Monitor Newsletter July 26, 1982

Bowling Green State University
University selected for Soviet manual

Bowling Green has been selected for inclusion in a Manual of Biological Institutions of the World, to be published by the Institute of Plant Physiology of the Ukrainian Academy of Sciences at Kiev. The international reputation of the University's department of biological sciences, and particularly its recognition in the Soviet Union, have been cited in the invitation for inclusion in the manual. Dr. Reginald Noble, chair of the department, has participated in several research exchange programs with Soviet scholars in recent years.

Summer work hours to end Aug. 13

The four-and-one-half-day summer work schedule will continue through Aug. 13. Beginning Monday, Aug. 16, regular work hours will resume. In most cases, offices will be open 8 a.m. to noon and 1-5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Fall fee waiver forms are due

Employees are reminded by the Office of the Bursar that Dependent/Employee Fee Waiver forms for fall semester 1982 should be completed and forwarded as soon as possible.

Fall semester will begin Aug. 30.

University surplus to be displayed

University surplus will be displayed Wednesday (July 28) from 6-10 a.m. at the storage building east of WBGU-TV. At that time, department and area heads will have the opportunity to select at no cost any items which have been turned over to inventory management for surplus distribution. A wide variety of items, including office furniture, will be available.

University surplus is currently being distributed to students, faculty, administration, and departments. Surplus items are designated as surplus by the department or college prior to the surplus process.

Search begins for president's assistant

Richard Edwards, vice president for University relations, has been named to chair the committee which will conduct a national search for an assistant to President Thomas K.Ή. The assistant to the president, who will report directly to Olscamp, will serve as secretary to the Board of Trustees, assist in designing a developmental campaign and serve as the president's liaison with various constituencies, in addition to other duties as assigned.

Applications for the position are due to Edwards by Aug. 30.

The presidential assistant is expected to be named before the first of the year.

On the road again

Beards don't tire of cycle travel

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.

Robert Beard, health, physical education and recreation, and his wife Joan are currently leading a group of 11 cyclists on their fourth European cycling tour. The four, which can be taken for three semester hours of academic credit, is co-sponsored by the University and the Erie-Ana Council of American Youth Hostels, of which Beard is president. During the first summer term Beard taught a cycling class in the School of HPER.
Faculty & Staff

Presentations

A number of works by Robert Mazur, art, were featured in a gallery at Gallery 200 in Columbus.

Dr. Walter McKeever, psychology, co-presented a paper with graduate student Mark Sullivan and Howard Markman of the University of Denver on an article in Communication.

Dr. Robert MacKinnon of the Psychology Department at the University of Michigan, presented a paper on "A second case of right hemisphere speech development in the anterior commissure-spared split-brain patient" with K.F. Sullivan, S.M. Ferguson and M. Rapoport, and he co-presented a paper, "A test of a model of individual differences in cerebral dominance for language," with graduate student Daniel Nolan.

The following psychology department faculty

Institutional studies has CUE papers

Copies of the CUE (Competency-based Undergraduate Educational) Project Report are available.

Occasional and Technical Papers are available through the University of Minnesota, Psychological Association.

Drs. Donald Levinthal, John Schuck, Harold Hoff, and graduate student Scott Gammer, "The effect of extraneous probe stimulations on the reaction time performance of non-paramodar schizophrenia.

Dr. Schuck and graduate student Vanessa Lippa, "Reaction time and schizophrenia: Initiation and execution response latencies;

Dr. Schuck and graduate student Gregory Jureen, "The interpersonal relationship of indices of emotional precipitants of asphasia, psychomotor responses to asphasia and symptom history in children;"

Dr. Schuck and graduate student Susan Kruepim, "An explanation of affective responses to physical and social conditions of group density," with Daniel Arkelin of Wartburg College and Cheri Christiansen of the University of Missouri.

Dr. Pietro Badile and graduate student Lawrence Schoen, "The effects of session duration on preference for signaled shock;"

Dr. Psychology Log, Judy Tudor and graduate student Mark Reek, "Comprehending Television Comprehension: The Role of Personality;"

Cavanaugh also presented "Developmental Differences in Adults' Comprehension of Television;"

Dr. Michael Doherty and James Holzworth of the University of Connecticut, "On the belief in the paranormal;"

Drs. Kenneth Pargament, Irwin Silberman, graduate students Rabin Echemendia, Steven Johanson and Susan Snyder, "The psychical climate of churches and synagogues: Initial Indicators;"

Dr. Clifford Myatt and graduate student Keith Hulse, "Relationships between dimensions of community and dimensions of cause attributions;"

In addition, presentations were made by graduate students Laura K. Wallerstein, Howard Richtstein and Lee Markowitz.

Sessions at the meetings were chaired by Drs. Kenneth M. Alvarez, "Motivation in Work Settings: Badia," "Aversive Learning; Cavanaugh, "Prose Comprehension;" Levant, "Tactile PC Clinical Psychology;" Ulman, "Psychopathology;" and Veitch, "Social Cognition;"

Pargament participated in a symposium entitled "Is Education Community Psychology's Model?" and Veitch participated in a panel discussion on "Continuing Education for High School Psychology Teachers in Light of NSF Funding Cuts: Alternative Models;"

Dr. Larry Smith, humanities and English, Firelands, presented a paper, "The Importance of Biographical Criticism in Contemporary Poetry: The Example of Lawrence Ferlinghetti;" at the annual conference of the College English Association of Ohio April 24 in Columbus.

