hosted by doctoral student Jenny Lee and interns Claire Poole, focused on discussing and building an understanding of the grief process and how to cope with the loss of a loved one.

This is the second workshop the Counseling Center has hosted after the crash.

More than a dozen students attended the event and had the opportunity to share related experiences and feelings about bereavement.

The discussions led to connections and reaching out to others who had similar stories.

The workshop also offered resources to help with the grieving process and ways for students dealing with loss to start healing and heal.

It is estimated that 40 percent of students will face the loss of a loved one while attending college, according to the workshop speakers.

STRETCH TO UNSTRESS

Anyone with information related to the incident is encouraged to contact city police at 419-352-0077 or Wood County CrimeStoppers at 419-352-2571 or Wood County CrimeStoppers.

More than a dozen students will face the loss of a loved one while attending college, according to the workshop speakers.

Where do you go for your favorite ethnic cuisine?

"I go to 16th Ave. Theresa's, they have the best pizza.

AMANDA MAULEY

Journal, Accounting and Finance

"I go to 16th Ave. Theresa's, they have the best pizza."
FROM THE FRONT PAGE

BLOTTER
MON., APRIL 9
10:40 A.M. Complainant reported that between Friday and Monday, the 206 block of S. Summit St. The complainant was unsure whether the bike was locked.

12:33 P.M. Complainant reported that within the 100 block of E. Main St., someone stole a sports bike within the 200 block of S. Grove St. The bikes were worth $800 combined.

TUES., APRIL 10
12:40 A.M. Ethan James, Bishop Jr., of 338 % N. Church.

CORRECTION POLICY
We are sorry to correct factual errors. If you think an error has been made, call The RG News at 419-352-5620.

Did you know?
During the University’s early years, all first-year students were required to wear beanies for the first month of classes.

“Aiyai!” demonstrates how to roll a particular kind of sushi at a demonstration Tuesday evening at The Oaks

Wearing an all black ensemble and wielding his own knife, “Chef Sam” quickly put together a sushi dish in about eight seconds.

Donning gloves, everyone dove into their rice

platter and began making California rolls.

The event guests

constantly made jokes and encouraging each other.

Chef Patrick Hannan, the event host, called everyone to gather around him. He began the event by talking about the history of sushi.

Several event guests had a good time and

joked on in their sushi creations.

The Uaks has previously been working in Dining Services for the past four years and has 28 years of professional culinary

experience.

The Guards station has built-in speakers, television monitors and tables that stick out for the purpose of observing, he said.

The Darks has previously been working in Dining Services for the past four years and has 28 years of professional culinary

experience.

Hannan has been working in Dining

Services for the past four years, and 28 years of professional culinary

experience.

The Guards station has built-in speakers, television monitors and tables that stick out for the purpose of observing, he said.

The Darks has previously been working in Dining Services for the past four years and has 28 years of professional culinary

experience.

Stay informed more easily by following us on Facebook and Twitter

Newlove Rentals
335 S. Main (near only office)
419-532-8563
www.newlove-rentals.com

• Efficiencies
• Close to campus

WWW.BGNEWS.COM
BITE THE BURRITO

Students compete in annual burrito eating contest for a year’s supply of Qdoba burritos

PHOTOS BY ABBI PARK | THE BG NEWS

RIGHT: Sophomore Josh Nemer (left) and Joe Gallo (right) share a laugh as their team participates in the contest.

TOP LEFT: University students flocked to Qdoba on Tuesday evening for the kickoff of the restaurant’s sixth annual burrito eating contest. Students formed teams of four to compete for a year’s supply of Qdoba burritos. Twenty teams are competing in this ongoing tournament-style event.

BOTTOM LEFT: Some participants began to show down towards the end while munching their burritos.

To see more photos from the burrito eating contest, check out a photo gallery at BGNEWS.COM

“I enjoy sweating profusely while trying to sleep.”

Night sweats?
Let us cool you down.

> Air Conditioning
> FREE High Speed Internet
> FREE Basic Cable
> FREE DVD Library
> FREE Water & Trash
> FREE Gas (Heat, Water, Cooking)
> FREE Resident Shuttle
> 24 Hr Maintenance
> 3 Laundromats
> 2 Swimming Pools
> 1 & 2 Bedroom Apts
> FREE Resident Shuttle
> 24 Hr Maintenance
> 3 Laundromats
> 2 Swimming Pools
> 1 & 2 Bedroom Apts
> FREE Water

Questions?
Call the Registration Hotline:
419-372-4444
8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Monday-Friday.

Office of Registration and Records - 110 Administration Bldg.
You can access everything that you need, including tutorials, via the "Student Center" at the MyBGUSI portal.
Religious leaders shall not profit from the pulpit

For the last few weeks, there's been a song I've borderline obsessed with. "Your Little Light" by Hillsong.

Not a popular song, nor one that was released any time recently by the band. Yet I kept it in my pocket.

It's a short song, 3 minutes and 45 seconds long. But it's packed with meaning.

It starts out with these lines:

"For the last few weeks, there's been a song I've borderline obsessed with. "Your Little Light" by Hillsong. Not a popular song, nor one that was released recently by the band. Yet I kept it in my pocket."

This song has been a balm to my soul. It's a reminder of the importance of living a life that shines for others.

And it's made me think about the role of religious leaders.

Do they just want to profit from the pulpit? Or do they want to use their platform to make a real difference in the world?

It's a question that's been on my mind lately.

For me, the answer is clear: religious leaders should not profit from the pulpit.

Instead, they should use their platform to inspire others, to share their message, and to help make the world a better place.

This means not just speaking at conferences and events, but also using their influence to support causes they care about.

It means not just speaking about issues, but also taking action to address them.

It means not just speaking about love and peace, but also working to create a world where those values are a reality.

It means not just speaking about faith, but also working to create a world where everyone has access to the opportunities and resources they need to lead fulfilling lives.

It means not just speaking, but also doing.

The pulpit is a powerful tool. It's a place where people can be inspired, challenged, and moved to action.

But it shouldn't be used as a way to profit.

It should be used to make a difference.

That's why I believe religious leaders should not profit from the pulpit.
Silence. Do you remember what that sounds like?

"That past week, I've asked to do something unusual for an assignment: a media fast. The purpose is to become more aware of how much time you spend consuming media. Hint: do without looking something up in the sky, do not take in any Facebook and Twitter. Avoid being drawn into a conversation about the news. If people insist, tell them about the news, a book, or a magazine. Personally, my experience of this mindfulness practice is that media keeps us informed, entertained. It's experiences like these that make me emphasize that the future of humanity itself.

"This past week, I was asked to do something unusual for an assignment: a media fast. The purpose is to become more aware of how much time you spend consuming media. Hint: do without looking something up in the sky, do not take in any Facebook and Twitter. Avoid being drawn into a conversation about the news. If people insist, tell them about the news, a book, or a magazine. Personally, my experience of this mindfulness practice is that media keeps us informed, entertained. It's experiences like these that make me emphasize that the future of humanity itself.

"This past week, I was asked to do something unusual for an assignment: a media fast. The purpose is to become more aware of how much time you spend consuming media. Hint: do without looking something up in the sky, do not take in any Facebook and Twitter. Avoid being drawn into a conversation about the news. If people insist, tell them about the news, a book, or a magazine. Personally, my experience of this mindfulness practice is that media keeps us informed, entertained. It's experiences like these that make me emphasize that the future of humanity itself.
Baseball pulls 2-1 upset on road against Michigan

By Ethan Eastwood

The Falcons gave up a mere three games in a seven-game stretch against the Wolverines in a nonconference game Tuesday on the right note, only run and three of his six total baserunners in the first inning.

The Falcons once again used small ball in the eighth to take scoring, the 6-0 conference leader. Miami and Ball State.

The Falcons are now preparing for a MAC game against Western Michigan Friday at 1 p.m. Fans are encouraged to make their way to Kellee Courts since the match will be located on campus.
KELSEY BENSON. BG women's golfer, drives the ball down the fairway after teeing off at her respective markers. BG recently went 7-0 at the Colonel Classic in Kentucky.

Women's golf takes eighth in Colonial Classic competition

BG finishes with score of 946 in 2012 Eastern Kentucky University Colonel Classic in Richmond, Ky.

By Clay Laker

The women's golf team finished in eighth place at the 2012 Eastern Kentucky University Colonel Classic on Saturday in Richmond, Ky.

The Falcons finished with a score of 946 in three rounds. The team was in a good position after 36 holes, shooting a 304 in the second round and finishing the first day in fifth place. In the final round, the team matched its opening round score of 321 and slipped to eighth place.

Mid-American Conference rival Akron won the tournament with a score of 914. Shelby Wilson was the low scorer for the Falcons, shooting a 79 on Saturday to finish with a 229 and tie for seventh place, her second top 10 finish this season. She also took the team lead in scoring average with 78.33.