Silverman, also read selections from his recent book of poetry, "Scissors, Paper, Rock." May 18 at Cleveland State University.

Dr. Bernard Sternsher, history, presented a paper on "Depression Labor Historiography Since 1970: High-Level Generalizations, Middle-Rank Questions and Ethnocentrism;" at the annual meeting of the Organization of American Historians held recently in Philadelphia.

Drs. Ray Twomey and Michael E. Doty, psychology, presented a paper, "Heuristics of Scientific Reasoning;" at the Western Regional Meeting of the American Philosophical Association May 1 in Columbus.

Jack Ward, instructional media center, presented a three-screen, six-projector multi-media program prepared for the College of Education's orientation program at the national conference of the Association for Educational Communication Technology May 3 in Dallas.

Drs. Jerry W. Wicks and Edward G. Stockwall, sociology, presented a paper, "Socioeconomic Differences in Infant Mortality;" at the annual conference of the North Central Sociological Association May 6 in Detroit.

Dr. Thomas D. Anderson, geography, "Communism in the USA: Has it been oversold;? To be distributed by the International Communication Agency and in the local press outside the United States over the USCAR overseas information program.

Dr. Richard R. Burke, educational foundations and inquiry, "Communicating with Students in Schools: A workbook for practitioners and teachers in training published by University Press.

Dr. John Chun, humanities, Firelands, "Israel's Development as Narrator: Melville's Synthesizing Process," in the spring issue of "College Literature," was published under the pseudonym of John Young.

The manufacturing technology program at Firelands was given a donation of $500 in the form of plastic reels to the Plastic Reel Society of Plastic Engineers. Firelands chapter.

Dr. Ervin Shenbaum, political science, "Storm King: Bureaucrats, The Courts and Interest Group Conflict," an article in, "Southeastern Political Review."

Shenbaum also co-authored "Public Perceptions of Presidential Performance: From Johnson to Carter," an article in "Presidential Studies Quarterly."

Dr. Carney Strange, college student personnel, is the co-author of "Intellectual Development and its Relationship to College Years," published in the "Journal of Applied Developmental Psychology." The article was written with Patricia King, Ohio State University.

Employment Opportunities

Free copies of the publications can be obtained by calling the institutional studies office at 372-2681.

CLASSIFIED EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

NEW VACANCIES

Posting Expiration Date: Monday, Aug. 2

8-2-1 Secretary 1 Pay Range 26 University Library/Access Services

8-2-2 Typist 1 Pay Range 3 Payroll Services

CONTINUED VACANCIES

Posting Expiration Date: Monday, July 26

7-26-6 Administrative Secretary 1 Pay Range 28 University Office

7-26-1 Clerk I Pay Range 2 Bursars Office

7-26-3 Custodial Worker Pay Range 2 Technical Support Services

7-26-5 Delivery Worker Pay Range 4 University Post Office

7-26-5 Secretary 1 Pay Range 26 Legal Studies

Facuity/Staff Positions, 1982-83

The following faculty positions have been authorized:

Computer Science: Instructor. Contact Faculty Search Committee. computer science. Deadline: August 15.

Legal Studies: Assistant professor. Contact legal studies department (22376). Deadline: Aug. 2.

The following contract positions have been approved:

Publications

Dr. Thomas D. Anderson, geography, "Communism in the USA: Has it been oversold;? To be distributed by the International Communication Agency and in the local press outside the United States over the USCAR overseas information program.

Dr. Richard R. Burke, educational foundations and inquiry, "Communicating with Students in Schools: A workbook for practitioners and teachers in training published by University Press.

Dr. John Chun, humanities, Firelands, "Israel's Development as Narrator: Melville's Synthesizing Process," in the spring issue of "College Literature," was published under the pseudonym of John Young.

The manufacturing technology program at Firelands was given a donation of $500 in the form of plastic reels to the Plastic Reel Society of Plastic Engineers. Firelands chapter.

Dr. Ervin Shenbaum, political science, "Storm King: Bureaucrats, The Courts and Interest Group Conflict," an article in, "Southeastern Political Review."

Shenbaum also co-authored "Public Perceptions of Presidential Performance: From Johnson to Carter," an article in "Presidential Studies Quarterly."

Dr. Carney Strange, college student personnel, is the co-author of "Intellectual Development and its Relationship to College Years," published in the "Journal of Applied Developmental Psychology." The article was written with Patricia King, Ohio State University.

"Mummies, badges in Fine Arts Gallery

"Attempts at Preservation," an exhibition of works by former Toledo Printmakers, opened July 26 at the Fine Arts Gallery of the School of Art. The exhibit can be viewed between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays through Aug. 27. Admission is free.

A free exhibition of student works continues in the McCall Center Gallery through Aug. 26. Gallery hours for the summer are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays. Both the McCall and Fine Arts galleries are closed on weekends.

McCall exhibit opens in Washington

The McCall Center Gallery exhibit "Images of Age" has opened in Washington, D.C.

The touring exhibition, organized by Mary Wolfe and displayed at the McCall Center Gallery last year, is being shown at the headquarters of the National Council on Aging, 600 Maryland Ave.

Developed on the premise that creative powers increase with age, the national exhibition is devoted to sculpture and paintings by artists beyond age 60. The exhibition is expected to be on display through Labor Day at the National Council on Aging headquarters.