"Individually, I am very proud of Shelby Wilson for a top-seven finish this weekend," coach Stephanie Young said. "Her one under par 71 for round two really impacted our team score of 304."

Two different freshmen have led the team in scoring for the last two events. Patricia Holt was the top Falcon at the Low Country Intercollegiate in March. Young said this shows the team is getting deeper and different players are stepping up to help the team get lower scores.

"Our team continues to show signs of improvement," Young said. "We have to keep going lower, string more 70s together and ultimately put two or three good rounds together. This squad has shown that it is capable and now we must execute down the stretch."

Paula Difrancesco tied for 25th with a total of 238. Bailey Arnold and Amy Buchenbarg finished the tournament tied with matching scores of 241.

"We want nothing more than to play our best yet at our only home event of the year," Young said. "We need to continue building momentum for the MAC Championship."

BASEBALL

From Page 6

In the lead, they drilled a one-out double to left field, and was pinch run for by Alex Blaylock, who entered the game set at home beginning on Kent State in a three-game series this weekend, taking on Lancaster Davison. Davison moved up double to left field, and scored on a suicide squeeze reached on an error, and ultimately put two or three good rounds together. This squad has shown that it is capable and now we must execute down the stretch."

The FGCA women's team lead in scoring average with 78.33. She also took the team lead in scoring average with 78.33.

"Individually, I am very proud of Shelby Wilson for a top-seven finish this weekend," coach Stephanie Young said. "Her one under par 71 for round two really impacted our team score of 304."

Two different freshmen have led the team in scoring for the last two events. Patricia Holt was the top Falcon at the Low Country Intercollegiate in March. Young said this shows the team is getting deeper and different players are stepping up to help the team get lower scores.

"Our team continues to show signs of improvement," Young said. "We have to keep going lower, string more 70s together and ultimately put two or three good rounds together. This squad has shown that it is capable and now we must execute down the stretch."

Paula Difrancesco tied for 25th with a total of 238. Bailey Arnold and Amy Buchenbarg finished the tournament tied with matching scores of 241.

"We want nothing more than to play our best yet at our only home event of the year," Young said. "We need to continue building momentum for the MAC Championship."

The Falcons return to the top Falcon at the Low Country Intercollegiate in March. Young said this shows the team is getting deeper and different players are stepping up to help the team get lower scores.

"Our team continues to show signs of improvement," Young said. "We have to keep going lower, string more 70s together and ultimately put two or three good rounds together. This squad has shown that it is capable and now we must execute down the stretch."

Paula Difrancesco tied for 25th with a total of 238. Bailey Arnold and Amy Buchenbarg finished the tournament tied with matching scores of 241.

"We want nothing more than to play our best yet at our only home event of the year," Young said. "We need to continue building momentum for the MAC Championship."

The Falcons return to the top Falcon at the Low Country Intercollegiate in March. Young said this shows the team is getting deeper and different players are stepping up to help the team get lower scores.

"Our team continues to show signs of improvement," Young said. "We have to keep going lower, string more 70s together and ultimately put two or three good rounds together. This squad has shown that it is capable and now we must execute down the stretch."

Paula Difrancesco tied for 25th with a total of 238. Bailey Arnold and Amy Buchenbarg finished the tournament tied with matching scores of 241.

"We want nothing more than to play our best yet at our only home event of the year," Young said. "We need to continue building momentum for the MAC Championship."
University of Pittsburgh receives 12 bomb threats

With the 12 bomb threats received on the University of Pittsburgh's campus Monday, the university's total count increased to 31.

Four dormitories - Anna Hii, Bruce Hall, Brackenridge Hall and Panther Hall - received the first set of bomb threats around 4 a.m. The buildings were evacuated and then reopened around 5:00 a.m.

The next threat came at 1:10 p.m. Pitt sent out an Emergency Notification System alert notifying the campus of the bomb threat at the University Club. The threat also caused an evacuation of neighboring Thackeray Hall about half an hour later.

"I wasn't expecting it to happen here," said Melkia B. Byers, a junior who works in the University Club. Ford went through everything. It's just a system, an email building.

Before that there was another bomb threat about three hours earlier. At about 10 p.m. Monday, Pitt received a bomb threat by phone at the University Club.

"I don't think it was coupled with anything else. It's just a system, an email building."

Byers said the threat included possible booby traps and a man claiming to be a Napoleonic general.

According to records from the Office of Student Financial Services, the University of Pittsburgh had 23,869 full-time undergraduate students and 18,539 graduate students in the 2010-2011 school year - a total that amounted to 31 percent of all the financial aid recipients at the university that year. The government has the right to stop the loan, but a student that is not in compliance can still graduate. A student that is not in compliance can still graduate. According to records from the Office of Student Financial Services, the University of Pittsburgh had 23,869 full-time undergraduate students and 18,539 graduate students in the 2010-2011 school year - a total that amounted to 31 percent of all the financial aid recipients at the university that year. The government has the right to stop the loan, but a student that is not in compliance can still graduate. According to records from the Office of Student Financial Services, the University of Pittsburgh had 23,869 full-time undergraduate students and 18,539 graduate students in the 2010-2011 school year - a total that amounted to 31 percent of all the financial aid recipients at the university that year. The government has the right to stop the loan, but a student that is not in compliance can still graduate. According to records from the Office of Student Financial Services, the University of Pittsburgh had 23,869 full-time undergraduate students and 18,539 graduate students in the 2010-2011 school year - a total that amounted to 31 percent of all the financial aid recipients at the university that year. The government has the right to stop the loan, but a student that is not in compliance can still graduate. According to records from the Office of Student Financial Services, the University of Pittsburgh had 23,869 full-time undergraduate students and 18,539 graduate students in the 2010-2011 school year - a total that amounted to 31 percent of all the financial aid recipients at the university that year. The government has the right to stop the loan, but a student that is not in compliance can still graduate. According to records from the Office of Student Financial Services, the University of Pittsburgh had 23,869 full-time undergraduate students and 18,539 graduate students in the 2010-2011 school year - a total that amount...
did you know?

the university student body, composed of more than 20,000 students, represent all 50 states and about 70 foreign countries.

Wood County

Personal, Expert Care.

Megan E. Porter, D.O.

Offering comprehensive gynecological and obstetric care for women of all ages.

To schedule an appointment, call 419.352.8427.
Help Wanted

Child care needed in non-smoking Parma home. 30 yrs. exp. needs to help with a 4-year-old child. Call 440-639-0667.

For Rent

Lease req. Excellent Condition! 27 Enzyme ending
39 Attending a Lakers game, say
35 After "get," game an advantage
27 Enzyme ending
43 Inning halt
58 Hold up. as a bank
60 Wheel cover
62 HI hello
64 "The Iron Horse," baseball's
69 It has reservations
70 G.I. fare
25-,30-and 45-Across

Help Wanted

Clerking and.misc. help needed for shop of kids

GOULDSHIRE PRO is now hiring platers at the state to make the opportunities + internships. Call 1-800-927-9101 or www.colleges.com

FLY HELICOPTER needed for
hard desk position, all skills, writing,
legal writing. 30-40 years exp. $60,000 income. Call

PT teaching assistant needed for child at Deaf Foundation. Fax resume to 419-339-4306.

PT -纨nual for wellness afternoons & Saturdays.
Host name, or write, Call Kory at 419-403-0177.

House painter, good
Need of people, paint or trolley
quality. Call 419-632-7102.

PLUS Bidder contest.
May 14-15, 6th St and Louisiana.

"Houses & ads almost all 11/7/13.
301-6, 4 br, $325, 3 br, $295,
2 br, $275, 1 br, $150.
June 1st. For more info call
419-353-0203 or email
movements@refuge.com

FLY HELICOPTER needed for
hard desk position, all skills, writing,
legal writing. 30-40 years exp. $60,000 income. Call

PT teaching assistant needed for child at Deaf Foundation. Fax resume to 419-339-4306.

PT -纨nual for wellness afternoons & Saturdays.
Host name, or write, Call Kory at 419-403-0177.

House painter, good
Need of people, paint or trolley
quality. Call 419-632-7102.

PLUS Bidder contest.
May 14-15, 6th St and Louisiana.

"Houses & ads almost all 11/7/13.
301-6, 4 br, $325, 3 br, $295,
2 br, $275, 1 br, $150.
June 1st. For more info call
419-353-0203 or email
movements@refuge.com

FLY HELICOPTER needed for
hard desk position, all skills, writing,
legal writing. 30-40 years exp. $60,000 income. Call

PT teaching assistant needed for child at Deaf Foundation. Fax resume to 419-339-4306.

PT -纨nual for wellness afternoons & Saturdays.
Host name, or write, Call Kory at 419-403-0177.